Police Seek Hit And Run Complaint Against Local Man

Miss Olga Currier, 20, of 199 Bellevue street, Newton was hit last Thursday night, February 21 on Newtonville avenue by an automobile alleged to have been operated by Ralph Barber of 158 Newtonville avenue, Newton. Miss Currier was walking on Newtonville avenue opposite Munroe street, Newtonville at 8:20 when an automobile came along at a rapid speed, hit her, and then continued up the grade towards Bellevue street, Newton. The force of the impact hurled Miss Currier several feet and tore one of her shoes off. Several minutes after the accident Eleanor Pedraunt of Walnut street, Brookline happened to come along in his automobile, observed Miss Currier lying in the snow, and carried her to her home. Police headquarters was notified and the girl was taken to the Newton Hospital where it was found she had received severe injuries to her head and back.

Police found pieces of a broken headlight near where the girl was hit and a broadcast was sent out over the police radio in an effort to detect the car that struck her. Last Friday morning Barber came to police headquarters, accompanied by his attorney, Anthony Julian of Watertown. Barber said he did not know anyone had been hit until he read of the accident in the morning papers. He said he had operated his car along Newtonville avenue about the time the accident occurred at a speed of about 30 miles. He said he had observed a woman near the car as he drove by where Miss Currier was struck, but he did not know he had hit her. Barber's attorney asked for a hearing before any complaints will be issued. The date of the hearing was set for March 6. The police will ask for complaints against Barber for driving to endanger and leaving the scene of an accident without revealing his identity.

German Measles Rampant In City

For the past two months that type of measles commonly known as German measles has been increasingly prevalent in this city. This disease is also known as French measles and it attacks any nationality. According to medical science it is called "rubella." It is an acute, specific disease with a dusky red cutaneous eruption like that of measles, but without catarrhal symptoms. Among its hundreds of victims in Newton have been many adults, as well as children. Many of the cases have not been reported to the Health Department because parents of some children who have had the disease have not called a physician. During the month of January 40 cases of the disease were reported in this city. Up to yesterday 146 cases were reported during February; 61 of these cases during the past week. The outbreak of this sickness has seriously affected school attendance.

Autos Collide at West Newton

Lower Falls Man Beat Children Sent To Jail

Agent For M. S. P. C. C. Asks Custody of Children

John W. Farrell, 32, of 151 Concord street, Newton Lower Falls, was sentenced to serve 20 days in Middlesex County prison by Judge Bacon in the Newton court on Monday for cruelty to his two children, Elaine, 9; and William, 7. On February 19 the two children were observed walking along South avenue, Weston by a woman residing nearby. She took them into her home and after they told her they had run away from home because of having been beaten by their father, the woman notified the Newton police. City Physician Lowe examined the children and found they had severe bruises on their bodies where they had been beaten, allegedly with a strap.

Patrolman Howard Carley and Agent F. T. Waite of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, investigated the case and as a result Farrell was arrested last Thursday night. Patrolman Carley testified that the children's stepmother told him they had stolen some cookies, a loaf of bread and some candy, and eaten it. Carley also testified that the stepmother said that she did not want the children around. Farrell testified that he had tried to break the children of lying and had lost his temper. Patrolman Carley told the judge that neighbors and the teachers in the school attended by the children, said their conduct has been good. Agent Waite of the M. S. P. C. C. applied for complaints charging that the children have been neglected.

Fined $150 For Drunken Driving

James Gregg of 19 Hundreds circle, Wellesley was fined $150 by Judge Bacon in the Newton court on Monday for driving a car while under the influence of liquor. A charge of drunkenness was placed on file. The charges against Gregg followed a collision between his car and a B. & W. bus on the Worcester turnpike on the night of February 16. The bus was stopped when the collision occurred. One passenger on the bus, Joseph Clancy of Natick, told the police to take his name and address after the accident, as he claimed he was injured. He said his back was strained. Serg. Crowley and Patrolman Smith had just passed the bus in a police car as the crash occurred.

He was congratulated on being the first Alderman of Italian ancestry to be elected in Newton, and prophecies were made that his political career is only starting. Two More Newton Pedestrians Are Badly Injured

The condition of Newton sidewalks, which has forced persons to walk on highways since the snowstorm of January 23, caused two more pedestrians to be hit by an automobile about 9 Sunday night. A car driven by Emily Hauck of Concord street, Cambridge, a student at Radcliffe College, hit Andrew Sbordone, 20, of 15 Cook street, Nonantum, and Phyllis Calvi, 20, of 231 Palmyre street, Watertown, as they were walking on Watertown street, Newtonville, near Nevada street. Sbordone received concussion of the brain and a scalp wound that required 28 stitches to close. Miss Calvi received injuries to her legs. They were taken to the Newton Hospital.

Middlesex Court M.C.O.F. Has 49th Anniversary

Lieut. Col. Paul G. Kirk Addresses Gathering

Middlesex Court, M. C. O. F. observed the 49th anniversary of its institution on Tuesday night at Elks Hall, Newton. Two hundred were present at the banquet which started at 7:30. Miss Marion Goode, Vice Chief Ranger of the Court and chairman of the committee in charge, extended a welcome in behalf of the Court and introduced Edward H. Powers as toastmaster. William J. Barry of Brighton, deputy of the Court, urged the members to co-operate in the "Catholic Action" movement recently started. Miss Mary R. Shea, Chief Ranger of Middlesex Court, referred to the past record and accomplishments of the organization and expressed confidence that the present members will continue the good work of their predecessors. She was presented a bouquet of Killarney roses.

James A. Desmond of Jamaica Plain, member of the Finance Committee of the M. C. O. F. reminisced on his affiliations with the Court during the past 30 years. Joseph A. Cahalan of Dorchester, Past High Chief Ranger, told the gathering that the Order is in a sufficiently sound financial condition to give encouragement to its members. Rev. Joseph P. Shea of Medford, a member of the Court, advocated increased social activities in the Court as commendable means for promoting the individual and collective welfare of the members.

Lieut. Col. Paul G. Kirk of Newton, Commissioner of Public Safety, was the principal speaker of the evening. He outlined some of the principal functions of the department over which he presides and he asked those present to co-operate in lessening the appalling number of automobile casualties which have occurred in Massachusetts in the past year. Colonel Kirk told of the interest which a newspaper stories of crime create and he mentioned the tendency of many citizens not to co-operate with law enforcement officers in bringing about the detection and conviction of criminals. He referred to the avidity with which persons read all the details of the Hauptmann trial and of the sympathy people gave to the Lindberghs. Colonel Kirk said that the grief of relatives of the 921 victims of automobile fatalities in this State last year was, probably, as poignant as that of the Lindberghs, but little attention seems to be paid by people to such large numbers of unnecessary killings, caused in large part by carelessness on the part of automobile drivers.

Others who spoke were Miss Annie Sullivan of the High Finance Committee of the M. C. O. F. and Thomas Fitzgerald, Deputy High Chief Ranger. Thomas Waters of Newtonville, and Daniel Fardon of Newton Centre, charter members of the Court, were presented to the gathering. Baritone solos were given by Stephen Keefe of Malden, accompanied by Miss Compson.

Fire In Chestnut Hill Apartments

The big apartment building at 219 Commonwealth avenue, Chestnut Hill was the scene of a fire at 12:54 a. m. Thursday. The blaze occurred in third floors next to apartments occupied by Hugh Woods and Earl Notbaum. Box 87 brought several pieces of fire apparatus and quick work on the part of the firemen confined the blaze to the two apartments. Occupants of the 25 apartments in the building were not forced to leave. The damage was estimated at about $500. The building is now owned by Real Estate Managers, Inc. of Newton. Last year it was remodeled and converted from several large apartments into 28 small apartments. This caused a large number of false partitions to be erected within the building.

Several Hurt in Auto Crashes

Cars driven by Jack Oppen of 331 Lowell ave., Newtonville, and Balton Westhaver of Columbia st., Wellesley, collided on Sunday on Washington st., Newtonville. It was reported that Mrs. Ethel Oppen received injuries. Edmund Vachon of 40 Cypress st., Newton Centre, received a broken finger on his right hand Saturday evening when his car was hit by an automobile driven by Winslow Sears of Old Orchard rd., Chestnut Hill. Vachon had stopped his car on Hammond st. to clean the windshield of snow when the other car came from behind. His finger was caught in the door as he was hurried forward by the impact.

Woman Who Inhaled Gas Dies

Mrs. Annie Russell of 108a Derby street, West Newton died at the Newton Hospital last Friday from the effects of inhaling gas fumes at her apartment late on the night of February 18. The gas was escaping from burners on a gas stove. A few weeks previous, Mrs. Russell was rescued from the Charles River at Lower Falls after she had fallen from the railroad bridge near Concord street. She was 59 years of age.

Baptist Church Celebrates 100th Anniversary

The 100th Anniversary of the Second Baptist Church of Newton, located at the corner of Ellis and Chestnut streets, Newton Upper Falls, will be celebrated this week beginning with a dinner on Friday evening, March first, at 8:30 p. m. which will be served by the Dorcas Club. Dr. Samuel M. Lindsay will give the address and Rev. E. B. Dolan will bring greetings from the Massachusetts Baptist Convention.

On Sunday, March 3rd, at the morning services at 10:45 the pastor, Rev. James A. Whitman will speak on "Past Victories of Our Church," and in the evening at 7:30 there will be a 100th Anniversary Service at which Rev. G. Vaughn Shedd will offer the prayer and Hon. Edwin O. Childs and Dr. Everett C. Herrick will speak. Delegates from the churches of the West Boston Association will be present.

The following is a historical sketch of the church and those who have served as pastors from the time the parish was organized.

As early as the year 1830, Baptist meetings were held in Upper Falls in the home of "one Jonathan Bixby." In 1833 a meeting-house was built, and in the following year the First Baptist Church of Newton began planning for a future church at Upper Falls. On Feb. 8, 1835, such an organization was formed by 57 people who brought their letters from the First Church. The plan was sponsored by ministers from the Newton Theological Institution. The new church was recognized "as a regular Baptist Church of Christ in Gospel Order."

At the end of the first year there was a membership of 74 and a Sunday-school of 140. Students from Newton Theological Institution cared for the church until the calling of Rev. Origen Crane in the fall of 1836. During his ministry the membership increased to 121. By 1843, 139 members were listed on the active rolls. Following this period of prosperity, there was a general decline due to financial distress and unemployment.

In 1856 a group of seven members withdrew to form a new church in Needham Great Plains, now the Needham Baptist Church.

The church was remodeled in 1880. With evangelistic fervor, in 1882 came the establishment of a mission in Highlandville where more than 100 people worshipped every Sunday.

Since 1886 there have been times when it was thought the church could no longer survive, but with the encouragement of the faculty of Newton Theological Institution, the State Convention, the First Baptist Church and other neighboring Baptist Churches, the work has been continued.

Perhaps the greatest Christian victory of the Second Baptist Church has been the part it has played in helping train over forty ministers of the Gospel, many of whom have become outstanding powers for Christ in America and on the Mission fields. The church remembers with pride that the Rev. S. F. Smith, the author of "America" was pastor of the church for six years.

At the time of the organization the church officers were Rev. Origen Crane, pastor; Asa F. Smith, clerk; Ira M. Bullens, treasurer; and Isaac Keyes and Lauren Kingsbury, Deacons.

Following is a list of the forty-seven ministers who have served as pastors of the Second Baptist Church in its 100 years of life.

Origen Crane	1836-1840
Students	1840-1841
Chas. W. Dennison	1841-1843
R. C. Palmer	1844-1845

School Supt. Warren Addresses N.E.A. Convention

Speaks At Annual Meeting In Atlantic City, N. J.

At the annual meeting of the National Education Association, Department of Superintendence, held at Atlantic City, New Jersey, Feb. 25-28, Julius E. Warren, superintendent of Newton Schools, spoke on "Curriculum Trends and Controversies" before several thousand superintendents of schools from all parts of the country.

Mr. Warren said in part: "Teachers and administrators must become progressively leaders in the training of clear thinking. Any program of education aimed to modify the present social order must recognize all the other community agencies of education which are instrumental in present day life, and the school, an integral force of the present social order, ought to continue to serve, increasingly so, as a co-ordinating agency in welding together these varied interests and movements. In attempting this program in our schools it must be done slowly and with the same amount of energy, sacrifice, and consecration as we have heretofore devoted to the perfection of the techniques of teaching, reading, spelling, music and language."

Many national educational associations meet as departments of the National Education Association at the same time, totaling nearly 10,000 educators from all parts of the country. Paul E. Ellicker, principal of the high school, attended the annual sessions of the Department of Secondary School principals. While in attendance he represented the public secondary schools of the country on the National Committee for teaching safety education.

Herbert A. Landry, director of research and guidance, Newton Schools, attended the annual sessions of the National Vocational Guidance Association.

Aldermen Confirm Reynolds As Head Of Welfare Dept.

At a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen last Thursday night the appointment of James P. Reynolds as Director of the Public Welfare Department was confirmed by a vote of 18 to 12. The vote was by ballot. Alderman Grebenstein arose to speak on this matter but President Gordon of the Board cited the rule that no debate is permitted on matters of confirming appointments.

Slight Blaze at Bigelow School

A pair of overalls which caught fire, probably from spontaneous ignition, caused considerable excitement at Bigelow school, Park st., Newton, shortly before 5 Tuesday afternoon. The overalls had been placed behind an umbrella stand in one of the corridors at the building and the smoke from them was observed by a group of teachers and pupils who were leaving the school after playing basketball. The fire department was called, but before the firemen arrived the "conflagration" in the overalls had been extinguished by the use of hand extinguishers.

Hearing at City Hall on Changing Election Laws

Next Monday night at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen in City Hall a public hearing will be held on a bill introduced in the Legislature by several Newton citizens including former Aldermen Earle, Sproat and Powers, and David Greer. This bill, known as House Bill 657, seeks to revise the city charter in respect to the election of aldermen, school committee members and holding elections biennially instead of annually.

Under the present city charter elections are held every year. The Mayor is elected for a term of two years; aldermen-at-large voted for all over the city, are elected for two year terms; Ward aldermen, voted for only in the Ward each represents, are elected for a one year term. Members of the School Committee are voted for in all seven Wards, and for three year terms. According to the proposed revisions annual elections would be abolished, and biennial elections would replace them. The purpose of this change is—that in so-called "off-year" elections in Newton, when there is no mayoralty election, comparatively few Newton citizens have gone to the polls; at some elections even less than 2% of the total registered voters. It has been evident that such a condition makes more probable the election of men to the city government who might not be successful at elections where a majority of the voters cast ballots, and that such men would not be truly representative.

Each of the seven Wards in the city now has three Aldermen on the Board; two of whom are designated as Aldermen-at-Large, elected for a term of two years, and chosen on alternate years. They are voted for in all of the seven wards. The third alderman from each Ward is voted for only in that Ward and for a one year term. The proposed revised charter would have all three aldermen from a Ward voted for only in the Ward they represent, and for two year terms. The reasons given by the proponents of the bill for these changes are—that there has been a growing tendency to have partisan politics and political machines dictate the choice of aldermen-at-large in Newton, that this has thwarted the wishes of residents of the ward which some aldermen so elected are supposed to represent, that it has prevented the election or reelection of aldermen who would have been the popular choices on a ward election basis, and that it is unfair to require the one Ward Alderman from each ward to be compelled to seek reelection every year he remains a member of the Board. It is understood that some of the proponents of the bill are willing to compromise on two of the three aldermen from a ward being voted for only in that ward, and the third to be voted for all over the city as an alderman-at-large.

The bill provides that each school committee member shall be voted for only in the ward represented. Under the present method of electing members for three-year teams, the terms of members expire at the ratio of 2—2—3 in succeeding years. To eliminate the possibility of an entirely new Board being elected at any one year, it has been suggested that the terms of the School Committee may be extended to four years; this would permit three members to be chosen at one election and four at the next. Other matters, such as abolition of preferential voting and requiring more signatures on nomination papers, may be included in the bill.

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

By JACK MORRIS

THREE DEFEATS FOR OUR LADY'S QUINTET

Our Lady High School's basketball season came to a disappointing finish this week in three successive defeats. Playing against the champion Mission team Tuesday night at Roxbury, the Newton quintet was beaten 28-26, although the league leaders had a terrific battle to win. High scorer for the evening was Francis Morris, whose 17 points more than doubled the total of Joe Mulken of Mission, high man for the winners with 8 points.

Last week Our Lady's went into a bad slump. With a chance to climb well up in the league standing, they lost to Immaculate Conception by 33-23 at Revere, then succumbed to Cathedral High 30-9 on the Boston team's court. "Chicken" Morris scored 12 points for the losing cause at Revere, with Mario Marino and Bernard Mulken adding four apiece.

NEWTON-MEDFORD GAME ENDS HOCKEY SEASON

Newton was deprived last Friday of what small chance remained to win the Greater Boston Interscholastic Hockey League honors, when Cambridge Latin defeated the locals 1-0 at the Boston Arena. The Cambridge goal came in the tenth minute of the game when a backhand drive from the stick of Ray Chaisson, partially stopped by goalie Burt Woodward, dropped in the mouth of the goal inside the line. The game was boisterous, but penalties were limited to one for each club. John Gomes, the Cambridge goalie, robbed the Newton forwards of many chances to tie the score.

In the game against Medford tomorrow at the Boston Garden, Newton, has almost nothing at stake. While Arlington and Melrose will be fighting tooth and nail for the championship in their respective games, Newton plays with the realization that they cannot finish better or worse than third in the league standing. However, the team is eager to see Ernie MacLeod finish the season at the top of the scoring records, where he is now bracketed with Ray Chaisson of Cambridge, each having made sixteen points in thirteen league games.

KERINS WINS SHOTPUT BUT NEWTON FAVORED

Leading 5-4 in the early stages of the Newton-Brookline track meet at Newtonville today, Brookline is nevertheless the underdog. Charles Kerins, Brookline's only certain winner, yesterday won the shotput with a heave of 48 feet 6 inches from Melvin Swig and Charles Heard, both of Newton. The event was staged a day early so that more spectators might be accommodated for the main part of the meet today.

Leon Rogers, Brookline's very good sprinter, is definitely out of the running as a result of the spike wound he incurred in the Andover 300. His understudy, Harold Sklar, who is a broad jumper as well as a sprinter, is also on the sick list. Robin "Bob" Hartman, the very backbone of the Brookline team, has been ailing somewhat lately, but it is certain that no slight indisposition will keep him at home today.

Warren Wittens, Newton ace in four events, has been kept from classes all week with a suspicion of German measles, but it is possible that he will report. If he is not running, Brookline will count heavily in the hurdles with Hartman and Tom Guthrie. However, Newton has great strength in the broad jump, 300, 600 and 1000-yard runs, and in the relay.

NEWTON WEAKENS IN ANDOVER TRACK MEET

Showing the effects of a week's vacation from school, the Newton High track team was able to score only four points in the interscholastic meet last Saturday at Andover Academy. Warren Wittens was sent to the showers after the semi-final heats of the hurdles when he was found to have a mild case of measles. Marshall Russell, by winning his heat of the 1000-yard run, was the only Newtonite to score through an individual effort, since he got half a point for tying for fourth place in the event.

Relay Team Outruns Brookline
The relay race between Newton and Brookline gave the Newton contingent almost their only chance to cheer. Although the Newton lead-off man, Bud Wittens, was watching the race from the gallery, Brookline was also handicapped. Leon Rogers having been badly spiked at the first corner in the 300 final.

In the place of the regulars, Paul Dussossoit led off for Newton against Livingstone of Brookline. Dussossoit, ordinarily a hurdler, ran a fine first leg, keeping the pole advantage and opening up a gap of about five yards for Bob Kiley. Grenier came up fast and twice challenged Kiley's lead, but Bob stayed in front and had about two strides on Grenier when he passed to Captain Allen Freeman. Running against Tom Guthrie, redheaded hurdler, Freeman opened Newton's lead to eight yards, then passed to Bob Muther, who ran a furious anchor and increased the lead to twenty yards at the finish over Anderson. Brookline's anchor man, Newton's time, 2 min. 26 sec. flat, was beaten only by Lowell, Everett and Watertown.

Marshall Russell Good in 1000
In the 1000-yard run, Johnson Quick started in ninth place in his division, worked his way steadily up to third, but was left in fourth at the finish. Al Freeman led the field all the way in the next heat, only to fade badly on the gun lap and take third. Marshall Russell ran the fourth heat, sporting his orange and black jockey cap, which he could not be persuaded to leave behind. Running second for a few laps, Russell took over the lead half-way through the race and won in 2 min. 29.45 sec., dividing the point for fourth place with Al Bigwood of Commerce. Palding of Everett, Gowell of Malden and Milton of Lynn Classical were the leaders.

Burleigh Fernald, Newton's only entry in the 600-yard run, ran a strong second to Woods of Malden in his heat, but was shut out of the points. Warren Wittens and Ray Huling won their trial heats in the hurdles, and Wittens won his quarter-final, but was eliminated in the semi-final.

Newton Jumpers Lose Out
It was too bad that Wittens was kept out of the 300, for with Rogers out of the final, all but one of the finalists were runners who had beaten previously this year. Johnny Hayward of Lynn Classical won the event. Newton was unable to pick up a point in the field events, although the broad jump entries finished fifth, sixth and seventh.

Elmer Ross was third in his trial heat in the hurdles, being beaten by Woods of Roxbury Memorial, the ultimate winner, and Donohue of Lowell. Lee Goodbar ran second in his heat of the dash, but was shut out in the quarter-final. Everett High had a perfect day, winning the meet with 20 1-2 points. Brookline was second with 13, and Lynn Classical third with 11, plus. Newton, with four modest points, was twelfth best of the twenty-five schools entered.

CARVELLI CAPTAINS B. U. '38

Albert Bernard Carvelli, a graduate of Newton High school, was last week elected captain of the freshman hockey team at Boston University. Carvelli plays center on the first line, and he celebrated his election Tuesday night on the Arena ice by scoring two solo goals and two assists as his team defeated Boston College freshmen 5-1.

High scorer all season for the Terrier yearlings, his efforts against the B. C. freshmen brought him total to 8 goals, 6 assists, 14 points. In the game with New Hampshire freshmen, he made all three goals for B. U. Carvelli lives at 62 Auburndale ave., West Newton, and is enrolled in the day division of the College of Business Administration.

Here and There

On the poster advertising the State Meet at the Boston Garden next Saturday, a footnote calls attention to the outdoor championships to be held at the Dickinson Memorial Stadium track at the end of the outdoor season. The superb track and field layout in Newtonville will be an ideal location for the biggest high school event of the spring season, and it would not be surprising if the event became an annual Newton affair.

The Suburban League basketball circuit was startled last Tuesday when Rindge Tech turned the tables on their city rivals, Cambridge Latin, handing them their first defeat of the season. Having beaten Brookline this week, 26-19, Cambridge now has the four wins necessary to keep it in a first-place tie. But if Rindge Tech wins the return game, to be played on their own floor, Newton, Rindge and Cambridge will be tied for first in the final standing.

Here are a few more Newton collegians who played college hockey this winter: Horace Wood for the Colgate University freshmen, "Moon" Duane for the Williams College freshmen, and Jack Lawrence for the Bowdoin varsity.

The Greater Boston Interscholastic Hockey finale tomorrow at the Boston Garden leaves Newton followers a trifle cold. Come what may from the Medford opposition, Captain Castoldi's team can neither rise nor fall from third place in the standing.

Tickets are decidedly at a premium for the Brookline-Newton dual track meet being held this afternoon at Newtonville, and were quickly sold out the day they went on sale, a week before the meet.

Richard Noone of Newton Centre, left wing of the Rivers School hockey team, has been elected captain for next year. Besides Captain-elect Noone, other Newton boys who received hockey letters at Rivers are Donald Griffin, Walter Muther and Phillip Spurrier.

Newton may boast an I. C. A. A. A. track champion next week. Stan Johnson of Technology and Milton Green of Harvard are the strongest

Radio Auditions at Paramount Theatre

Beginning Thursday, March 7, and every Thursday evening thereafter the Paramount Theatre in Newton will conduct a Radio Audition under the personal direction of Mr. Carl Moore of WAAB. The idea of these auditions is to find new talent for radio broadcasting. Opportunity to participate is open to anyone who can croon, classical singers, imitators, sopranos, tenors, or one might have a dialogue, or musical instrument as a specialty. Applications for auditions should be made direct to the management of the Paramount Theatre in person anytime during theatre hours at the theatre.

Each week the best entertainer of the evening to be judged by Mr. Moore will be given an opportunity to broadcast at the Metropolitan Theatre and at the final may be chosen for a week's engagement at the Metropolitan Theatre at a very desirable salary.

The picture program for the coming week will be Gary Cooper and Franchot Tone in "The Lives of a Bengal Lancer," a very wonderful picture of the soldier life in India. It is a very interesting story and a great picture, in fact one of the outstanding features of the year. On the same program Guy Kibbee will be seen in "Babbitt," by Sinclair Lewis, author of "Main Street." It is chock full of comedy and humor. This program is a perfect family program.

For the last half of the week starting Thursday Will Rogers will be seen in "The County Chairman." Co-featured with him are Evelyn Venable and Kent Taylor. On the same program Ramon Novarro and Evelyn Laye will be seen in "The Night Is Young." The usual Bob Mills Kiddle revue will be held Saturday afternoon.

COMMONWEALTH COUNTRY CLUB

The Commonwealth Country Club, Chestnut Hill, is arranging a luncheon bridge for Monday, March 4. Among the Newton ladies sponsoring the affair are James F. J. Blake, Edmund T. Keefe, M. A. Travers and Emory Wright.

LASELL JUNIOR COLLEGE

Ruth Vollrath Ross, a Lasell alumna of the class of 1912, will give a monodrama before students and guests on Friday evening, March first. The speaker at Sunday vespers will be President Daniel Marsh of Boston University. Other speakers for the week are Mr. Clyde Casady on Savings Bank Insurance, and Dr. Henry M. Willard, vice-president of the Bureau of University Travel.

LOTS OF FUN

"Until last summer, my friends hardly ever invited me to their parties," Elsie R. told her cousin. "But then Dad put in our telephone and it's been wonderful ever since. I'm not left out any more."

"Most of these parties, I've learned, are got together in a hurry, and so they rely on the telephone. It's lots of fun... I don't know how we ever got along without a telephone." And the whole family enjoys it.

This is only one of the many reasons why people value their telephones. A telephone offers you protection, security, convenience, and peace of mind, as well as friendships... and often it helps to hold jobs or to get work.

To share these benefits, call your local business office, New England Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Waters, chairman, and Mrs. John R.

ly worthwhile.

by the speaker, promises to present faithful details of color, hitherto unattainable in lantern pictures. Mrs.
Ralph Keyes, the chairman of the Garden Club, is in charge of the afternoon's program.

At this same time, a talented Harriet, Artiss de Volt, comes again to the Community Service Club of West Newton

On Wednesday, February 20th, the Community Service Club of West Newton met in the Parish House of the Second Church. The president, Mrs. Austin H. Decatur, presided, and the Club Chorus, under the leadership of Mrs. Marian Kingsbury, gave several very pleasing selections.

The speaker, Dr. Anton de Haas, William Ziegler Professor of International Relations at the Harvard University Business School, addressed the Club through the courtesy of the Newton Trust Company, and was introduced by Mrs. Herbert M. Cole of the Women's Advisory Committee of this company. His lecture on "International Relations and the Depression" was of unusual interest because of his wide knowledge of political and economic conditions, and he explained these vividly.

Among his chief points were that,
just as 1932 had been the blackest year from an economic viewpoint, so 1934 had been the blackest year from a diplomatic viewpoint; however, that December, 1934, had seen a turning point and that the tide was now toward peace; that it was realized that a successful dictator must talk war and keep peace; and there should be no worry about democracy being dead until Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Holland, Switzerland, England, and the United States had dictators.

He stated that the settlement of the Saar question was the first 100 per cent piece of work the League of Nations has been able to do, and the fact that for the first time an international army functioned probably contributed towards its success. The League also handled the matter of the assassination of the King of Yugoslavia in a way satisfactory to all countries.

Professor de Haas feels that the Nye investigation of munitions will prove to be one of the outstanding events of history and will be the means of reviving interest in the Disarmament Conference to be held in the near future.

He said the recognition of Russia by the United States has made her "respectable" in the eyes of the world, and her entrance into the League of Nations will, according to her past history, make for peace; and that she does not want more territory.

In the speaker's opinion the fact that Russia has joined the League has helped to isolate Germany still more from the rest of the world; and Hitler has redeemed none of his campaign promises.

Professor de Haas feels there is no cause for fear of an attack by Japan on the United States.

He said that the Act of Congress last summer by which we joined the International Labor Organization, an important branch of the League of Nations, was another favorable indication of future peaceful settlements of international labor difficulties. The treaty of February 3rd, by which Great Britain agreed to help keep peace on the Continent and France agreed to let Germany re-arm when she was told she might, was highly significant. The conversations between France and Italy, by the terms of which Italy, in return for some territory in Africa, agreed to help maintain the status quo in Austria and Hungary, are another hopeful sign of more peaceful times.

Professor de Haas believes that the world can never hope to get back to a sound economic basis until there is an international stabilization of world currency, possibly a return to the gold standard.

The Club Exchange table was under the direction of Mrs. Harry F. Morse.
Mrs. Julian C. Jaynes and her committee served Tea.

State Federation

urday, March 2nd, Mrs. Edgar B.
Richardson, director of Radio in the ingham Woman's Club Chorus, and a

Van Ness, chairman of this State department, announces that the Conference held annually in March on her topic will take place at the Hotel Stat-ton on Thursday and Friday, the 14th and 15th. Margaret Sanger will be the special speaker at the Luncheon on Thursday, her topic being "The Truth About Birth Control." The program has been arranged to have many interesting angles of problems in families presented by prominent educators, and entertainment will feature tableaux and readings pertinent to the topic.

CLUB INSTITUTES. Mrs. George
A. Mellen, chairman of the department of Club Institutes of the State Federation, announces that on Thursday, March 7th, at 10:30 a. m., in the Auditorium of the Boston Young Women's Christian Association, the Institute will consider "Programs." The special feature will be the replies of different clubwomen to the questions that were distributed at the February meeting. Mrs. Herbert F. French, fourth vice-president of the Federation, will call attention to some helpful ideas available to clubwomen for program making. Mrs. Joseph E. Davison, vice-chairman of the department, is arranging a demonstration lesson in Parliamentary Procedure.
Mrs. Victor P. Ratzburg, of West Newton, another department member, will speak on "Courtesies to Club Officials."

State Chairman Is The Speaker

The department of Inter-Racial Unity of the West Newton Women's Educational Club will present the program for the Club on Friday, March 8th, at 2:30 p. m. This meeting will be held, as usual, in Odd Fellows Hall, North Gate park, West Newton, and will be an Open Club Day. Mrs. John F. Capron, Twelfth District director, will be the guest of honor, and Mrs.
Burtis J. Whittemore, chairman of the being "Who Is Your Neighbor?"

A feature of the program will be the presentation of two one-act plays by members of the Foreign-Born Women's Club, who will also give an Exhibition of their Handiwork.

Mrs. Herman R. Place, who is chairman of the department of Inter-Racial Unity, has made arrangements for this Federation Day program.

Newton Federation

On Monday, February 25th, at 10
a. m., the monthly meeting of the Executive Board of the Newton Federation was held in the Newton Library with the president, Mrs. Charles Cartier Willson, in the chair. In the absence of Mrs. George J. Murphy, recording secretary, Mrs. George H.
Jackson was appointed secretary pro tem.

The chair appointed a committee to look into the matter of the Federation starting a movement for work in the prevention of crime.

Announcement was made of a Course in Adult Education free to residents of Newton.

Mrs. Joseph C. McCarron, vice-chairman of the Community Service committee, spoke of the success the clothing chest has had in working with the churches of Newton; 2,000 garments having been sent out to the churches and over 1,000 returned completed.

Mrs. Edwin H. Dyer, chairman of Conservation, requested that every one watch out for the elm tree beetle.
Mrs. Dyer reported that instead of so much civic work this coming season a planning board is to work in co-operation with the Boston Herald for the beautification of private gardens and take pictures of same.

The Education chairman, Mrs. Raymond Green, read a letter from Mr.
Paul E. Ellicker in appreciation of the assistance of one hundred Newton club-women January 9th, at a meeting at the High School. Mrs. Green also reported the arrangements made in regard to the scholarships this year.

Mrs. Alexander I. Peckham, Legislative chairman, stated that the Legislative Conference held in the Workshop, Newton Highlands, on February 3rd, was a source of satisfaction to the Newton Federation, as every club was represented, in some instances by every member of its Legislative committee.

Mrs. Victor P. Ratzburg, Program chairman, mentioned a Conference of present and incoming Program chairmen for March 12th.

The chairman of the Public Health committee, Mrs. A. H. Shannon, gave information that three departments have had public health meetings; that a bowling team is being organized by the West Newton Women's Educational Club, the proceeds to be used toward the cancer clinic at the Newton Hospital; and that the American Society for the Control of Cancer has invited the Federation to join them.

In the absence of Miss Bartlett, chairman of Christmas Health Sales,
Mrs. Willson reported that $15,754.84 has been received to date from the sale of seals, and said that Miss Bartlett hopes that all women who have not sent their checks will do so as soon as possible.

Mrs. Harold W. Drew reported the work being done by the Motion Picture committee and by the Motion Picture Council, referring especially to the interest along educational lines in the High School, and to the exchange of information at the Newton Library.

No further action was taken on the telephone nuisance resolution passed at the Mid-Winter meeting, but it was suggested that any person annoyed get in touch with the Chamber of Commerce and make a personal protest.

Mrs. J. Earle Parker gave a very concise report of the committee investigating the question of the number and the privileges of delegates.
Mrs. Alexander I. Peckham was appointed to attend further meetings at City Hall, as a result of the petition for a rectifying plant in West Newton.

Newtonville Woman's Club

A former U. S. Commissioner of Immigration for New England at the Port of Boston, the Hon. Anna C. M.
Tillinghast, will review her experiences in "Life Stories from the Immigration Station" on Club day, March 5th, at 2:30 p. m., at the Newtonville
Woman's Club House on Washington park. Appointed by President Coolidge and re-appointed by President Hoover, Mrs. Tillinghast filled one of the most important positions ever held by an American woman through such appointment, and her remarkable executive and administrative ability in the conducting of her office won for her the highest commendation from leading officials in Washington. Mrs. Til-linghast's address is sure to be thought-provoking and vitally informative.
One of the Club members, Sylvia Church Petty, Soprano, will give the musical program.

The last of the lectures by Mrs.
Frank Mansfield Taylor, on "History in the Making," will be given on March

SENTIMENT HAS CHANGED

Recent developments indicate a change of sentiment regarding the desirability of permitting dog racing in this state as voted by the people at the last State election. It is another indication that when voters are called upon to decide a public question a large number of them do not know what they are voting for. Last November the dog-racing bill was favored in every county in the state except one, but when the racing commission granted licenses for three such track locations recently a loud clamor arose in protest. The protests have been so widespread that it is quite possible the legislature may repeal this provision of the law regarding racing. At the State election Newton wisely voted against dog-racing, 13,541 to 9,698. This so-called sport has a long way to go before it will become desirable. Newton voters are to be congratulated that they did not permit themselves to be taken in.

NEW ELECTION LAWS FOR NEWTON

Next Monday evening the Aldermen will give a public hearing on a proposal to change the election laws of the city of Newton. As we stated before in this column we are not in complete accord with the changes sought by the bill presented to the State Legislature. We do believe that the election laws of the Newtons should be changed in the interests of better government and for the protection of the city against minority control. In this latter respect the elimination of the off-year election is the important feature. Such a change means a change also in the length of term of the members of the Board of Aldermen and members of the School Committee. We believe that the Aldermen should be elected for two years and the School Committee members for four years. Incidentally the preferential method of voting may come in for some discussion. We shall have further opportunity to express our views and the main point that we stress is that the voters of the city take the opportunity presented next Monday evening to express their views. This is a time when no one should hold back and let a few others do it. It concerns every one interested in maintaining good government in Newton.

This Week at Your Boys' and Girls' Library

Vernon St., Newton Corner

YOUNGER BOYS' AND GIRLS' READING CLUB

Many boys and girls have asked as they come in and out of the library, "Why did you stop sending the Story-Tellers to our school?"

The following letter from a small boy expressing his appreciation is but one of the many that have come to the librarian from boys and girls in schools visited by our Story-Tellers.

Dear Mrs. Sloan,

I liked the stories Mister and Mrs. Cronan told us this morning. We are very sorry that it is the last time that we will hear her telling the delightful stories she tells.

I wish they would hatter go. I liked the story of the White Swan. We are reading the fortune of the indies it is very exciting.

Sincerely yours,

Just at this time, when the children's interest in books and the library has been stimulated, we have organized a Reading Club for younger boys and girls.

The first meeting was held on Monday, February 25th, at four o'clock at the Boys' and Girls' Library. Thirty-eight boys and girls were present and chose Nancy Stinson as president and Robert McHugh as secretary. The children were asked what the programs for their meetings should be and expressed their interest in reading aloud by the librarians, poetry appreciation and book reviews by the members.

Boys and girls who are interested in joining the club and feel that they can attend regularly are invited to come on Mondays from four until quarter of five.

Soap models made by boys and girls in the sixth grade of the Horace Mann School are on display this week at the Boys' and Girls' Library.

The library is eager to display any interesting examples of boys' and girls' work.

Newton Woman Voters To Study Taxation

The Newton League of Women Voters — a branch of the Boston League — announces that a study group on Taxation will hold its first meeting on Monday, March 4th, at 10:15 at the house of Mr. Walter Hartstone, 950 Centre st., Newton Centre.

The group will be under the leadership of Dr. Mary A. Willcox of Newtonville.

About Town

By Edward H. Powers

Talk about parents embarrassing children by inflicting silly names on them. Did you read the names bestowed by dotting owners on the dogs exhibited at the recent show in Boston. We have an idea that these canines would growl if they realized the titles they bear.

At a hearing before a committee of the Legislature on Tuesday John W. Downs, agent for the Insurance Federation of Massachusetts stated that rates on compulsory automobile liability insurance will be substantially increased next year because they will be based on 1934 claims, and during 1934 automobile fatalities in Massachusetts increased 20% and personal injuries 13%. This news of more and bigger increases in rates will, undoubtedly be pleasing to the hundreds of thousands of automobile owners who will have to pay the higher rates. There is no doubt but that there has been a constant increase in reckless driving in Massachusetts during recent years. Faster cars operated at higher rates of speed, "fixing" of cases for offenders has become the rule and not the exception, district attorney's offices and even some judges have assisted in exculpating reckless and drunken motorists who should have been punished. Claims for fake injuries have also added heavily to the cost of automobile liability insurance. Men and women who pretend to be honest, but who procure "easy money" by making false claims of injuries allegedly received in automobile collisions have flexible consciences. Otherwise, they would not cause their fellow citizens, including friends and neighbors, to be burdened more and more each year by higher insurance rates caused in part by fake claims.

The action of the Newton Board of Aldermen on last Thursday night in confirming Mayor Weeks' appointment of James P. Reynolds as head of the Newton Welfare Department brought to an end the twelve year term of Miss Florence Fitzgerald as director of Public Welfare in this city. She continues as assistant director. During those twelve years we have had many opportunities to observe the work of this department. Prior to the depression in 1929 the functions of the Welfare Department in Newton were comparatively simple. But, during the past 5½ years the office of Director of Public Welfare has been a very difficult and trying position to fill. We have heard many persons say, "We would not want Miss Fitzgerald's job." The problems she had to face since 1929, the pitiful pleas she had to listen to, the criticisms she had to bear, would have discouraged and soured almost anyone. Of necessity she could not be as generous towards those needing relief as she desired. Consideration for taxpayers who also have been adversely affected by the depression, caused the Mayor and Aldermen to keep appropriations for the Welfare Department as low as reasonable. Miss Fitzgerald had to co-operate with the city government in this respect. She did not have a free hand in selecting assistants, and she was handicapped by having had inexperienced, small salaried temporary assistants during the past five years. And this is no reflection on these assistants. They have done as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Alderman Temperley said at a recent meeting of the Board of Aldermen that it seemed strange that Miss Fitzgerald's direction of the Welfare Department received commendation from official sources during the years since 1929 until this year, and this statement was true. We have found her courteous and conscientious. She has in many instances been unfairly criticized. Eventually, the ordeal she had to endure during the hectic years of the depression will be realized. With the burden of responsibility off her shoulders, we believe the ensuing years will be happier ones for her.

In looking at an old file of the GRAPHIC we came across some items in the issue of February 6, 1886, which shows that a half century ago the problem existed of sidewalks not cleared of snow after a storm. Two of the items were as follows:—"We are glad to see the picture of the city seal circulating about town, ordering citizens to clear ice and snow off their sidewalks. It's about time some of the eloquence of our city fathers was turned upon our dangerous sidewalks. One or two $50,000 suits would wake up our city government."

"We think Dr. Seales deserves honorable mention for his splendid, clean sidewalk. While dangerous ice and frozen snow have decorated other sidewalks, he has given us a refreshing standing on the hard pan of concrete, and clear to the curbstone too. He has a long stretch of it to clean off."

Several persons were severely injured by automobiles the past week while walking on streets in this city. Every person so injured is convincing proof that the Street Department of this city should possess proper facilities, either horses or tractors, to plow sidewalks after snowstorms, and that the police department of this city should enforce the law which specifies that abutments must clean snow off sidewalks within 24 hours following a storm.

The majority of citizens in Massachusetts voted last year to legalize dog racing in this State. Now, many of these same persons are vehemently protesting against tracks for dog races being constructed in their communities. This low type of sports which is cruel to the dogs raced, and it will be outlawed in this State before long. That it was voted for by the majority is added proof how large a percentage of citizens will vote "Yes" on referenda without knowing what they are voting for.

MORE ABOUT HOME SURVEY

To the Editor:
Many citizens of Newton, who inclined to agree with Mr. Cutler's appraisal of the canvass for information now being conducted, were doubtless relieved to read Mr. Burton's explanation of the survey, from the results of which "may be built the foundations for practical business revival in this city." It is a genuine comfort to know that this listing of names and statistics is one of the major devices by which "the privacy of our citizens may be protected."

May I venture to speak for that large group of citizens of Newton who have patiently given the answers to a long list of questions including "How many rooms in your house? What kind of floor? Do you burn coal or oil? Have you an electric refrigerator? Does your house need repairs? Are your bath rooms modern?" and ask Mr. Burton if he will not be good enough to explain exactly how the statistics compiled from the answers to these questions are to be used in order to "revive our confidence in the opportunities existing in our city and sweep the whole 'pestiferous' depression into oblivion."

Thank you, Mr. Burton.
DEAN WINSLOW HANSOM.

To the Editor:
The letter from Mr. Felix A. Burton, Technical Director of the Newton Real Property Inventory, in the GRAPHIC for Feb. 22, occasioned by my letter in the GRAPHIC of the previous week, was a welcome reading. Mr. Burton evidently believes the inventory is one worth making and intends it shall be made in an efficient, proper manner.

It is to be hoped that every reader of the GRAPHIC read the letter for it gives an idea of the way in which the taxes wrung from the people for the support of the New Deal alphabetical amoebs are being spent by the ERA member of that multitudinous family of husbodies. Mr. Burton's statement that "every enumerator carries credentials" makes one wonder why then an enumerator insists in forcing his way into a house in the absence of the family in order to do such snooping as he may.

Perhaps there are going to be wonderful results when we "Newtonians" see the reflections of ourselves in this report as in a mirror" but many of us when we wish to look into a mirror wish to do it on our own volition and do not care to be taxed to have an ERA, or any other alphabetical employee, insist on holding the glass for us. That is one trouble with the whole New Deal alphabetical get. They seem to think the people are not competent to manage their own affairs without the assistance of an alphabetical adviser.

It might be a good thing for the New Dealers themselves to do a bit of mirror gazing. Let them, in the quiet and seclusion of their own rooms, the doors securely locked to prevent any other alphabetical annoyances from forcing his way in, sit down and gaze thoughtfully into a mirror. Will any one of them see there the reflected image of a superman superior to other mortals, able to advise all others as to the best way to live and conduct their affairs, or will the reflected face be that of an ordinary human being who finds it difficult to conduct his own affairs in the wisest manner? A series of such mirror sittings might work great changes in many New Dealers.

Mr. Burton speaks of inventorying the house vacancies in Newton as one of the items with which he is going to furnish Newtonians. Does he believe the information is going to be news to the owners of the houses, that printing it is going to find tenants or buyers, that the information is worth what it will cost to gather?

What the New Dealers need to learn is that the people wish to be let alone, that they are getting tired of New Deal nosiness. The people as a whole are a fairly competent lot. Let them alone and they will work out of any depression. It is no help to them while they are busy to have a lot of mischievous, muddling, meddlers continually in the way forever shouting first, "Do it this way," then, "No, do it this way." The people know they are hard up with being taxed to pay a lot of men to tell them so. Let the New Dealers quit trying to prove by their expenditures the power of taxation to destroy, let them leave what money the people have in the people's pockets instead of filching it to squander and waste. As it is being taxed to support the ERA and its multitudinous kin is slowly destroying business and making it harder and harder for people to scrape together enough to make both ends come anywhere near meeting.

JOHN CUTLER.

Mt. Ida Council, No. 1247, Royal Arcanum of Newtonville held an identification meeting at the Masonic Parlors, Newtonville, last Monday evening. Over one hundred and fifty members responded to the roll call. Hon. Edwin O. Chiles, ex mayor of Newton, and a Past Regent of Mt. Ida Council, was the speaker of the evening. He enlarged on the Brotherhood of men of all creeds and religions, receiving a rousing ovation when Dr. Michael Chirug of Newton Centre, who acted as toastmaster, introduced him as our next mayor. ONE THING... AND ANOTHER

By L. D. G. BENTLEY

Home Sweet Home

Once in a while I have detected faintly discordant notes in otherwise harmonious domestic households. Not that I have sought them, for I do not pry nor do I gloat. But if things are not quite right and I happen to see them — well, who's fault is that? Moreover, these things were really trifling. You might write them both down as tender conspiracies.

The first concerns a dear old soul whose eyes are so bright that she needs only reading glasses. And yet she does a lot of reading. The point is that she frequently removes the glasses from the case and then snaps the lid with such a bang that everybody in the room jumps, barring herself. She's slightly deaf, which is her luck. The report I have to make in this case is that the others sometimes hide the old lady's glasses to keep her from snapping the case, which may or may not interest you as a psychological problem.

The other is much simpler. A husband likes to listen to the radio. His wife, who, in this instance, has my sympathy, does not care for it. Instead of silent indifference, the wife chatters. This makes it necessary for the husband to keep her supplied with lollipops and other long-enduring confections that insure her undivided attention.

Too Many Favorites

It doesn't appear there will be difficulty in getting the Legislature to appropriate money — and, at least to me $100,000 is no trifling even in face of the gold decision — to advertise the advantages of Massachusetts as a Summer resort. The problem likely to arise, as problems have a habit of doing, is where to start. Who is going to say which place shall be first on the list? You know yourself that you have your choice and I have mine. The same is true with many thousands. Very well then, doesn't that look as if there were trouble ahead?

Picture a commission, or a board, or whatever they call the people to whom the job is assigned, struggling to settle disputes between lovers of seashore and of country. Both sides will present convincing arguments why that beach or this hilltop resort should be proclaimed the grandest of all. There are many who take pride in the place they have chosen for their Summer vacation and are likely as not to become incensed if the place isn't given high rank. Heaven knows what they'll do if it happens to be left out altogether.

Hope with Complications

Gladly I greet the new month. At least I feel that with March here we may believe that the worst part of the worst Winter in years has gone. What January and February did to us we must forget — if possible. How glorious it would be if there were a law governing seasonal proprietary remedies. Then, with the early days of Spring, illustrated ailments would not be displayed. Will the time ever come when such exhibitions shall be illegal?

One of the horrors of Winter to me is provided by the pictures of people who have found certain patented cough cures worthy of high praise for saving their children and themselves. Equally annoying are the grotesquely drawn car cards that tell of magic doses, which, taken in time, will thwart sore throat, colds in the head, pains in the back and many other tragic experiences. It may be too much to ask that there be a closed season on these things but it's worth hoping for.

What Does New York Say?

A pair of skis is either a burden or no load at all. If you're headed for a Sunday snow train—I am now addressing the men in the audience—and a fair lady is your companion, toting skis is a pleasure. At least that is what I am told by a snow train addict who spends nearly every Monday describing the delights of the day before and the superficial confusions acquired in connection therewith.

Personally I have never qualified with skis. When I was younger I manipulated, with some success, a pair of snowshoes. But that, apparently, doesn't count. They tell me that those who are proficient snowshoers have not particular standing with proficient skiers and vice versa. I hope that I shall not be quoted on this as I may be wrong. The more cautious of humans will stand by snowshoes, with his feet on the ground, or at least as near the ground as the snow drifts will permit.

What I started to say was that New York City residents have just been favored by the railroads who, for the first Winter in history, are running snow trains. It is something to contemplate — the spectacle of Boston and New England ahead of New York all these years even in so trifling a matter as Sunday snow trains. Yet that's the sum'it.

Girl Scouts

The Newton Highlands Congregational Church was the setting for a series of competitive Girl Scout games, the presentation of proficiency and rank badges and a demonstration by the members of the Brownie Pack on Friday evening, Feb. 15. The Brownies are the younger sisters of Girl Scouts — girls between the ages of seven and ten years old who enjoy their own program of activities which teach them to "play the game" squarely and to be helpful to everyone, especially in their own homes.

The Brownies then retired to watch the activities of the Girl Scouts. Miss Lilla Cavanaugh, Captain of Troop 21, and Miss Ruth Wilkie, Captain of Troop 26, presented Second Class badges to Anne Walker, Patricia Smith, Marjorie Gardner, Jean Jordan and Natalie Truxx. Miss Pauline Harrison and Mrs. Shannon, two new Brownie leaders, were invested as Tenderfoot Girl Scouts, by Miss Margaret Adams, Newton Field Captain. Miss Caroline L. Freeman, Director of the Newton Girl Scouts, presented the rank of First Class to Helen Hoffman and Catherine Stone of Troop 21, and Jane Hickox and Madeline McDuff of Troop 11.

Mrs. Theron B. Walker, Chairman of the Newton Committee on Badges and Awards, gave a short talk about the proficiency badge program and gave out badges to girls from the various troops who had earned them during the past few months. In addition to the proficiency badges, several girls were presented by Mrs. Walker with silver stripes which indicate five years continuous membership as Girl Scouts. Those who attained this award were: Rita Ernst, Ruth Hilliard, Helen Hoffman, Catherine Stone and Virginia Sauters of Troop 21.

Miss Lilla Cavanaugh, Senior Captain, directed teams from the four Girl Scout troop in a series of competitive games, which were judged by Miss Catherine Carrick, a Golden Eaglet, and former member of the Newton Highlands troop. Troop 26 and 31 competed in a knot-tying relay race. Troops 11 and 21 tied with each other in signalling the Morse Code, and the four troops participated in a basketball race—purely recreational relay. When the score was computed, it was found that Troop 21 had won the competition with the largest number of points, and the members of this troop were applauded by the rest of the Scouts.

The meeting closed with a good-night circle in which all the Girl Scouts and Brownies joined. Taps was played by Ada Merriam and echoed by Jane Hickox.

A cordial invitation is extended to friends of Girl Scouting. Come and learn more about this great movement. The time, March 6, 2 to 5 p. m. The place, the Congregational Church, Woodland rd., Auburndale.

Moving pictures taken last summer of our own girls at Camp Mary Day will be shown by Miss Freeman, Camp Director of the Newton Girl Scouts. There will be Round Table discussions on Brownies, Leadership, Outdoor programs and value of badges, led by prominent members of our own Newton Council and summed up by Miss Adams, Newton Field Captain.

Mrs. Walton S. Redfield, Commissioner of the Newton Girl Scouts, will speak on the International program. Tea will be served by the Scouts.

Dr. Edwin P. Booth, Professor of Ecclesiastical History in Boston University, will deliver a series of addresses on the six consecutive Tuesday evenings, beginning March 5th, at 7:45 o'clock in the chapel of the Eliot Church. The general theme of the series is "Great Men of the Christian Church." The first address next Tuesday evening will be on "Augustine." There is no admission for these addresses and they are open to the general public.

Rotary Club

In commemoration of the founding of the first Rotary Club in Chicago just thirty years ago, the Newton Rotary Club gave over its program last Monday to a discussion of Rotary objects and ideals. Dr. Cecil Clark, president of the club in 1927 and 1928, presided. Dr. Clark referred to the founding of the local club nearly twelve years ago and announced as the five minute speakers the five charter members who are still active. These are Harry Bascom, Harry Hanson, George Martin, Edwin O. Childs and Walter Gregg. Unfortunately the last two were unavoidably absent and Messrs. Bascom, Hanson and Martin spoke at somewhat greater length than they had planned to on the various phases of the Rotary program, taking as their text the six objects of Rotary which are as follows:

1. The ideal of service as the basis of all worthy enterprise.
2. High ethical standards in business and professions.
3. The application of the idea of service by every Rotarian to his personal business and community life.
4. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service.
5. The recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his occupation as an opportunity to serve society.
6. The advancement of understanding, goodwill, and international peace through a world fellowship of business and professional men united in the Rotary ideal of service.

Auburndale Players To Present Farce Comedy

Concentrating on a single play this season the Auburndale Players of the Auburndale Club will present "Big Hearted Herbert," farce comedy, at the club house, Melrose st., Friday and Saturday nights, March 8 and 9.

Lowell D. MacNutt in the title role and Mrs. Helen Brown have the leading parts, supported by a cast of Newton dramatic favorites including Dorothy DeWitt, Mrs. John A. Belnke, Edmund Perkins, Frederick W. Burton, Robert Hill, Elizabeth C. Bunker, Dr. Charles D. Ansley, Edgar O. Butts, Mrs. Arthur Shaw and W. S. Clapp.

Mrs. Florence Krueger is directing the cast. Mrs. Edward Gray, dramatic chairman of the Auburndale Players, is general chairman for the production and Henry L. Goodman is business manager.

The Auburndale Players, who have brought to their stage the most important of the successful plays in the last decade, will present "Big Hearted Herbert" for the first time in Newton.

Mr. MacNutt, well known throughout Newton for his interpretations, has proved a "natural" in the portrayal of Herbert, who bosses his family as he does his factory and glories in his "self-made man" life story.

Mrs. Brown, who plays the wife and has the stiffest part in the ensemble, is well known in numerous dramatic groups in Newton and is one of the Garden City's outstanding character actresses.

Many of the supporting cast are well remembered from past productions. Others, "discovered" this season, are more than exceeding the director's expectations. The "one play" policy was adopted this year in contrast to the usual custom of producing a series of three plays on a subscription basis.

Dr. Mather To Lecture In West Newton

Dr. Kirtley F. Mather of Harvard will deliver a series of six lectures in The Second Church in Newton, West Newton, beginning Wednesday evening, March 6. These lectures will be delivered in the Young People's Chapel of the Parish House at eight o'clock on each of the six consecutive Wednesday evenings of Lent. They are open to the general public. There is no fee of admission.

The subject of the series is "Religion in This Age of Science." The purpose of the series is to present an intelligent view of the relationship which exists between the scientific interpretation of life. The subjects of the individual lectures are as follows: "The Spirit of Science," "The Foundations of Religion," "Human Nature and Its Evolution," "Social Structures and Their Revision," "Intimations of Immortality," and "The Cosmic Code."

Dr. Mather is uniquely fitted to present this series of addresses. He is well qualified to speak as one who is professor of Geology at Harvard. He is recognized throughout the nation as an authority in this field of investigation. On the other hand, he is equally well fitted to represent religion at its best as he has frequently shown by his willingness to go wherever religious truth has led him. Since these lectures are a part of the adult education program of The Second Church, of which Dr. Boynton Merrill, D.D., is minister, Dr. Mather's interest in adult education is of significance also. He is the founder and president of the Twentieth Century Adult Education Centre which is in its second year of very successful experimentation. He is also the first president of the Adult Education Council of Greater Boston.

Mr. Herbert C. Mayer, Chairman of the Committee of Religious Education, is expecting a large number of people to take advantage of this unusual opportunity to hear Dr. Mather. This is the ninth series of adult education lectures which have been sponsored by the department of religious education of The Second Church. It is expected that Dr. Mather's addresses will clarify the thinking of many persons concerned with the deep perplexing problems pertaining to the relationship existing between scientific truth and spiritual values.

Tailors And Cleaners Move To New Quarters

Due to the continued increase in their business the Tip Top Tailors and Cleaners found it necessary to seek larger quarters, to properly handle the work of their constantly increasing list of patrons. This week their firm moved their equipment to 427 Centre street, a few doors from their former address.

The new quarters have been extensively remodeled, new garment cases and equipment have been installed and the show room has been made especially adapted to an establishment of this nature.

This firm is an independent concern, having no branches. All work whether it be repairs, alterations or cleansing, is done on the premises. When interviewed this week Mr. Tevokelian proprietor said, "Experience, knowledge, good equipment and the right process are essential in doing a good cleaning job. We pride ourselves in keeping abreast of the times with our modern cleansing service. The scientific Tri-Clene method which we use enables us to thoroughly cleanse and press a garment in 3 hours, with no odor, no removal of buttons and no lost belts or accessories."

Newton Better Housing Canvass

The field instructors started Monday, February 25, on a canvass of the entire city.

They are calling on every homeowner for the purpose of giving information covering the modernization and repair of property under the provisions of the Federal Housing Act, and telling how one can secure the benefits obtainable under that act. In addition to helping the citizens of Newton improve and preserve their homes and other property, the Better Housing Canvass will be an effective means of increasing employment in our building trades.

Any courtesy that may be shown the representatives or any support one may give to our program will be appreciated.

This canvass is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, and the office is at the same address 277 Washington street, Newton.

Mayor Submits 1935 Budget Totaling $4,758,729.67, and Recommends Salary Increase

Amount Recommended Is $234,887.70 More Than Was Spent
During the Year 1934

The budget for 1935 was submitted by Mayor Weeks to the Board of Aldermen on Monday night. The recommendations of department heads totaled $4,891,429.78 with the addition of $306,763.27 for the Water Department, the latter sum to be derived from water revenue. Mayor Weeks cut these recommendations to $4,758,729.67 and $301,094.27 respectively. Last year the budget recommendations approved by the Board of Aldermen were $4,660,892.28, and the expenditures $4,535,422.84 for the departments excluding the Water Department. This department's expenditures were $289,513.40. In contrast to the past few years, the Mayor recommends a number of salary increases. Other increases in salary items are caused by the restoration of the 7½% pay cut to city employees.

The only change made by the Mayor in the budget lumped under heading "General Department", is an increase by him of the amount asked by the License Board for expenses from $1189 to $1600; making the budget for this department $63,576.04. The item for temporary clerks is $1300 as compared with $962 expended last year. The total budget for the department is $10,600. In 1934 the budget was $16,011.40. The savings is effected in C. W. A. supplies for which $5,095.73 were expended last year.

The budget for the new department of "Office of Public Works Director" totals $11,971. For the several months this department was in operation last year after its institution it cost $2,212.50; this merely including the salary of the director. Among the items for this department are $3500 for organization expenses and $200 to permit the director to attend a convention.

In the Accounting Department Comptroller White asked for $110,902.50 and the Mayor increased this to $111,750.59. The increase is in the item for clerical assistance.

City Treasurer Newhall recommended $847,931 for his department. The Mayor cut this to $821,059. The cut came in the item for interest on temporary loans, reduced from $25,600 to $8500. The Mayor also reduced the item for temporary clerks from $4940 to $3100 but asks for another permanent clerk at a salary of $1040. The item for office expenses is reduced by the Mayor from $4300 to $2600.

In the Assessors' Department the budget total asked was $22,976.25; the Mayor increases this to $23,060. He allows $6300 for clerical assistance; the assessors asked $5804. The Mayor refused to recommend a new automobile asked for.

In the Soldiers' Relief Department the budget total of the Mayor is $52,110 instead of $53,495 recommended by the department. Last year this department's expenses were $49,038.09. The Mayor cuts the recommendation of $45,000 for soldiers' relief from $45,000 to $43,000. He recommends an increase in Commissioner Dungan's salary from $2000 to $2500; the commissioner not asking for the increase. The Mayor also approves of a clerk for Mr. Dungan at a salary of $780.

City Clerk Grant asked for $31,330 for his department; the Mayor cut this figure to $28,890. The reductions came in the items for Workmen's Compensation—from $10,000 to $8000, and election expenses, $3800 to $3500. The Mayor increased the item for clerical hire from $6030 to $6690.

The City Engineer asked for $41,903.91 for his department; the Mayor cut this to $36,688.08. The cuts came in the items for engineering assistants, $30,715 to $26,000; stenographer's salary, $1500 asked; $1300 recommended by Mayor and office expenses, $1100 asked; $800 recommended.

In the Public Buildings Department Commissioner Hagemann asked for $117,782.27. The Mayor recommends $115,749.61. The Commissioner asked that his salary be increased from $4600 to $5000. This was refused as were increases in the inspectors' salaries. The Mayor also lopped the amount asked for telephone expenses from $4626.66 to $3844. All phone expenses for City Hall are charged to this department.

In the police department Chief Hughes asks for $100 increase in his salary, bringing it to $4000, and the Mayor recommends it. The Chief did not ask for any increases for the other ranking officers. He asked for 15 additional patrolmen and the Mayor recommends three. The item for automobile maintenance is cut from $5550 to $8000 by the Mayor. In the Fire Department Chief Randlett asked for $271,847.19. The Mayor reduced this to $251,973.19. The Chief asked for a new fire truck to cost $11,000; the Mayor did not recommend this. The Chief asked for a salary increase from $3900 to $4000 and the Mayor grants it. No salary increase was asked for Deputy Chief Boothby or for the other ranking officers.

The Health Department asked for $65,483.75; the Mayor recommends $58,939.33. A significant change is in the salary of the Chairman of the Board of Health. Dr. Curtis who has filled this office for 43 years asked for a continuation of the salary he has been receiving, $2500. The Mayor recommends that starting July 1st the salary of the head of this department be advanced to $4000. The department asked for $34,000 for prevention and care of disease; the Mayor cuts this item to $27,000.

In the Welfare Department budget the Mayor increases the department recommendation for clerical assistance from $4991.23 to $6150 and decreases the amount asked for investigators from $5321 to $4300. The Playground Department asked for $92,477.23 and the Mayor recommends $86,653.33. The principal cut was in the item for construction, from $6000 to $1000 and maintenance from $39,851 to $26,600.

The budget as recommended by the School Department is accepted with practically no changes by the Mayor. The same holds true of the Library Department budget. The Street Department recommended a budget of $904,398.75. This is cut to $889,168.91 by the Mayor. Increases of $150 in salaries are recommended for Edward Cannon, supervisor of the Sewer Division, and Charles McCarthy, Joseph Bryson and Louis Gregorio, former Supervisor of Maintenance in the Highway Department, and Frank Ward of the Highway Division. A new clerk at a salary of $1200 is provided for the Crafts street yard. The item for resurfacing streets is (Continued on Page 4)

Swedish Opera Star To Sing At Concert

Guest Artist of Highland Glee Club At High School

The popular Swedish soprano Marie Sundelius formerly prima donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company and now living in Brookline will be guest artist at the 28th Spring Concert of the Highland Glee Club on March 19th. Madame Sundelius is remembered and loved by hundreds of Newton music lovers who have heard her at her many concert appearances in Boston. Many more heard her and were enraptured by her rare art and the lyric quality of her voice at the Worcester Music Festivals where she has appeared five times as a Festival artist.

D. Ralph McClellan, who for many years has directed the club through its increasingly successful seasons, says that this Spring Concert will be a rare musical treat. Last Spring the club won the coveted first award of the Federated Glee Clubs of New England in the competition at Hartford and they have been rehearsing diligently to maintain that honor. At this 60th concert they are presenting a program that includes by request some of their most popular numbers.

"Spirit Flower" by Campbell-Tipton, "Spring Night Waltz" by Filke, "Hallelujah Chorus" from "The Mount of Olives" by Beethoven, and "A Song of the Sea" by Stibbins. A group of beautiful rhythmic Negro Spirituals "Were You There" by Burleigh and "Keep in the Middle of the Road" by Bartholomew will be followed by some thrilling songs new to the club—Shubert's "My Sylvan Nest" and Elgar's "Reveille" and "Yea Cast Me from Heights of the Mountain" and a Finale of "Choruses" from "Pinafore" by Gilbert and Sullivan. These are but a part of the fine program which will be given in the Newton High School Auditorium a week from Tuesday.

Dr. Lowe To End Long Service As City Physician

Dr. A. C. Cummings To Succeed To Office

Dr. Fred M. Lowe of 1354 Washington street, West Newton will retire on March 22nd from the office of City Physician which he has held for the past 27 years. He will be succeeded by Dr. Alvah C. Cummings of 447 Centre street, Newton, who for the past year has been serving as assistant city physician. Dr. Lowe was born in Lawrence, Kansas in 1859, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lowe who had emigrated from Fitchburg, Massachusetts to that newly settled territory several years previously. His father was a victim of Quantrell's raid on Lawrence in 1861 when the band of rebel raiders from Missouri who had invaded Kansas, rode into Lawrence early one morning and slaughtered over 300 residents of that anti-slavery town. He has served as city physician for 27 years and during that time has not only given medical care to thousands of poor in this city, but has been on duty 24 hours a day, frequently having been called upon to treat prisoners at police headquarters, such calls usually coming during late at night or in the early morning hours. He has given freely of his time and means in relieving the distress of those in need.

Lively Hearing at City Hall On Proposed Changes In City Charter of Newton

Former Aldermen Denounce Partisan Politics In City Elections
—Hatfield Denies Being a "Boss"

About 75 persons attended the hearing before the Board of Aldermen on Monday night on the bill which has been presented to the Legislature relative to changing the city charter of Newton. The sponsors of this bill include former Aldermen William E. Earle, Edward H. Powers and William Sproat, and David Greer, a well known Newton attorney.

The first speaker in favor of the bill was Mr. Earle. He outlined the reasons for the bill and explained its provisions. He said the principal reason is to procure home government and just representation for the various sections of Newton. He said that instead of having city elections every year, the bill proposes biennial elections. He asserted that the "off-year" elections had been a disgrace, only from 13 per cent to 30 per cent of the voters going to the polls, despite the fact that 14 of the 21 places in the Board of Aldermen were to be decided, and two members of the School Committee to be chosen. Under the new system, all twenty-one members of the Aldermen would be elected for a two-year term and members of the school committee elected either for a two-year or a four-year term; the longer term, if selected, to eliminate any possibility of all members of the school committee being inexperienced. He commented that he favored a two-year term for the school committee, as a good man could easily be reelected, whereas a four-year term would be too long for an incompetent member.

Mr. Earle explained that the bill provides that instead of the present system of electing two aldermen-at-large from each ward, and one ward alderman, all three aldermen from each ward shall be ward aldermen, to be voted for only in the ward they represent. He argued that this change is desirable because people in each ward should select their own aldermen, as they know them better than do persons residing in other parts of the city. He chided the Republican City Committee for injecting partisan politics into non-partisan elections and called attention to the action of the Republican City Committee at the last election in endorsing a candidate despite the fact that a majority of the ward committee of the ward affected, had endorsed another candidate. Mr. Earle said that there has been a demand for several years to change the ward lines in this city to obtain a more equal representation for each ward, and this matter should be considered. He stated that while the matter of abolishing preferential voting in Newton had not been included in the bill, it well might be as this system has caused much confusion to voters in the past. He favored the requirement of more signatures on candidate's nomination papers. He concluded by quoting a statement by Mayor Weeks which was printed in the Boston News Bureau on March 1, relative to conditions in Newton. The Mayor said—"The taxpayers want, and are receiving none, a political government."

Mr. Earle commented on this statement by saying that he could only agree with the Mayor 50 per cent on that statement. Earle said—"the people want and should enjoy non-political government, and the adoption of our bill is the means to this end."

Edward H. Powers said that the present system of electing two aldermen-at-large from each ward, and one ward alderman, and that he believes the matter of each ward voting for its own school committee member, should be kept a separate issue from the change of system in electing aldermen. He said the bill introduced into the Legislature simply seeks to have the proposed changes submitted to the voters of Newton as a referendum. He argued that to assure a continuation in the future of the same high type of government which has characterized Newton in the past, the people of the city should have more knowledge of candidates for political office, and this can be accomplished by having the majority of the aldermen selected by citizens of their own wards, rather than having them chosen by a partisan political group or by a political machine.

James P. Gallagher, Newton attorney and clerk of court, said that the present election system used in Newton is cumbersome and complicated, and that a simpler method will be more satisfactory. He asked why residents of Nonantum should vote for the alderman who represents Chestnut Hill, or vice versa? He said (Continued on Page 6)

present system of electing two aldermen-at-large from each ward, and one ward alderman has been in effect for 40 years, that during this period the city has grown three-fold in population, a large percentage of its inhabitants now are comparative newcomers, little acquainted with the city, and that conditions in Newton have changed materially. He stated that in 1916 the non-partisan type of election was adopted by Newton voters and that for some years after was conformed to. But, for some years past there has been a growing practice of injecting party politics into Newton elections because of the endorsement of candidates by the Republican City Committee. Except in a few cases candidates who were not endorsed by this committee, were defeated, and there has been a growing interference by partisan political activity in the city elections, resulting in the prerogatives of citizens in the choice of their aldermen having been intruded upon. Powers said that the principal argument against having a majority of the aldermen elected as ward aldermen is that it will tend to send less able citizens to serve on the Board. To refute this contention he referred to the ward aldermen who have represented Ward 1 for the past generation, and he commented that the people of this Ward are regarded by persons living in other parts of the city as inferior in educational advantages. He mentioned former Ward Aldermen Doherty, Murphy, Madden and Sproat of Ward 1 as men who made fine records in the city government. He asserted that the Republican City Committee has been hypocritical in injecting partisan politics into allegedly non-partisan elections and he suggested that instead of endorsing candidates it might have assisted in the distribution of pamphlets giving biographical sketches of each candidate showing his educational and business training. He said that candidates had been endorsed who could not have won in their own wards, had they run for the office of ward alderman.

Powers said that personally he favors two of the three aldermen from each ward being elected as ward aldermen, and that he believes the matter of each ward voting for its own school committee member, should be kept a separate issue from the change of system in electing aldermen. He said the bill introduced into the Legislature simply seeks to have the proposed changes submitted to the voters of Newton as a referendum. He argued that to assure a continuation in the future of the same high type of government which has characterized Newton in the past, the people of the city should have more knowledge of candidates for political office, and this can be accomplished by having the majority of the aldermen selected by citizens of their own wards, rather than having them chosen by a partisan political group or by a political machine.

James P. Gallagher, Newton attorney and clerk of court, said that the present election system used in Newton is cumbersome and complicated, and that a simpler method will be more satisfactory. BROOKLINE DEFEATED ON NEWTON TRACK IN FINAL DUAL MEET

The Newton track team defeated their arch-rivals, Brookline, by a score of 49-28 last Friday in the final dual meet of the season at the Newtonville drill shed. Newton runners took first and second places in every flat race and in the broad jump. Robin Hartman, who won the hurdles and high jump for Brookline, was the only double winner. Other notable performances were Lee Goodbar's victory in the dash and Ray Huling's prodigious winning broad jump of 9 ft. 11 3/4 in., the best of the current track season.

Brookline competed without their best sprinters, Leon Rogers and Harold Sklar. Warren Witten and Robin Hartman, high scorers for the two teams, had not been to school all week on account of illnesses, but both did yeoman service.

Goodbar Wins Sprint

Wittens, Tom Guthrie and Robin Hartman won the three trial heats in the 35-yard hurdles, and Guthrie and Hartman through the tape in 4 2/5 s. This result was no surprise, as the Brookline hurdlers had finished second and fourth in the Andover interscholastics.

A very close finish was the result of the 30-yard dash, Lee Goodbar and Allen Freeman, who had won the two trial heats, got the judges' decision over Livingstone of Brookline in the final, after breaking away for four false starts. The time was 4 seconds flat.

Running in separate heats, Warren Witten and Bob Muther, Newton's blonde sprinters, ran the 300-yard run in 36 seconds even, a shade better than Livingstone of Brookline was able to do in his heat. This was the first of three races in which Newton won eight points to one for Brookline. Al Freeman ran the 600 in 1 m. 22 2/5 s., leading Bob Kiley and Brookline's Anderson.

Johnson Quick made short work of the 1000-yard run, winning the event in 2m. 31 2/5 s., with his teammates, Marsh Russell and Charlie Center in close pursuit. Quick led after the first three laps, judged his pace wisely, and had the race to himself. This was the only event in which Newton swept all nine points.

Huling, Hartman Win Jumps

The standing broad jump brought out the best competition of the year, with every jump measured at better than nine feet. Ray Huling won with a hop of 9 ft. 11 3/4 in., a distance which has not been equalled in Greater Boston competition this year. Jesse Hale was a fine second, getting a spring of 9 ft. 11 in., while Greiner of Brookline got into third place by jumping 9 ft. 9 1/4 in., a couple of inches better than Howard Fine of Newton.

Robin Hartman cleared every new height in the high jump easily on the first attempt. With the bar at 5 ft. 8 in., he had outdistanced the rest of the field, which included his teammate Robert Nagle and three Newtonites, Julius Alsner, Ross McLean and the tireless "Bud" Wittens. In the relay, Guthrie, leading off against Richard Madfis of Newton, fell at the first bank and the race was started again. Aronson and Anderson ran against Madfis and Paul Dussossoit, holding a six-yard advantage. Ray Huling, running against Tom Guthrie, caught his man coming off the last bank, but Livingstone ran the fourth leg for Brookline, and had too much speed for Newton's anchor, Richard Cosgrove. The meet ended with the score 49-28 in favor of Newton.

NEWTON TOPS MEDFORD 3-2 IN HOCKEY FINALE

Arlington High won the Greater Boston Interscholastic Hockey championship last Saturday by defeating Belmont 2-0, as Melrose was held by Cambridge Latin in a thrilling 4-4 tie in another important game. Newton won from Medford 3-2, and Stoneham tied Rindge 1-1 in the other games of the Boston Garden program, the finale of the school hockey season.

Captain Augustus Castoldi played sterling hockey in his farewell appearance in the Newton High uniform. Playing the entire game on defense, Gus scored the first two Newton goals unassisted in the second period, and protected his defense area by rugged checking. The 2-2 tie was broken in the tenth minute of the third period when Bill Daniels burst the Medford defense and scored the final goal of the G. B. I. S. season.

Newton Has Edge at First

The game between Newton and Medford, the last on the program, did not get under way until late in the afternoon. Dennison, Page and MacLeod started on the forward line for Newton, with Elliott and Castoldi on defense and Woodward in the goal. Rushes were exchanged, MacLeod and Dennison getting shots at the goal, and Campbell threatening for Medford. Newton had a bad minute or two when held in their own defense zone, but had the more effective attack for the greater part of the period.

Bob Herrick set up a scoring play with a pass out from behind the Medford cage, but no Newton player was free. Elliott had a good chance, but his shot went high into the screen. Newton got a break when the Medford coach, deceived by a whistle blown by some moron in the crowd, sent replacements on the ice, and Medford was given a penalty. Bill Page got free of the defense, but was prevented from scoring by a thrown stick. Castoldi split the defense and was tripped, Lewis taking a penalty. Woodward made a fine save when Lewis coasted in on him, taking the shot on his chest just as the period ended.

Castoldi Solos Twice

While the first period had been something of a let-down from the furious Melrose-Cambridge melee, the second started off with a bang, and Captain Gus Castoldi furnished most of the Newton power. The Newton captain made three successive rushes and scored on the third. First losing the puck at the Medford defense, then passing out to Bill Page, who was unable to get away a shot, Gus took the puck again at center ice, circled the defense to the right, turned and burned a hard shot past Dolan that rang on the steel framework of the cage. The goal came at 1:58.

Medford retaliated quite suddenly and unexpectedly. Clarence Muse, their right wing, let go a long pot-shot from the blue line which Woodward took on his pads, but it caromed off into the nets to tie the score one-all at 2:47. This was Castoldi's cue to put on the pressure again, and Captain Gus lit out from his defense position, whirled past the defense and put a quick backhand shot past Dolan at 3:43. Ernie MacLeod came tearing in for the rebound, but he was not needed on the play, and Newton led 2-1.

Muse Again Ties Score

Burt Woodward saved nicely from a three-man combination. John Blodgett took Bob Miner's good pass and shot into Dolan's pads. MacLeod drew a penalty for charging. Minot Chandler, who had replaced John Elliott on defense after Castoldi's first goal, did some capable body-checking, then stopped a shot with his head, but was not even cut. But Medford came back with another goal late in the period when Lewis passed out to Muse, who out guessed Woodward, tucking the puck behind him when he slid out to make the stop. The goal came at 8:10. Gus Castoldi had the only good chance in the few minutes remaining when he missed the wide open net as Dolan was drawn out of position. At the end of the second period, Dolan had made fifteen saves to ten for Woodward.

The Medford goalie was forced to make three saves to begin the last period. Woodward was in good form, although one shot he deflected nonchalantly with his stick looked dangerous. At 9:38, with a little more than two minutes to play, Bill Daniels found his way through the Medford defense, skated straight in on Prentice, and lifted the puck into the nets at 9:38, giving Newton the 3-2 lead that won the game. Woodward made two more stops, then was replaced in the Newton goal by John Buttrick. A last-ditch effort by "Soup" Campbell was stopped by Castoldi's effective check just as the game ended.

Lemoine Boyle To Aid Don Enoch at Newton

Lemoine Boyle, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania in the class of 1931, will take the place of George L. Rohrbough on the Newton High School faculty for the remainder of the school year. Rohrbough has accepted the presidency of Monticello Junior College, Godfrey, Illinois. Boyle comes to Newton with an established reputation in track and field athletics, having competed for the University of Pennsylvania and later for the New York Athletic Club. He is a bona fide 25-foot broad jumper, has cleared the high jump bar at 6 ft. 4 in., and has placed in both indoor and outdoor I. C. A. A. A. competition. Working as assistant to Don Enoch, Boyle will undoubtedly take over the coaching of some of the field events during the outdoor season. As a teacher of English, his work begins Monday.

Hockey Team Captaincy Jinx For Newton Boys at Bowdoin

It is a curious coincidence that not one of the last three captains of varsity hockey at Bowdoin College finished his college career at Bowdoin. All three were Newton boys. Johnny Rosenfeld of Waban, a center, was elected captain for the 1932-3 season, but transferred to Boston University before he had played a game as captain at Bowdoin.

Bob Hayden of Newton Highlands was captain and goalie of the highly successful 1933-4 team, but left college in the spring of last year. The third successive Newtonite elected, Walter "Doc" Billings of Newton Upper Falls, who was to have captained this year's Bowdoin varsity, left college last spring and transferred to Tufts in the fall.

Billings, who has played occasionally this winter with Waban and University Club hockey teams, had a very good season last year. In the two games in which Bowdoin defeated the championship Colby outfit, he scored three goals each game. John Rosenfeld played last year for B. U. varsity and more recently for the Potter Press and Brae Burn clubs.

Youth Conference At Hotel Statler

The Annual American Home and Youth Conference held under the auspices of the American Home department of the State Federation will feature interesting lectures and entertaining programs on the two days Thursday and Friday, the 14th and 15th, at the Hotel Statler, Boston. Mrs. Schuyler W. Van Ness, chairman; Mrs. Elmer H. Renton, vice-chairman; and Mrs. Dwight R. Clement, Program chairman, have arranged many informative events. Each day begins the program at 10 a. m.

There will be a registration fee of 50 cents, and those who plan to attend should secure their tag before the 11th of March and, if they desire luncheon tickets, also secure these, at $1.50 each, by sending cheque, and stamped and self-addressed envelope, stating date for luncheon ticket (if one day) to Mrs. Robert E. Fowle, 2 Perkins avenue, Reading.

On Thursday morning, March 14th, Rev. A. Graham Baldwin, minister at Phillips Andover Academy, will speak on "Finding the Spiritual Values in People." Merle G. Summers, general agent of Moore and Summers, will speak on "The Fundamentals of Insurance and Annuities for Purchasers and Beneficiaries." Dr. Miriam Franc Skirball, formerly teacher of English at Simmons College and at the University of Illinois, on "Significant Books of the Season"; and the luncheon speaker will be the famous Margaret Sanger, founder and national chairman of the American Birth Control League, her topic being "The Truth About Birth Control."

In the afternoon, Katherine Roquemore, a graduate of the Sackler School of Design, will speak on "Present Trends in Interior Decoration," illustrating her talk; and Marion Lyndon, Society Editor of the Boston Herald, will tell of "The Art of Being Well Dressed."

On Friday morning, the second day of the Conference, Helene Martha Boll, lecturer, will speak on "Expression of Personality Speech." William Trufant Foster, member of the Consumers' Advisory Board, N. R. A., on "The Consumer's Place in the New Deal"; Professor William Ernest Hocking, of Harvard University, on "Does Civilization Need Religion"; Elizabeth Macdonald, consultant to Authorities, Tennessee Valley Housing Project, on "Safety and Efficiency in the Home"; and Professor S. Ralph Harlow, of Smith College, will be the luncheon speaker, on the curiosity-provoking topic "Three Generation Adjustments," telling of the ways of making harmony in families where mother, daughter, and grandmother live under the same roof.

A fascinating presentation of Tableau and Reading will be produced under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Vance, of Needham, with Mrs. Harry Lyman, Reader, and members of the New Century Club of Needham, and dancers from the Miriam Winslow School taking the parts. "Youth Through the Ages" is the title of this feature.

There will also be educational Exhibits in the Ballroom Foyer, and a question period following each lecture.

ART SCHOLARSHIP LECTURES. A Course of four extremely interesting and worthwhile Art lectures will be given at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts at 10:30 a. m., for one hour, on March 13th, March 27th, April 10th, and April 24th. The first lecture will be on "French Impressionism," by Dorothy Adlow. Tickets are $1.00 for the series or 35 cents for single ticket. Cheques and stamped, addressed envelope should be sent to the State Art chairman, Mrs. Herbert Stephens, 347 Mystic street, Arlington. The lectures this year will be held in the Galleries, and the proceeds from tickets sold will go to the Museum to establish and maintain a permanent State Federation Art Scholarship Fund.

There will be a prize of an oil painting, 11 by 14, given to the club art chairman, who has the largest number, in proportion to her club, in attendance at the lectures.

RADIO. The broadcast tomorrow, the 9th, at 11:30 a. m., over Station WBZ, will have for speakers Mrs. Arthur Somner, State chairman of Legislation; and Mrs. William Valheim, Fifth District director. Jean Ulrich, soprano, will give the musical program.

DRAMA CONFERENCE. Miss Marie Ware Langston will be in charge of a Drama Conference to be held March 13th, at 10:30 a. m., at State Federation Headquarters, 115 Newbury street, Boston. Mrs. Charles E. P. Thompson, State chairman of Literature and Drama, will speak on "Some Difficulties which Confront the Dramatist," and Mrs. Henry Inman will discuss "The Art of Make-up," with a practical demonstration, which should be most interesting.

Hawaiian Gardens Attractive Subject

Alice Cooper Bailey will give an illustrated lecture on "Hawaiian Gardens," on Thursday, March 14th, at 2:30 p. m., before the Newton Community Club in Underwood School Hall. This lecture, illustrated with colored slides, has been prepared especially for garden lovers. Mrs. Bailey's long residence in Hawaii enables her to make her audience feel they are actually visiting the islands, as she traces the development from

Home Talent Evening Offers Entertainment

Clubwomen of Newton and their families will be interested in the following announcement of an entertainment that always appeals. While enjoying it they also contribute to an excellent cause.

The Mother's Rest Association of Newton, Inc., is giving this entertainment at the Newton High School on Saturday evening, March 16th. The program is to be composed of talent from the various Newtons which assures it of being a most enjoyable evening. Tickets at $1.00 each may be procured from Mrs. F. N. Nathan, president, tel. C. N. 0073; Mrs. E. V. Alley, W. N. 2971; or from Mrs. Ellis Spear, Jr., finance chairman, C. N. 1297.

Something of the worthwhile work of this organization may be given here. The home of the Mothers' Rest Association of Newton, Inc., is situated in the Oak Hill district of Newton. It has been in existence over thirty years. Its function is to give a two-months' vacation, free of charge, to tired mothers and to their children under five years of age, during the summer. There are usually about 350 guests each summer. The guests are chosen from Newton and greater Boston, each one recommended by some society or church. It is non-denominational. The expenses for this philanthropy are met by membership dues, special gifts, and receipts from entertainment. Any clubwomen who may desire to become a member of this all-Newton Society may do so by sending the $2.00 to Mrs. E. V. Alley, 111 Exeter street, West Newton.

She was accompanied at the piano by Mary Barr Snyder, a well-known concert and radio artist. Among other efforts a Club has been formed in Nantum, with a director in charge, for girls between the ages of eleven and sixteen. This gives the girls good wholesome amusement, a place to go, and by so much raises their standards.

Also, many part-time memberships have been given at the Y. M. C. A. to boys who have no other place for recreation and good fellowship.

A REAL HUMANITARIAN

City physician Fred M. Lowe will retire this month after twenty-seven years of service to the people of Newton. Dr. Lowe has earned the respect and admiration of the thousands of people with whom he has come in contact. Public service of this kind is seldom rewarded by great material gain. There is, however, much satisfaction in serving humanity unselfishly. The nature of the office acquaints the incumbent with that side of life which is less fortunate than many enjoy. Dr. Lowe retires knowing that he has earned the gratitude of the people of Newton. He is not only a physician but a real humanitarian.

ELECTION LAWS

Once again we are impelled to comment upon the proposal to change the election laws of the city of Newton as the result of the hearing at City Hall on Monday evening. Although there was much conflicting opinion regarding various features of the changes proposed it was clearly evident that there is common agreement upon the desirability of eliminating the "off-year" election. If nothing else is accomplished beyond this it will be a step in the right direction. We believe, however, that there are other desirable changes of such importance that further consideration should be given the matter.

INTRODUCING SOME GOOD BOOKS

The Story-Hours sponsored by the Library to introduce fine books to boys and girls, have necessarily been discontinued until next season but fortunately their influence will be felt indefinitely. The many letters of appreciation that have been received by the librarians prove the permanent value of story-telling. One fourth grade boy wrote, "Mr. and Mrs. Cronan have taught me how to understand a real good story. I have learned to like reading. Before I was not much interested in reading. Now they have made me like to read and go to the library more."

The following is the list of books introduced to third and fourth grade children by the Story-Tellers this year. Your children will enjoy reading them or listening to you read them aloud.

About Town

By Edward H. Powers

Dick Grant likes to rant.

Governor James M. Curley has returned from his spectacular trip to Washington and sojourn in Florida. Mr. Curley likes to put on the dog even if it costs considerable money and despite the fact that he has repeatedly proclaimed his solicitude for the multitude in need in Massachusetts. It would have been more consistent with his professions of sympathy for the unemployed and poor of this State had he diverted for their relief the money expended to pay for the cost of sending the costly State owned automobile to Florida with its two accompanying State police sergeants and his entourage of three gold braided military aides. This sort of stuff is expected of potentates from India, but it only proves that his Excellency is not consistent when he wastes money for empty show with so many deprived of the bare necessities of life. Cut out the Duke of Kaklaki grandeur, James.

Generalissimo Hugh Johnson, that mild mannered ascetic with the face of a poet, is in the limelight again; busy at his specialty of vituperation, smart epigrams and blather. The demoted head of the New Run Around makes a lot of folks laugh when he warns us that we will have a dictator if Huey Long is not curbed. "General" Johnson advises us to beware of Huey and Senator Long tells us to beware of Hugh. God speed them. They are both right. Between two evils choose neither.

Some wisecracks in Newton who believe themselves to be political experts have been stating that the proposed changes in the city charter regarding elections in Newton is a Democratic plot. Of the four proponents of this bill, three are registered Republicans and have no intention of jumping into the dominant party.

Waban Improvement Society Elects Officers at Meeting

At the Angier School in Waban on Tuesday evening, March 5th, the Waban Improvement Society held its annual meeting. The incoming officers for the year 1935 were as follows: president, Laurence Allen; vice president, Edmund S. Whitten; secretary and treasurer, Mr. Lewis W. Day; directors: District 2, Mrs. Wellington Rindge, district 5, Philip Ver Planck.

Mr. Felix A. Burton spoke on "Newton's Real Property Inventory," telling, in a clear and concise way, about what the real value of this survey means to the residents of Waban.

The next speaker was Mrs. Margaret Harvey Woods, whose subject was "The School Program as it Affects Waban." Mrs. Woods spoke of the "No School Signal" which, in case of storms may be heard at 7:15 a. m. over Stations WNAC, WEEL and WBZ. There will also be given three lustrous blasts in sequences of three, nine in all of the fire station whistles. Another way of determining whether school keeps or not, is to call the police station. Mrs. Woods then spoke of the now crowded conditions in the Warren Junior High School which might lead to a new Junior High School to be erected in Waban, built on some ten acre lot, the location of which has not as yet been divulged.

The next speaker was Mr. Clifford H. Walker, Alderman of Ward Five and vice president of the Waban Garden Club. Mr. Walker's subject was "Crocuses, Cut Worms and Chrysanthemums," his C. C. subject as he laughingly put it. Mr. Walker told about a proposed plan for a center for working people and nurse maids of the town, where they could stop and rest and procure more enjoyment of the great outdoors. The place tentatively suggested for this "Garden of Eden" was the lot back of the library. It being so shaped as to lend itself for the development of a small park with a wild flower garden, benches, seats and shade.

An open question period followed the close of each speaker's address. With a few well chosen and humorous remarks, President L. A. Estes ordered the meeting adjourned.

"Always in Trouble" Central Club Show

The Central Club of the Central Congregational Church of Newtonville will present a three-act comedy on Friday and Saturday of next week, March 15 and 16, for the benefit of the Memorial Organ fund. The performance, entitled "Always in Trouble" is replete with funny situations and brisk action. Various musical and other specialties including a male chorus will be introduced during the evening. The show has been coached by Mr. and Mrs. Clinton W. Tylee who have successfully directed shows of the Central Club for several years.

Charged With Drunken Driving

Joseph Wood, Jr. of Russell road, West Roxbury was arrested on Monday night by Serg. Sheridan and Patrolman Murphy and Maguire charged with drunkenness and driving a car while under the influence of liquor. His case will be tried on March 14.

Discuss Local Taxation

The Newton League of Women Voters, a branch of the Boston League, held the first meeting of its study group on Taxation at the home of Mr. Walter Hartstone, 350 Centre st., on Monday morning, March 4th.

The meeting opened with a statement of the two reasons for the vast increase in taxes within the last twenty years: increase in the number of services asked from government and possible increase of waste in administration.

Restricting discussion to local taxes and local services, the members of the league enumerated the services provided by the city and were unanimous in agreeing that none could be dispensed with. The services that we wish to have must be willing to pay for—to be taxed for. Two questions, therefore, arise: Could there be a better distribution of local taxes, that is, a broader base, and second, is there any source of waste that might be eliminated?

The urgency of these questions was shown by the fact that while the local valuations in Newton increased in 1934 over those for 1933 by $73,450, the amount of income tax returned by the State to the City in 1933 (the last year for which figures are available) decreased by $112,683.45.

In considering the possibility of a better distribution of taxes the large amount of tax exempt property was discussed. The total value of such property in Newton was in 1933 $28,250,350, of which nearly $661,000 was State property, and a little over $13,000,000 is owned by the City. Neither of these properties is taxable. Of the remainder the three large items were literary and scientific institutions, $6,630,800; charitable and benevolent institutions and temperance societies, $2,899,600; and houses of religious worship, $4,509,650. Two questions were raised and briefly discussed, first, whether such tax exemption is desirable and, second, whether a municipality should have the right to be consulted before such establishments are admitted or exempted.

In this connection mention was made of the fact that a bill now before the New York Legislature permits the city of Buffalo to issue $10,000,000 worth of special improvement bonds with the proviso that only cemeteries and certain industrial properties will be exempt from a pro rate of the special tax.

It was also noted that the cost of the Department of Weights and Measures was in 1933 $2,462.78 while the fees paid for the service amounted to only $584.22 as the fees are fixed by the General Court and as an attempt to alter them some years ago was strongly opposed, there seems little hope of even considering the wisdom of a change.

The cost of elections was mentioned. An election costs about $8,000. A biennial one would, according to the City Clerk, cost about the same as an annual one. A member of the league was asked to attend the meeting of the Aldermen in which the matter was to be discussed and to bring a report to the next meeting of the study group. An account of the municipal electric plant in Hudson which provides citizens with electricity at a trifling unit of one cent per kilowatt hour was shown. Questions as to the cost if taxes and depreciation were reckoned in the figuring were left to be answered at the next meeting.

The National League of Women Voters recommended for support "The manager plan in municipal and county government." An account was read of the savings attained in Banker, which installed a city manager in January, 1932. Time did not permit a discussion of centralized purchasing, which might be introduced in Newton without such a revolutionary change as would be implied by the adoption of the city manager plan. That subject is reserved for the next meeting as well as the real estate tax.

Copies of a Syllabus for Study Groups in Taxation were offered for sale at five cents each. They contain valuable literature lists and may be had from Mrs. Hartstone.

The next meeting of the study group will be held on Monday, March 11th, at 10:15, at the home of Mr. Walter Hartstone, 350 Centre st., Newton Centre. All league members are welcome. Information regarding membership will be furnished by Mrs. Hartstone.

Arrest Waban Man For Speeding

Walter Murray, 22, of 81 Avalon road, Waban was arrested about midnight Tuesday on Beacon street by Patrolmen Green and Keating, charged with speeding. He was arraigned in the Newton court on Wednesday and his case continued until Friday at his request. Bail was placed at $200. Newburyport police have a warrant for Murray on another speeding charge. Murray had been convicted previously for other violations of automobile laws.

In the Newton court yesterday Murray was fined $25 by Judge Bacon and committed to jail in default of its payment. He asked that he be allowed to sell the car in order to raise the fine. Judge Bacon refused because of the default warrant held by the Newburyport police against Murray.

Car Hits Pole; Baby Badly Injured

A car driven by Antonio Rodriguez of 42 Townsend street, Cambridge, skidded on Washington street, opposite the Newton Hospital about 9 o'clock Sunday night, ran into a telephone pole, and tipped over. Rodriguez received injured ribs and his baby Joseph Rodriguez, 6 months old, received a fractured skull. Both were taken into the Newton Hospital. Mrs. Rodriguez was not injured.

ONE THING... AND ANOTHER

The Egomaniac Speaks

"We've seen another Winter go—," a member of the informal grievance committee began, only to be interrupted by a chorus, "Hope you're right." Ignoring the voices he continued, "We've seen another Winter go and no solution of the cleaning sidewalks problem."

"Wattermean?" somebody asked. "I mean that there has been no attempt to enforce the city ordinance about snow removal from in front of residences. The police have not enforced the law."

"Why should they?" demanded the Egomaniac, pointing in the direction of Farlow Park. "If the city wants clean sidewalks let them set an example. They haven't bothered to clean around the park, so why should householders worry. Sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander."

"What do we pay taxes for?" another grievance committee member demanded. "And every day there's more and more taxes being put on."

Again the Egomaniac spoke. Said he, "Down with all taxes except those on the owner of real estate valued at $10,000 or less. Tax him—he doesn't dare protest."

"Sees All, Knows All" "Come and see why you are so unhappy, why everything seems to go wrong. Why be sad and downhearted, sick and worried, when you can be helped and everything made clear?" This was the message I read on a card that had been left at my door. "Who is the thoughtful friend?" I asked myself.

And further on I found that I had only to ask and would learn "how to make any one love me, how to get good luck, how to get a good position, how to remove evil influences, how to settle a quarrel, how to have complete happiness, how to become wealthy, how to have mental health and how to conquer my rival," etc.

Here, in my grasp, lay answers to the many secrets that until now have remained unobtainable. Why hesitate? Why delay? O why not consult this "famous psychic medium and life reader?" Just a matter of "50 cents and $1.00," says the card, without stating why there should be two prices. When I make up my mind which sum I can afford I may decide to penetrate the misty veil. Meanwhile I shall still have these problems on my hands.

More Truth Than Poetry

Overheard in a restaurant: First Diner — If the Legislature doesn't repeal the dog-racing law, the people will go to the polls in 1936 and repeal it themselves.

Second Diner — They'll have spent so much money betting on the dogs they won't have shoes to wear to the polls.

Reward Expected

It takes courage to watch a friend pack his bag for an ocean trip in Southern waters. More courage is needed when he carefully selects his fishing outfit for deep sea sport off the British West Indies. And all the valor one may summon is necessary when the friend says, "Wish you were going with me, old man." Having gone through that experience this week without a whimper I expect some recompense. It will probably come in the form of a postcard printed in gay colors telling of the good time the sender is having. Ho, hum!

Making Our City Better

Those who have never read the annual report of the Newton Free Library should turn to that for the year ending Dec. 31, 1934. As many are not likely to do so may I note some of the outstanding features. First is the success of the Boys' and Girls' Library on Vernon street. The report says that the usefulness of the building has fulfilled all expectations and that there have been issued from it, during the seven months since it was opened, 1,080 more books than during the corresponding period of 1933.

An answer to the question I have often asked, "What happens to books when the library is through with them?" is the report's statement, "The greater part of the 7,000 books which were withdrawn from our library were distributed to the Civilian Conservation Corps camps, hospitals, sanatoriums and welfare agencies for a further period of usefulness."

Gifts of generous citizens have made possible improvements in appointments at branch libraries and increased the value of collections in the main library. The Newton Centre Garden Club and the Newton Garden Club provided attractive gardens for the Newton Centre branch and the main library.

These are a few things that hearten those of us who like to think that Newton's civic progress is due in no small part to the thoughtfulness and loyalty of its residents.

Talks on "Problems of The Foreign Born"

"Problems of the Foreign Born" was the subject of a talk by Miss Alice V. O'Connor, Social Service Supervisor in the immigration division of the State Department of Education at the afternoon meeting of the Woman's Association of the Newtonville Methodist Church on Wednesday. This present division of immigration with which Miss O'Connor is connected was formed in 1919 more as a protection to the State rather than to the foreigner. There are offices in five cities in the State as well as the one in Boston.

Last year the department received 19,000 calls for aid in solving difficulties which grow out of the federal laws affecting the foreign born, the lowest rate since 1834. A striking example of how these problems arise is shown in the story of a Boston woman, the wife of a United States citizen, the mother of three boys also citizens and the daughter of a native of Nova Scotia, who is naturalized and on whose papers his daughter's name appears. This woman, who was brought to the States by her parents in 1914, accompanied the remains of her mother to Nova Scotia last October and now faces deportation because there is no record of a legal entry in 1914.

Although there are many motives for seeking citizenship, Miss O'Connor believes that the strongest is a love of the United States. Citizenship is required of lawyers, peddlers, state employees and many factories demand that first papers be taken out. The old age pension law, which requires a twenty-year residence in the States, is a strong incentive to seek citizenship. The federal law says that no member of the yellow or Hindu races may be citizens of the United States except the children who are born in this country. A woman who marries a foreigner retains her citizenship, but a foreign woman who marries a United States citizen does not gain citizenship. Children of citizens, born in foreign countries, are United States citizens.

Miss O'Connor believes that if we were to lose all the variety of influences which we owe to the foreigner, we should experience a great loss, their music, art and many kinds of foods are among their contributions to us.

Newtonville Imp. Association Meeting of Executive Com.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Newtonville Improvement Association was held on Tuesday evening, February 26th, at the home of Mr. H. D. Cabot, 561 Watertown street. There were eighteen men present.

The matter of a possible playground for the Frank A. Day Junior High School was discussed, and the subcommittee on playgrounds was directed to go into this matter further, in co-operation with the City authorities, to see just how the proposed playground sites would be laid out and utilized.

A possible City ordinance to prevent the changing of the grade of any lot in Newton without the permission of the proper City authorities was discussed by the Committee, and referred to a sub-committee for further investigation.

Chief Randlett of the Newton Fire Department explained to those present just how the proposed consolidation of the Newtonville and the West Newton fire stations in a modern building would be to the advantage of the city, and he also explained many interesting details connected with the Newton Fire Department.

It was voted to have a second general meeting of the thirty-nine district representatives of the Association with the executive committee at some date in March, or early in April.

It has been found by the association that many store awnings in Newtonville are far lower than the legal limit, and action will be taken either to amend the present ordinance or to have it enforced.

It was reported to the committee that the recent legal decision in regard to billboards in the State gave each community freedom of action to regulate the billboards within its borders.

The committee voted to oppose certain proposed zoning changes in Newtonville, and also to oppose the proposed changing of zone requirements in order to allow a "bottling and rectifying" business to operate in West Newton.

The president of the association was authorized to appoint a nominating committee for the next year, and a committee for the annual meeting in May.

The repair and resurfacing of a number of streets in Newtonville will be taken up with the proper authorities.

Hearing On Changes In Election Laws

heroic efforts to bring out the voters on off-year elections, when there are no majority contests, have only resulted in getting from 13 to 30% of the registered voters to come to the polls. He termed the present system as archaic and urged that the bill be favored so that the citizens may have an opportunity to vote for a change that will give real, representative government to Newton.

James P. Gallagher said that he deplored the partisan flavor which had tainted the hearing. He asked what mental or spiritual change would have occurred among the members of the present Board of Aldermen had they been elected as Aldermen-at-Large instead of Ward Aldermen, or vice versa. He asked that if all Mr. Hatfield's arguments are correct, "Why not have all three aldermen from each ward elected as aldermen-at-large, so they can receive the benevolent approval of the Republican City Committee?"

The matter was referred to the Legislation Committee of the Board of Aldermen.

Arguments Against Proposed Changes

Arthur W. Blakemore of 139 Park st., Newton, for several years a prominent member of the Newton Board of Aldermen, said that this city has tried every kind of voting. Prior to 1897 Newton had a two chamber type of government, a City Council of 14 members and a Board of Aldermen of seven members. Party primaries had been held to nominate Democrat and Republican candidates, a non-partisan party had been organized, and in 1897 the present form of government, consisting of a Board of twenty-one aldermen was started, with the Mayor given full executive power and the prerogative of purchasing supplies needed for the city.

He commented that previously the aldermen had this function and there had been charges of graft made. The men who devised the present city charter endeavored to have city affairs considered from a city standpoint rather than from a Ward standpoint. Mr. Blakemore said that in 1908 it was as much of a problem as now to get people to vote at elections.

He said he was the father of the present system of voting used in Newton and he still believes in it. It necessitates citizens going to the polls only once, and that knockout primaries have all the evils of the party primaries. He asserted that the preferential system at least elects the candidate desired by most of the voters. Referring to the criticism of the Republican City Committee, Mr. Blakemore said he has known Mr. Hatfield for 30 years and that gentleman has always tried to get good men into public life. He said the ordinary citizen is ignorant regarding candidates, and the Democrats should imitate the action of the Republicans in endorsing candidates. He said he favors the change to biennial election, and opposes the other proposed changes.

Phillip W. Carter of Balcarres rd., West Newton, suggested that those present look at the photographs of former Boards of Aldermen in the committee rooms, and asked, "Have we ever had stronger men than Sewall and Jones, Henry I. Harriman, George Ellis?" He argued that Newton has become a collection of villages and he referred to the recent large attendance of Waban residents at City Hall to oppose new Ward boundaries.

He asked, "If every village felt as does Waban, would that be an advantage to the city as a whole?" He claimed that if Aldermen are elected as Ward Aldermen, they will work for the interests of their own Ward rather than for that of the city as a whole. He favors biennial elections, but opposes any change in the system of choosing Aldermen and school committees. He asked anyone to name one good candidate for Alderman who has been defeated because of the present system.

Alderman Cronin asked Mr. Carter, "Do you believe the Republican City Committee is right in endorsing candidates for the city government?" Carter answered that he does not believe the committee should endorse candidates, and he had suggested in the Newton GRAPHIC that a Good Government Association be organized, but this suggestion apparently made no headway. He said that in the absence of such an organization, that perhaps the Republican City Committee has accomplished good in endorsing candidates.

Mrs. Ellis Spear, Jr., of Newton Centre, said she favors the biennial elections but she opposes the change in the method of electing Aldermen as Newton would not get such a high type of men to serve. She stated that the "boss" system would obtain under the ward organization, and that if Aldermen are elected by wards we will go back to the village idea. She said she is not opposed to the question being submitted to Newton voters as a referendum.

Ex-Mayor Hatfield asked how many of the Aldermen have ever tried to educate the people of Newton politically. He said that some Democrats have asked for the endorsement of the Republican City Committee. He remarked that it has been very difficult to get citizens to become candidates for Aldermen, that most of the members of the Republican City Committee have no axe to grind, and if you give us credit for having selected good men to represent the people, why change the system? He said the committee has endorsed some good Democrats for Ward Aldermen. Mr. Hatfield commented, "I have been accused of having been a political boss, but I have been a slave of the people for 30 years." He said that if Newton gets a strong Democratic City Committee we can work together, and that non-partisanship is a joke, and there is no need to go to the people

Miss Allen Gives Historical Talk at D.A.R. Chapter

The regular meeting of the Lucy Jackson Chapter, D. A. R., was held Monday, Feb. 11, at the Chapter House, Newton Lower Falls. Mrs. Parker, regent, presided. The nomination for the State ticket of officers was read. Also the delegates and alternates for the Washington Congress as follows: Delegates, Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Dow. Alternates, 1. Mrs. Charles Vee; 2. Miss Edith Allen; 3. Mrs. Gardner Jones; 4. Mrs. Fred Lowe; 5. Mrs. Frank Sherman; 6. Mrs. Ben Rae; 7. Mrs. Arthur Tucker; 8. Mrs. H. E. Johnson; 9. Mrs. L. E. Green; 10. Miss Florence Tower. Tea was served in the dining room under the supervision of Mrs. Edgar Allen, chairman of hostesses.

The program for the afternoon was "Woman and Her Wider Vision," by Miss Lucy Ellis Allen of the Allen School for Girls in West Newton. Miss Allen is a present member of the Chapter and was its fifth regent. Her sister, Miss Fanny Allen was the chapter's organizer in 1896 and its first regent.

Miss Allen started her talk by reminiscing very delightfully on West Newton and the distinguished women in its community eighty years ago, through which moved the figure of her father, Mr. Nathaniel Allen, who held a unique record as an educator here. He was also a protégé of Mr. Horace T. Mann in his earlier years.

Mr. Mann had been a member of the Senate and the House of Representatives of Massachusetts. Then through his personal exertion Massachusetts established a Board of Education with Mr. Mann as secretary. During his residence in West Newton at the corner of Chestnut and Highland sts. (later the Safford place) his reports of the Board of Education were so forcible, and had such great influence in elevating the standard of public sentiment for school instruction, that they were published in many languages throughout the whole country.

Mrs. Mann was an authoress of distinction and her sister, who lived with the Manns, was Miss Elizabeth Peabody, daughter of Dr. Peabody of Salem. She held the position of the greatest woman, not only in Boston, but in America, to enforce the Kindergarten movement. The Elizabeth Peabody School in Boston is a monument to her work.

Miss Katherine Beecher, sister of Henry Ward Beecher, also made her home with the Manns, as did Miss Rebecca Pennell, a remarkable teacher of mathematics in Normal School and later professor at Antioch College.

Some years after Mr. Mann left West Newton his home was occupied by his brother-in-law, Nathaniel Hawthorne and it is said he wrote his "Blithedale Romance" here. Mrs. Lydia Maria Childs was a resident of West Newton too, after leaving New York where she had been editor of the "Anti-Slavery Standard." Her biography of Isaac T. Hopper, Miss Allen considers the most readable piece of biography in English literature. She also wrote the "Progress of Religious Ideas," and aside from a literary point of view Mrs. Childs was regarded as so wise in counsel that she numbered men like Charles Sumner, Henry Wilson and Gov. John Andrew among those seeking her sound judgment. She took an active interest in Slave matters as did Horace Mann and others in West Newton. Mr. Nathaniel Allen's house was one of the underground stations in Massachusetts for the fleeing slaves. And Mr. Allen stood ready to take them to Bedford to another "station" or act as one of William Lloyd Garrison's body guards in Boston. The Allen home is the present Allen School for Girls and really the most historical house in the Newtons, as having espoused the great cause of slavery.

The first normal school for women was started in West Newton on the site of the present Unitarian Church corner of Washington and Highland sts., by Mr. Mann, Josiah Demig, Jr., giving a substantial sum towards the purchase of the building which was the West Newton Fuller Academy. Here the Model School was held under Mr. Nathaniel Allen, as principal giving the practical opportunity for teaching children of the community. In 1854 this Normal School was moved to Framingham and the building was purchased for a private school by Mr. Allen, who had the distinction of being its head for fifty years, and the school the first private school in America.

"It was distinctly an 'Allen' school in name, for aside from Mr. Allen as principal, there were his uncle, three brothers, cousins, nephews, nieces and daughters. Many of these have held high positions in the educational world in colleges, schools and having edited and written books on education, religion, history and politics." (West Newton a Half Century Ago), Miss Lucy Ellis Allen.

In 1863, through the influence of Baroness Marenholt von Bulow, Miss Lucy Pollock was secured from Germany by Mr. James Allen to open the first Kindergarten in the United States. This was a department of the Allen School. Another resident of West Newton was Mrs. Caroline Seavance who founded the first Woman's Club of Boston, as did Mrs. Nathaniel Allen and Mrs. Walton of Newton.

One more author of the Newtons was Mrs. Claflin, wife of Ex Gov. Claflin, whose delightful book, "Under the Elms," was written on the beautiful Claflin estate, historical as the residence of Gen. Hull and where Rev. James French Clark often visited.

Morgan Memorial Asks Support for Local Drive

Morgan Memorial is constantly and increasingly grateful to its 3300 contributors in Newton for their continued support of this great work. The very best homes in this city have Goodwill Bags into which cast-off clothing, household goods and other materials are placed, which are collected and brought into the main plant in Boston. There, work is given to many handicapped people in the renovation and repair of these things. After these are put into serviceable shape, they are placed on sale in over a dozen stores located in the poorer sections of Greater Boston. Here, other poor people are able to secure warm, comfortable clothing and durable furniture and household equipment at a minimum cost when they are unable to purchase new goods. The money received from the sale of these reconditioned articles pays the wages of those who have worked upon them.

This is the basic idea of the Goodwill Industries which were established forty years ago and have spread into more than ninety cities in this country and in many nations of the world. In this day when there seems to be an orgy of doles which do not build character, it is gratifying to thousands to know that here is an institution which believes in a Chance, not Charity; in Opportunity, not Alms;

and knows that, a Tool in the Hand is worth more than a Coin in the Hat. Representatives of Morgan Memorial are now in Newton making an earnest appeal for these cast-off materials. There is no doubt but that the people of Newton will rally to this call, since they know that the number of Goodwill Bags now received will determine the number of jobs that will be given this winter to those thousands who are now besieging the Employment Bureau at Morgan Memorial.

The annual play of the young people of the Newtonville Methodist Church will be presented this evening and tomorrow evening in the church at 8:15. Hafer, author of "It Happened in June," and "Barbara Makes a Splash," has created another entertaining play in this instance.

Other members of the cast are Chester Brown, Reginald Thomas, Allan MacQuarrie, Frederick Briggs, Dorothy Drew, Vivian Purdy, Gladys Shaw, Pearl Drew, Patricia Spaulding, Fern Cotton and Edna Currier.

HOWELL E. DUPUY, JR.

The scene takes place in the home of the Forrests in the village of Benton and as the title suggests the time is Spring with romantic and amusing situations the theme of the play. Love never runs smooth and its path is made more difficult by the attempts of the cold, unsympathetic and haughty Mrs. Forrest, the plotting of the village "old maid," and others to play a part in the moulding of the young lovers' futures.

Between the acts, Dickie Seeley, the little lad with the sweet tenor voice, will sing popular numbers. Norman Lockwood, assisted by George Taylor, will have charge of the settings. Candy will be on sale under the direction of Barbara Emig. The play is under the direction of Ralph C. Thomas. Miss Grace Taylor will have charge of the make-up of the cast.

Kiwanis Club

A score of teachers from Newton schools attended the meeting of Newton Kiwanis Club last Tuesday to hear Robert O. Small, director of the Division of Vocational Guidance of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. He told of the development of vocational education in recent years and its importance in our changing social order. Because of the rapid changes now in progress in society, Mr. Small said that vocational schools are of great importance. He said society can be divided into four classes—those who make things happen; those who know what is happening; those who think something is happening; those who don't know that anything is happening. He commented that the average citizen is in the last category, particularly as regards our school systems.

He said that unemployment and the NRA have turned back into schools on a full-time basis boys and girls of ages who otherwise would be at work. Of these, it is estimated that 50% are of the retarded type, scholastically, and now that they are back in school, it would be better to spend some of the huge cost caused by crime in building and maintaining more and better schools to train boys for useful lives rather than for criminal lives.

Tells Rotarians Of Menace of Socialism

"The Menace of Socialism in America," was Mr. F. G. R. Gordon's topic at last Monday's Rotary luncheon meeting at the Braeburn in West Newton. Mr. Gordon, a life-long student of politics and economics and who was for many years in the public service, lives in Haverhill. "Neither this nor any government can run any business with success; our Government can't even operate the Postoffice without vast losses," declared the speaker. The Intercolonial Railway in Canada, the Canadian socialized hydro-electric plant, European socialization of railroads, street cars, telephones, etc., were cited by Mr. Gordon as colossal failures. The biggest failure of all is to be seen in Australia where the Government has socialized on a vast scale. Most impressive figures were presented to back up these statements. The Australian debt is piling up to a remarkable figure. So great is the waste in Australia, in fact, that it is cheaper to buy locomotives in Philadelphia and ship them to that country than to manufacture them there.

Turning to our own country, Mr. Gordon said, "In the past eighteen months this Government of ours has embarked into something like 200 different kinds of businesses from the manufacture of rum in the Virgin Islands to furniture in West Virginia and to mattresses in Newton. Whether you like it or not we are on the march to Moscow. Unless we protest, unless we organize and fight, that day will come when economic liberty will be a thing of the past. Then it will be a dictatorship or socialism, or both." In conclusion, Mr. Gordon reminded his hearers of Thomas Jefferson's dictum, "That Government is best which governs least." "Thomas Jefferson was everlastingly right," said the speaker.

Constantine J. Lupo became a member of the Club at this meeting. Seven guests, nearly all members of other Rotary clubs, were present.

Long Life and Security

THE Metropolitan Life Insurance Company began publishing "Health Hints" for its policyholders in 1871 and ever since has carried on its efforts toward better health.

The Company cooperated with government officials in a campaign against a threatened cholera epidemic in 1892 and thus began its co-operative work with public health organizations.

In further developing its activities in the field of health, the Metropolitan organized its Welfare Division in 1909 and, at about the same time, a nation-wide nursing service was established for Industrial policyholders.

Subsequent health records demonstrate the value of these services.

During all these years the Company has worked shoulder to shoulder with national, state and local health organizations to stamp out preventable disease.

New low mortality figures were recorded in 1934 for practically all of the diseases against which public health forces have directed special preventive efforts—notably typhoid fever, tuberculosis, diphtheria, infant mortality and maternal mortality. During this year the good record of previous years continued to obtain among Metropolitan policyholders.

Absolve Barber of Hit-Run Charge

A hearing was held before Judge Bacon in the Newton court yesterday on the issuance of two complaints against Ralph Barber of 153 Newtonville avenue, Newton. On the night of February 21, according to charges made by the Newton police, a car driven by Barber hit Miss Olga Currier of Bellevue street, Newton, as she was walking on Newtonville avenue. Newton police asked that two complaints be issued—one for driving to endanger, and the second for leaving the scene of an accident without revealing his identity. Barber, through his attorney, asked for a hearing before the complaints would be issued. Judge Bacon ruled that a complaint on the reckless driving charge be issued, but he denied the complaint on the "hit-run" charge. The case will be tried on March 22.

Arrest Laundry Drivers for Theft

James Murphy, 34, of 48 Springfield street, Boston, and Alton Fountain, 20, of Dana place, Roxbury, were arraigned in the Newton court on Wednesday on the charge of stealing canned goods from Buxbaum's Market, Langley road, Newton Centre. The two were employed as driver and assistant on a truck owned by a Boston laundry company which supplies markets and stores with coats and aprons for employees. According to the charges against them, they were detected taking canned goods from the market; the loot being concealed in the dirty clothes which had been collected. Fountain was grabbed by two employees at the market. Murphy was arrested later in Boston. The police found some alleged loot in the laundry truck. It is claimed the pair sold the merchandise alleged to have been stolen to a store in Roxbury. The case was continued until Thursday.

In the Newton court yesterday Fountain was given a suspended jail sentence of three months when the police informed Judge Bacon that he had aided them by telling where the stolen canned goods had been sold. Murphy, who had refused to talk, was held for the Grand Jury.

League of Women Voters Discusses Taxation

Holds Meeting at Home of Mrs. Hartstone

The Newton League of Women Voters—a branch of the Boston League—held the second meeting of its study group on Taxation at the home of Mrs. Walter Hartstone, 950 Centre street, Newton Centre, on Monday morning, March 11th.

Mrs. Arthur Lane of Abundant gave a brief account of the meeting of the board of aldermen at which changes in the charter were discussed, especially substitution of biennial for annual elections and replacement of two aldermen at large for each ward by two additional ward aldermen.

A subject intended for discussion at the previous meeting but postponed for lack of time was then brought up. This was centralized purchasing. It was introduced by reading of a paragraph written by the late J. C. Brimblecom in the Newton Graphic some twenty years ago.

"The present system of accounting requires the establishment of a purchasing department to work at its utmost efficiency. With purchases of all kinds of material and supplies by so many different city officials it is a tremendous task to keep absolute accurate track of the liabilities which are constantly accruing to each of the hundreds of different accounts of the city. Centralization of the purchasing power of the city together with the present centralization of the accounting of the city would solve many present difficulties in this department."

To this paragraph was added a statement secured from the City clerk in November 24, 1921. The State passed an enabling act (date not given) permitting any city to establish a purchasing department. The City voted, December 1919, to do so. The next step would be for the Mayor to recommend or for the aldermen to pass an ordinance establishing one.

The question was at once raised whether the salary of an additional executive would not offset any possible economy resulting from such a move. To which the reply was made that the pros and cons should be seriously studied and that an entire meeting or perhaps a series of meetings should be devoted to its study and that the matter was proposed now merely to set members to thinking.

The question of real estate taxation, also on the program for the day, was postponed to a later meeting and the subject of County Activities and Economics was taken up. The fourteen counties, ranging from tiny Nantucket and Dukes (Martha's Vineyard) to Middlesex, the largest and with the exception of Suffolk, the richest in the State were mentioned. Their chief functions were enumerated—the furthering of justice by means of Annual Social of Chestnut Hill Improvement Soc.

C. J. O'Malley Talks on History Of Chestnut Hill

The Chestnut Hill Improvement Society held its annual social and entertainment at the Philomatheia Club, Chestnut Hill, Thursday evening, March 7th, and was very well attended by prominent Newtonians. Mr. Edward J. Bleau of Lynn contributed several baritone solos, accompanied by Mrs. Moses H. (Grace) Gulesian. Mrs. Gulesian also favored the audience with some of her own compositions. Miss Rita Shaw of Boston was charming as a reader and kept the audience in gales of laughter.

Charles J. O'Malley, widely known traveler and one of the Society's Board of Governors, gave a most interesting talk on "Chestnut Hill—Ancient and Modern." Not only did Mr. O'Malley give his hearers some interesting facts regarding Chestnut Hill but he narrated many historical incidents depicting the growth of the City of Newton in a humorous and entertaining manner. President Soule presided.

The following were elected at a members' meeting held just previous to the exercises of the evening: William E. Soule, Pres.; A. C. Webber, 1st Vice-Pres.; Leo J. Nawn, 2nd Vice-Pres.; Charles Barnett, 3rd Vice-Pres.; Edward J. O'Connell, 4th Vice-Pres.; Maj. B. L. Gorinkle, Treas., and Fred S. Moore, Sec. The Board of Governors elected include the above officers and the following: James A. Baldwin, Moses H. Gulesian, Earl W. Waldo, M. J. McGuire, Charles J. O'Malley, Harry L. Rogal, Raymond C. Sullivan and David C. Theall.

City Loses Again In Brocklesby Case

In the Newton court on Wednesday Judge Lynch of Milford denied the motion presented by City Solicitor Bartlett asking for a new trial in the case of the estate of Joseph Brocklesby against the City of Newton. Brocklesby was fatally injured in an automobile accident and an award of $4500 was made a few weeks ago against the city. The city solicitor may take an appeal to the Appellate Division of the district courts.

courts with their various officials and penal establishments; care of health in the form of tuberculosis hospitals; fostering of agriculture by various organizations; and care of roads, bridges, dams, etc.

It was asked whether in view of the fact that many of these activities are also promoted by the State, there is not a wasteful duplication of effort and whether there might not wisely be if not an abolition of the counties altogether at least a consolidation. Some difficulties were stated but the discussion was brief in view of the probability that Mrs. True Worthy White, of the Massachusetts League would be able to give us next week the result of her deep study of the whole problem.

The next meeting will be held next Monday morning, March 18th, at 10:15 at the home of Mr. Walter Hartstone, 950 Centre street, Newton Centre. All League members are welcome.

Red Cross Holds Conference At Newton Y.M.C.A.

Through the courtesy of our Newton Y. M. C. A., its pool was made available for Red Cross life saving examiners of the suburban district on Monday evening last.

Commodore W. E. Longfellow, National Representative, was on from Washington and demonstrated to the group newer methods of life saving. Those from Newton participating in the conference were as follows: Clyde Hess, Charles J. Peterson, Robert W. Hendrick, V. A. Anderson, W. R. Speirs, and Carl A. Eschebach. There were also other representatives from out of town.

While here Commodore Longfellow conferred with C. R. Cabot, Chairman of the Newton Chapter Life Saving Committee, regarding the work for the coming summer and made some most helpful and valuable suggestions, particularly along the line of enlisting in this work more voluntary examiners. He expressed a keen interest in the instruction work in beginners swimming, in which Mr. Westgate has assisted at Crystal Lake, and outlined the pageant which is to take place in Washington at the time of the National Meeting of the Red Cross, in which among other things will be particularly emphasized swimming as the most beneficial recreational sport.

The June conference for instruction is to be held this year at South Hanson where special attention will be paid to surf swimming and rescue work with the use of surf boards.

Nurses Institute at Newton Hospital

The Alumnae of the School for Nurses of the Newton Hospital held its second annual institute on Wednesday, March 6th at the Newton Hospital.

More than 160 registered for the meetings. These included 54 institutional nurses, 52 private duty nurses, 18 Public Health nurses, 28 retired married nurses, 8 staff physicians, 2 internes and 2 social service directors.

The meetings continued from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. A luncheon was served at cost in the Student Nurses' Dining room, which was taxed to capacity, more than 100 being seated. The program opened with a few words of welcome by Miss Bertha W. Allen, Superintendent of the hospital and Miss Mary E. G. Bliss, President of the Association.

The graduates were represented on the program by Miss Elizabeth Ross, Director of the Brookline Health Centre, who read a paper The Public Health Nurse of 1935, and Miss Huguette MacAfee with a paper on Private Duty Nursing Today with special reference to the Eight Hour Plan now in effect at the Newton Hospital and in more than 300 hospitals in the United States.

A surgical clinic by Dr. Denton G. Nutter and Dr. Sidney Derow was attended by a number arbitrarily set at 40 by the capacity of the room. The following papers were read and discussed:

Total Thyroidectomy in Cardiac Patients, by Dr. Richard I. Smith; The Nurse and Social Hygiene, by Dr. E. Granville Crabtree; Embolism, by Dr. Edward D. Leonard; The Present Conception of Stone in the Urinary Tract, by Dr. George C. Prather; Some Common Problems of the New Born, by Dr. Henry F. Keever; Latest Developments in Analgesia for Obstetrics, by Dr. M. Fletcher Eades. The latter was followed by the showing of two films—moving pictures made by Dr. Eades at the Boston Lying-In Hospital for teaching purposes. The first showed the preparation for and initial bath given to the newborn child, the second prepared especially for teaching young mothers showed the routine bath for a baby. All the doctors contributing to the program are members of the staff of the hospital.

Miss Nell A. Hostetter, Principal of the School of Nursing spoke on the Requirements for entrance to the school and referred briefly to the temporary reduction in the size of classes being admitted. Demonstrations by student nurses included the care of pneumonia and the use of the oxygen tent; the care of a fractured femur including light treatment with violet-ray and radiant lamps. An exhibition of the knowledge of anatomy required of students was given by a group who with pieces of rubber cut from inner tubes to the required shapes, clothed a skeleton with the principal muscles naming each and its points of attachment. A set of physical exercises followed with the muscles used in each movement being identified by name and location.

Miss Helene G. Lee, Executive Secretary of the Massachusetts State Nurses Association a guest on this occasion, spoke briefly on the association and how it functions under the division into five districts, an arrangement only a few years old.

Among several other guests was Miss Mary Patterson, Superintendent of the Lawrence General Hospital, Lawrence, Mass., who at one time was assistant to Miss Riddle at the Newton Hospital.

The exhibits included many pieces of equipment used in specialized treatments; anatomical models from the School of Nursing; publications by the hospital, school and alumnae association; a collection of dolls dressed by the students to represent the different periods in nursing; and many forms, charts, etc., used in the hospital and School of Nursing.

The attendance was representative of a good cross section of the majority of classes covering a period of over thirty-five years.

So far as can be learned this association remains the pioneer in the matter of institutes for nurses alumnae. State and district nursing associations and the League of Nursing Education in various places have for some time been making use of institutes as a means of education and interest for their members but among the alumnae association the field seems to belong to the Alumnae of the School of Nurses of the Newton Hospital.

New City Workers' Asso. Criticises Lay-Off of 50

A meeting of the recently organized Newton City Employees Association was held last Friday night in Nonantum Hall, Newton. Criticisms were made of the laying-off of 50 employees of the Street Department, two days after the annual city budget for 1935 showed salary increases for a number of city employees, mostly in executive and supervisory positions. The association issued the following statement after the meeting:

"In making up the budget for the coming year it has been shown where in the various departments increases in salaries are to be given to certain individuals, despite the fact that within the last week the present administration has seen fit to lay off fifty men, and the possibility of additional men to be laid off."

"At a meeting of the Newton City Employees' Association held last evening in Nonantum Hall, Newton Corner, they went on record as opposed to this method as unjust and unfair. "This association is composed of employees of the various departments in the city and has a membership of 285 men."

In answer to the protest the Mayor's office on Monday explained that the salary increases recommended for department heads, foremen and a few clerks is for the purpose of standardizing salaries for city jobs of equal importance. The Chief of Police and the Chief of the Fire Department have been receiving $3900 each. It is proposed to raise these salaries to $4000 because Mayor Weeks deems these offices equal in importance to other city offices which have been carrying a salary figure of $4000. It was explained that the salary of the Director of Soldiers' Relief has been jumped from $2000 to $2500 because the work this official has to perform has increased in volume, and was performed so efficiently last year that some of the money appropriated for soldiers' relief was turned back to the city treasury at the end of the year.

Has Excellent Motion Picture Films of European Trip

Dr. D. Brewer Eddy of Newtonville will give an illustrated lecture on "Europe in 1934" on Wednesday evening, March 29 at eight o'clock in the Central Congregational Church of Newtonville. Dr. Eddy has returned recently from an extensive trip through Europe and Asia and brings back a fund of knowledge of conditions there which is amplified by a most interesting set of motion picture reels. He will show pictures of England, Germany, and Russia. The films were taken in Russia without censorship by a professional moving picture photographer with Hollywood experience. They give an effective selection of subjects and artistic finish. Some of the more important features shown are of the new building projects of the Soviet government, informal street scenes, groups of Russian workmen and students in conference with members of the party, and the great review of 120,000 athletes of young Russia, men and women, in their remarkable exhibition in Red Square in Moscow. The films have been characterized as the finest ever seen, offering a wealth of material.

For seven months Dr. Eddy has studied economic and political conditions in European and Asiatic countries. He has been privileged to talk with leaders of these countries as well as with common people. Fate seems to have placed Dr. Eddy at strategic points during his trip. Mingling with the masses in Berlin streets he heard Hitler deliver his speech to the Reichstag in defense of the executions of last June. In Moscow he witnessed the annual review of young men and women before Stalin for four and a half hours. In Warsaw he arrived as the great flood was ravaging the area around the Vistula. The day before he arrived in Vienna the assassination of Dollfuss took place.

Incendiary Fire In Vacant Curtain Factory

West Newton Building Has Caused Bitter Controversy

The two-story factory building at Washington and Felton sts., West Newton, formerly used as a curtain factory by the Martin Manufacturing Company, was badly damaged last Monday evening by a fire of incendiary origin. The building has been closed for over a year. At 5:24 p. m., Russell Viles, manager of a filling station on Washington st., opposite the factory building, observed smoke issuing from the structure. He telephoned the fire department and an alarm was sounded from box 31. At 5:31 a second alarm was pulled which brought aid from Waltham. When the firemen arrived at the factory building, flames were blazing at several places on the first floor of the building. Strips of curtain ruffing several inches wide had been laid over the floor and wound about the bottoms of posts supporting the second floor. The curtain material was discolored in places and it was thought that it might have been saturated with inflammable liquid. Blue-colored material found in the building, and first supposed to have been some chemical used to start the blaze, was later analyzed and found to be only chalk. The flames badly damaged the first story of the building and did some damage on the upper floor. The damage was estimated at about $10,000.

Chief Randlett of the Newton Fire Department said that probably the fire was supposed to have broken out later in the night. He has since been investigating the fire in conjunction with Everett Shumway of the State Fire Marshal's office and Newton police. The building was erected about 30 years ago and operated as a curtain factory until a year or two ago. Some months ago an offer was made for its purchase on condition that it could be used as a rectifying plant for alcoholic beverages. A petition was filed with the Newton Board of Aldermen asking that the zoning ordinance be changed so that the building might be used for this purpose. The petition would also have allowed distilleries and similar plants in any business section of the city. A public hearing at City Hall on Feb. 21st on this matter and a large gathering of "drys" and church delegations bitterly opposed the proposed change.

Burglary at Chestnut Hill

William A. Carr of 47 Algonquin rd., Chestnut Hill, reported to the Newton police last Friday night that his home had been burglarized and jewelry valued at about $1000 stolen. Carr discovered the burglary when he returned to the house which had been unoccupied for a few days. There were no signs of any door or window having been forced. The Carr home is in one apartment of a two-family residence.

SCHOLARSHIP. The State Federation through the chairman of American Home, Mrs. Schuyler W. Van Ness, takes pleasure in announcing that again this year the Garland School has offered a two-year scholarship to a daughter of Federated Club members, for a Course of Study in Homemaking. This Scholarship will be equally valuable to the girl who knows that she is soon going to make a home of her own, or to the girl who may not know just what she wishes to do, as it will open up fields of interest that may decide her problem as to future work, or training. The College of Practical Arts and Letters of Boston University gives credit towards its degree of Bachelor of Science in Practical Arts to recommended graduates from the two-year course of the Garland School, and credit allowance is made by Training Schools for special vocations whenever course requirements permit.

Each applicant for this desirable Scholarship is asked to furnish a transcript of her secondary school record and a statement from a school official where she has been a pupil.
She must be a High School graduate, and should be of logical age for the work. Further details will be fur-

OTHER EVENTS PAST AND TO COME

Newton Community Club

Members of the Newton Community Club and their guests enjoyed a delightful Bridge and Fashion Show given at the home of Mrs. Henry I.
Harriman on March 4th, with an attendance of nearly three hundred.

The Style Show was attractive not only because of the chic spring fashions shown, but also because of interest in the adorable little children and in the older boys and girls who modeled the apparel. These children and grandchildren of Club members were Louise Milliken and her twin brother Dudley Milliken, Ruth Angier,
"Teddy" Barker, Clitheroe Loveland, Jean Stevenson, Silvia Dennison, Patricia Turchon, Beryl Dwight, Jean Backman, Pason Tucker Lowell, 3rd,
"Billy" McKenna, Edward Rawson, Peter Telman, and Alexander Wilson.

Mrs. Edna Bedford, chief consultant at William Fillet's Sons Company, supervised the Fashion Show.
Mrs. Steven Bayard Wilson, Club president, was in charge of the following committee: Mrs. Joseph Gerrity, House; Mrs. Leon Brockway and Mrs. Clarence Spike, Tickets; Mrs.
Maurice Dennison, Fashion Show;
Mrs. Albert Handley, Prizes; and Mrs.
George Rawson, Refreshments. Members of the Junior Club who sold candy were Marjorie Clapp, Betty Urban, Gertrude Spier, Frances Doehler, Jean Weber, Barbara Vannah, and Cynthia Southworth.

The second Art lecture in the new series, entitled "Flowers in Design," will be given on March 21st. These lectures at the Museum of Fine Arts are by Mrs. Sayward. Those who plan to attend should telephone the chairman, Miss Florence Bacon, the night before if they wish transportation. The date for the third lecture has been changed to April 18th.

West Newton Women's Educational Club

On Friday, March 22nd, the West
Newton Women's Educational Club will hold their meeting at 2 p. m., instead of 2:30 p. m., on account of the necessity of discussing some important changes in the policies of the Club. Following the business meeting, there will be a brief talk by Mr.
Julius Lucht, Librarian at the Newton Library. He will give some valuable and interesting information about the library, especially about the new library for children. Mr. Carl Smith, Associate Professor of Psychology at Harvard, will be the next speaker. He will give an address on "The Psychology of Abnormal Behavior."

The meeting will be followed by a social hour in the Tea-room.
On Friday, March 8th, the West
Newton Women's Educational Club held an Open Meeting under the auspices of the department of Inter-Racial Unity. The president, Mrs. Edgar P.
Hay, opened the meeting with a welcome to the speaker of the day, Mrs.
Burtis J. Whittemore; to the guest of honor, Mrs. John F. Capron, and to the members of the Foreign-Born Women's Club of Framingham, who were guests of the Club.

Following a friendly little talk by Mrs. Capron, two Federation reports were read; a report of the Club Institute, by Mrs. George H. Jackson; and a report of the Mid-Winter Meeting of the State Federation, by Mrs.
Raymond O. Littlefield.

Mrs. Burtis J. Whittemore was then introduced by Mrs. Herman R. Place, the chairman of the department of Inter-Racial Unity. Mrs. Whittemore, who is chairman of the division of Inter-Racial Unity in the State Federation spoke in a sympathetic and understanding manner of the importance of a genuine feeling of friendliness and helpfulness toward our foreign-born "neighbors," if we wish to work for the Americanization of the aliens who are now a part of American life. She described the splendid work which the Department of Immigration and Naturalization had accomplished along these lines, also the Massachusetts Department of Adult Education, especially through the University Extension courses, in the teaching of simplified, or "basic,"
English to the adult alien.

As an example of the value of this form of education for the foreign-born, a group of Italian women from the Framingham Club presented a play in two scenes called "Hot Water." This was not only well acted but showed what excellent English these women had learned to speak in a comparatively short time, and how advantageous it was for them to be able to understand and to speak the language.

This group from the Foreign-Born Women's Club of Framingham brought with them some fine examples of their handiwork, such as table cloths and linens, and other articles, all of which were beautifully embroidered by hand. This Club is hoping to interest some of the foreign-born women of Newton to form a similar Club of their own.

At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served to the Club members and their guests by the Hospitality committee.

Newtonville Woman's Club

Three well-known artists will entertain the members of the Newton-ville Woman's Club at their Musical Evening, beginning at 2:30 on March 19th, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. The singers will be Harry D. Newcombe, whose rich baritone voice of exceptional range, together with his dramatic ability, has made him noted with concert audiences.
Reginald Boardman, particularly well-known throughout New England as a pianist, composer, and an accompanist, will again be welcomed by the Newtonville Club. And Elford Caughey, Harpist, a member of the Boston Symphony Orchestra for the past ten years, and an unusually capable concert soloist, will complete the trio of artists. This program has been arranged by the Music committee, Mrs. Ernest L. Nichols, chairman.

Tea will be served in the Social Hall, under direction of Mrs. Henry
M. Weidner, Hospitality chairman, who will be assisted by the following members of her committee as hostesses: Mrs. H. Story Granger, Mrs.
Richard R. MacMillan, and Mrs.
George I. Whitehead. At the tea table, Mrs. Irving O. Palmer, Mrs. Bion
A. Weatherhead, and Mrs. Henry J.
Baringer will preside.

The Hospital committee, Mrs. Howard M. Waybright, chairman, will hold an All-day Sewing Meeting at the Newton Hospital on Thursday, March 21st.

The Annual Scholarship Card Party, sponsored by the Education committee, will be given on Friday, March 22nd, at 2 p. m., and although called a Dessert Bridge, tables will be arranged for those who wish to play some other card game. There will be a souvenir for the winner at each table, as well as a prize for the holder of the "lucky number ticket" handed in at the door. Mrs. Paul E. Ellicker, telephone Wes. New. 1748-M, is chairman of the Education committee, and reservations for tables, or for single seats, may be made by applying to her to any member of her committee.
The year 1935 will be the eleventh successive year that the Club has assisted a graduate of the Newton High School in the furtherance of her education, eight different colleges being represented in the choices made. Aside from an enjoyable afternoon at cards, the benefit is one that is most worthwhile.

The Newtonville Woman's Club held the last of the series of Education Conferences, given under the direction of Mrs. Paul E. Ellicker, chairman of the Education committee of the Club, on Thursday afternoon, March 7th, at the home of Mrs. Cecil W. Clark. There was a large number present to hear the speakers from the kindergarten and lower-grade schools. Miss Helen Thompson, of the Cabot School brought with her several charts and drawings from the primary grades showing the development of thoughts as expressed in words and pictures. Miss Mary C.
Bowers, from the Horace Mann School, spoke of her work in the kindergarten, of the traits in children and how they should be developed at the start. Both speakers were most interesting and left with their audience much food for thought.

Mrs. George W. Hinman and Mrs.
Raymond Green assisted at the tea-table following the meeting.

By Edward H. Powers

All this wrangling over the locations of dog racing tracks and the controversy over horse racing tracks brings before us certain facts. One is that there has been a drastic change in our moral code when open gambling is legally permitted. Isn't it quite consistent to be seizing gambling machines and arresting persons for playing poker or selling "nigger pool" tickets when gambling on races is sanctioned? How righteous are our officials in forbidding lotteries conducted on the "up and up" notwithstanding that the dear public decrees that crooked types of gambling are "O. K." Perhaps the public became so disgusted with the shady methods practiced by our big financiers in the stock markets that even dishonest forms of gambling seem decent by comparison.

A second fact in connection with horse and dog racing is the avidity displayed by some of our nicest people, men in the upper strata of society, in their efforts to get into this new racket. Of course it is their love for racing horses which actuates them. The prospect of getting a 7½% cut from the money which the "hol polloi" is going to squander in fatuous attempts to be numbered among the lucky does not appeal to the refined folks who seek race track franchises. Certainly not. If the general public only knew the machinations of persons of high and low degree who are trying to chisel in on the new gambling racket, fewer boons would join the army of dupes who will support this type of gambling.

Ups and downs in this world. Salaries and wages of some city employees going up. Fifty employees of the Street Department laid off; their wages gone down to nothing.

A few months ago Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt placed Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt at the head of a list of the world's outstanding women. Last week Mrs. Roosevelt placed Mrs. Catt at the top of a list of eleven women whose careers show the world is progressing.

The Reading Club membership is growing rapidly but it's not too late to join. The Club meets every Monday afternoon from four to five o'clock at the Boys' and Girls' Library. The following stories were among those read aloud by the librarian at the last three meetings:

Mr. A and Mr. P—(In Blanco, a Street of Little Shops).

Isn't that the nicest kind of reciprocity? You pat me and I'll pat you.

Last week 50 employees of the Newton Street Department were laid off. This action was necessary because the funds at the department's disposal are limited. It was the first lay-off of regular employees of the Street Department in 14 months. It would have come before but for the heavy snowstorm in January. Unless new projects such as construction of sewers or laying out and acceptance of streets are authorized by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen, there is no further work in prospect for the 50 men laid off and they will practically all become dependent on E. R. A. or city relief.

Personally, we believe it would have been better judgment for the city government to have taken measures to keep these men at work until the many hundreds of holes in our streets had been repaired and the winter's accumulation of dirt and debris cleared from the streets. At no time of the year are highways so much in need of constant repair as when the frost is coming out of the ground. We know this from bitter experience. During the years we have been constantly driving a car over Newton streets, we have had to pay for numerous automobile springs broken by holes in highways in this city. It would cost the average taxpayer far less to have a slight increase in the tax rate than to pay for broken springs and other parts of automobiles caused by poor streets.

In the pre-automobile days Newton boasted of its "sandpapered" streets, but for many years the streets of this city have been nothing to brag about. There has been an unwise economy both in the construction of Newton streets and in their maintenance. A few years ago the Board of Aldermen took measures to improve the type of surfacing on our highways, but the outlook for making them better during the coming year is not good. It is proposed to spend less money this year for repaving Newton streets than was spent last year or in other former years, and in those years not enough money was allowed in the budget for this purpose. It is not a pleasant comparison, when one rides over streets (which are not State highways) in nearby, small towns, to find them in much better condition than a large percentage of Newton streets. There is no criticism of our Street Department. It can't put the streets of this city in the condition one would expect in a city of Newton's reputation unless our city government appropriates sufficient money to have needed street improvements made.

While we are talking about Newton streets we might as well mention the constantly increasing amount of broken glass on our highways. We have referred to this matter a number of times in past years. This nuisance is becoming worse. It would seem that proper co-operation between our police and street departments ought to cause broken glass on streets to be far less evident, and that broken milk bottles or other glass fragments should not be permitted to remain on highways until ground up by automobiles tires, with expensive costs to the owners of said tires. Perhaps if the two departments mentioned cannot appreciably remedy this nuisance, E. R. A. workers might be detailed as a "broken glass patrol" along Newton streets. We hope that some day non-breakable milk bottles will come into common use.

In this troubled world with selfishness and self-seeking so prevalent, a life of loyalty and self sacrifice such as was that of the late Mrs. Annie Lawton Mason of Hollis st., Newton, served as an inspiration to all privileged to know her.

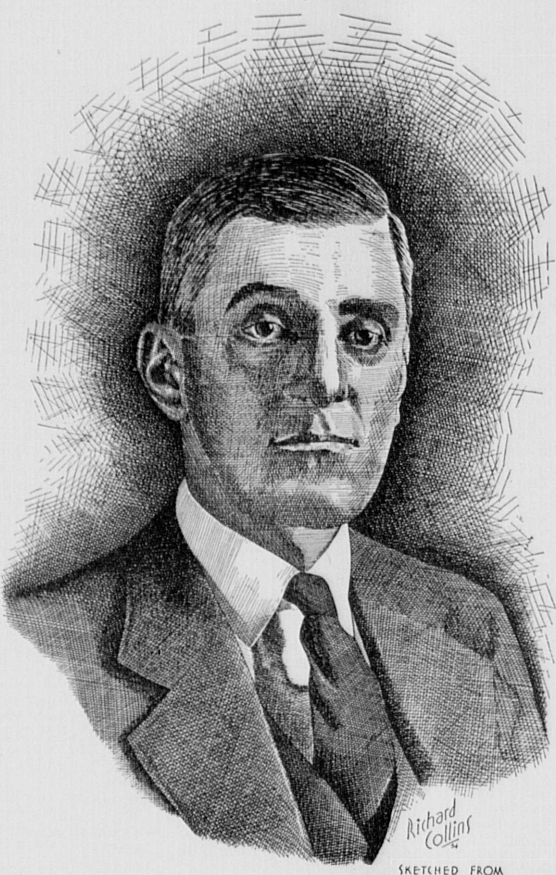

Frank A. Brooks of Watertown, member of the Governor's Council from the 3rd District, including Newton, led the fight in the Council on Wednesday which resulted in the suspension of all licenses for dog race tracks which had been granted in Massachusetts until hearings will have been held, and which will probably eventually result in preventing this rotten type of gambling from operating in Massachusetts.

Fined $25 For Reckless Driving

Ralph Chute of 105 Woods street, Somerville, was fined $25 in the Newton court yesterday for driving an automobile so as to endanger the lives and safety of the public. He appealed. Howard Kosroffan, driver of a car which was struck by Woods' car in collision recently, testified that he drove into a snow bank in an effort to avoid the crash. The case first came up in court on March 8 and at that time Chute's attorney asked that it be dropped because his client and Kosroffan had become friendly following the accident. Judge Bacon refused the request.

THE HONORABLE LEVERETT SALTONSTALL

Speaker of the Massachusetts House of Representatives

Before writing the biography of the subject to follow, I want to take this opportunity to express my unbiased opinion in regard to the citizens I am writing about in the Newtons. I have conducted many series of this sort all over the country, and feel that the Newtons have more real civic pride in the upbuilding of their community without an "axe to grind," than I have ever experienced before. Its purpose is not to exploit a man for his deeds, but to bring forth careers that will be helpful to others in their community. I also wish to add that there is no political motive in these write-ups, or using the slang phrase, as used by some stereotyped politicians, "you scratch my back and I'll tickle yours."

If all the communities of these United States had men of such calibre as they are here, willing to make any sacrifice for humanity's sake, balancing our budgets would not be such a problem or working the hardships on our people as it is doing today. Well, I will go on with my story.

Speaker Saltonstall is best known as a lawyer and legislator.

Has been engaged in public service since 1920. First elected to serve on the Board of Aldermen of Newton for two years. In 1921 and 1922 served as Assistant District Attorney of Middlesex County when his uncle, Endicott P. Saltonstall was appointed by Gov. Cox.

Charged With Theft of Ham

William DeCourcy of 139 Galen st., Watertown, was in the Newton court on Monday charged with drunkenness and the theft of a ham from the Beacon Spa at Newton Centre. He was sentenced to serve 30 days in prison on each charge and the sentences were ordered suspended on condition that DeCourcy pay $4 to the lunch room proprietor to reimburse him for the ham. The defendant said he didn't remember taking the ham or what he did with it. Witnesses told of seeing him go into the kitchen at the lunch room and leave through the rear door carrying the sandwich filler.

Fined $50 For Drunken Driving

Russell Achorn of 103 Crescent st., Waltham, was fined $50 in the Newton court on Monday for driving a car while under the influence of liquor. A drunkenness charge was placed on file. He was arrested at 3 a. m. Sunday on Lexington st., West Newton, by Patrolman Davis and Slavin.

The regular meeting of the Unit will be held on Wednesday evening, March 21st, at the Memorial Building, Newton Centre, at 8 o'clock. Commander Arthur R. McCarthy and members of the Post will be the guests of the Unit at this meeting, annual "Commander's Night."

ONE THING... AND ANOTHER

Volunteer Poet Laureate

From the minute the news was printed that the townsfolk of Scituate had voted to adopt "The Old Oaken Bucket" as the town's song I have wanted to write an official song for my home city of Newton. Sometimes you experience such desires, mad as they may seem to others. I tried not to allow my emotions get the better of me and to refrain from so plainly an absurd undertaking in view of my limitations. Nevertheless, something within me demanded expression and I was unable to hold it back.

I find I have unwittingly followed the example of Scituate in dedicating to Newton a drinking song. Unlike "the iron-bound bucket, the moss-covered bucket" theme, mine would have been illegal under Prohibition. With Repeal here I have a new angle and lawful one. Thus far I have produced only a single stanza as follows:

There are no taverns in this town,
in this town,
No stools to roost and drink it down,
drink it down,
But the stuff is here, wherever you can see,
In pints and quarts and any quantity,
And may the world go well with thee!

Out in "The Sticks"

When we hear some one speaking of living in "the sticks," we know what is meant—disparagement of a place that is not boiling with traffic, not noisy with squeaking car-brakes and shrill auto-horns. "The sticks" — a place where there are no crowds shopping each other, glaring challenges for the possession of car seats and sidewalk space. A place where there is no "night life" and consequently no over-dressed women with free-spending and indulgent escorts, no tawdry dancing resorts, with lively and coarse floor-shows, high-priced food and drink, brilliant lights, the music of savages and an air of artificiality. No street beggars, no thinly garbed stragglers of both sexes and all ages, mingling with the more prosperous or at least better-clothed. No wretched people with beaten expressions that mean misery and deep suffering, no dark alleys where lurk hungry cats, thugs and sodden wrecks of humanity. No grand buildings, no avenue for fashion parades, no great stores, no big monuments.

No, there is nothing like these in "the sticks." Nothing to appeal to those who prefer life in the city. No, nothing except orderly and well-kept homes, wide spaces between houses that breathe hospitality and contentment. Where peace descends with the evening shadows, where neighbors are thoughtful of each other, where no one is allowed to want if his condition be known, where dumb creatures are cared for and fed. Where the moon and stars provide the only light for the country road that is "the gray white way." Where crime is not the ruling passion, where each one strives to be fair and just and where one learns and is grateful because he knows that "Man made the city and God man the town."

To Would-Be Novelists

The success of "So Red the Rose" suggests titles for other popular fiction. I can think of "So Blue the Violets," "So Sweet the Honey" and "So Beautiful Are You." It might well be called "The So So" series.

Fast Brain Work

If you are the least bit shaky on your spelling, or as I often find myself, inform to the point of tottering, especially when confronted with idiosyncrasy, pleuro-pneumonia or Chick-amauga, then you will appreciate the enthusiasm with which I fell upon an article, "How to Improve Your Spelling."

I resolved not to stop until I had learned and digested everything set forth. Would I improve my spelling? Ha! ha! Would I? Not only that but I would become so proficient that, by entering various spelling bees, I would accumulate a flock of valuable prizes. "Just watch," said I.

Then I proceeded and read as follows: "If a termination beginning with e, i or y is added to a word ending in c, when c is not to be pronounced as s, k is inserted after c."

That seemed reasonable, and I paused to allow it to sink in if possible. Then I read on to find, "When a digraph precedes the final consonant, or when the accent is not on the last syllable, or when it goes to a preceding syllable in the new word, the final consonant is not doubled before a termination beginning with a vowel."

I put the book down. There was nothing to be gained by going further. "Anything as simple as that would not fix itself in my mind," I reflected. "Give me something more abstruse and I'll remember it."

Fined $65 For Drunken Driving

Joseph A. Wood, Jr., of Russell rd., West Roxbury, was fined $50 in the Newton court yesterday for driving a car while drunk and $15 for drunkenness. He appealed. The testimony was that on the night of March 4 Wood's car hit a truck in Brighton. The truck driver pursued Wood and at Hammond and Beacon sts. picked up Patrolman Maguire. The chase led over the Brookline line for a half mile where Wood was caught.

George McNevin, 19, of Hyde Park, was fined $50 in Newton court yesterday for driving a car while drunk. He was also fined $5 for driving without a license. He was arrested on March 3 by Patrolmen O'Donnell and Whelan.

LUCY JACKSON CHAPTER, D. A. R.

On Monday, March 11, the regular meeting of Lucy Jackson Chapter, D. A. R., was held in the Chapter House at Newton Lower Falls, the regent, Mrs. E. B. Parker, presiding. During the opening exercises, the chaplain, Mrs. Amos R. Wells, read two beautiful poems, "Rainbow Ensign" and "The People's Prayer," written by her late husband.

A loving tribute to Past Regent, Mrs. F. J. Fessenden, written by Mrs. C. D. Meserve and Mrs. A. P. Friend, was incorporated in the records.

Mrs. C. M. Casselberry, Past Regent of Joanna Aspinwall Chapter, and associate member of Lucy Jackson Chapter, presented to the chapter a Mass. State flag. Brought into the assembly hall by a boy from Hillside School, and escorted by Miss Olive Webster, a State Page who has been chosen as one of the personal Pages for the President General, at the National Congress in Washington in April, this was a most impressive moment. The flag was graciously accepted in behalf of the Chapter, by the Regent.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Sanford of Hillside School gave a short account of the work being done by the seventy-five boys in the school, and introduced Lawrence Ralston, whose cornet solo was admirably executed. Songs, recitations, and a short play, by eight boys from the school, were enthusiastically received by the audience.

During the social hour, under the direction of Mrs. F. S. Blodgett and her hostess group, all were anxious to meet Mrs. Sanford, and these interesting boys.

SARAH HULL CHAPTER, D. R.

The March meeting of the Sarah Hull Chapter was held Wednesday the 13th at the home of Mrs. Franklin E. Smith, 56 Fairmont ave. There was a short business meeting followed by a most interesting talk by Miss Bessie M. Stratton, her subject being "Across the Rio Grande."

Miss Stratton, who has spent three summers in Mexico, told of its beauty and art as well as of the political and religious situations of the present day.

Quoting from Bishop Creighton she said "Mexico is going through a period of adjustment. She is attempting to crystallize the benefits of the Revolution and hold them for future generations. Her methods may not always meet with approval, but the principles she is attempting are sound."

A social hour followed the program. Mrs. Charles E. Morrow was in charge of the dining room and the hostesses were Mrs. George Agry, Mrs. J. Henry Bacon, Mrs. William F. Bacon, Mrs. Spencer W. Shepardson, Mrs. Franklin E. Smith, Mrs. Charles W. Wright.

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. . . . Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear" (Hebrews 11:1, 3).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Substance is that which is eternal and incapable of discord and decay. Truth, Life, and Love are substance, as the Scriptures use this word in Hebrews: 'The substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.' . . . As God is substance and man is the divine image and likeness, man should wish for, and in reality has, only the substance of good, the substance of Spirit, not matter" (pp. 68, 301).

KIDNAPED BY "COLD GERMS"

He seemed a different person in winter. He lost his sunny summer disposition. Constant "colds" kidnaped his vitality, and made him irritable. And all so needlessly.

Today, in vitamin A, science has developed a powerful weapon against the common cold. This magic food element helps keep "colds" from getting a foothold in your body.

MCKESSON'S VITAMIN CONCENTRATE TABLETS OF COD LIVER OIL contain an abundant supply of this vitamin, together with "sunshine" vitamin D. And they are the only vitamin concentrate tablets that furnish the important minerals, calcium and phosphorus.

Each tablet brings you all the vitamins in one teaspoonful of U. S. P. X. (revised 1934) Cod Liver Oil. Six tablets daily will help your body to brush aside cold germs and gain new strength and vitality. At all good drug stores. $1 for each bottle of 100 MCKESSON'S VITAMIN CONCENTRATE TABLETS.

Aldermen Criticize Lay-Off Of 50 City Employees When Many Streets Need Repairs

Cronin, Guzzi and Akins Plead For Street Department Laborers Replaced by Men From Welfare Lists

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night about twenty-five employees of the Street Department were present. These men were included in the fifty employees of the Street Department laid off about two weeks ago. They came to the meeting because one of the orders on the docket called for the appropriation of $37,000 for a sewer in Albe-marle rd., Newtonville, which would have put these idle men back to work again.

When President Gordon of the Board was about to declare the meeting adjourned, Alderman Guzzi asked what action had been taken regarding the appropriating of the $37,000 for the sewer job. Gordon replied that this matter was held in committee for further consideration. Guzzi said that 50 permanent employees of the Street Department have been laid off and their work is being done by men who are getting aid from the Welfare Department. He said there is plenty of work to be done in filling the holes in Newton streets.

Gordon replied by saying that the Mayor has approved the appropriation of the $37,000 which will put the men back to work, but the Finance Committee of the aldermen is considering this recommendation.

Alderman Cronin said that he realizes that Mr. Ellis, the Director of Public Works, wants to do everything to keep expenses down for the benefit of taxpayers, but he is not convinced that the truth has been told when the alleged reason for laying off the men was given as "No work" to be done. He said the traffic circle at Washington street and Commonwealth avenue, proposed several years ago by the Planning Board, can be built. He suggested the draining of the big swamp near Lexington street, Auburndale, and the covering of the drain near Prairie avenue. Cronin said he was not criticizing Ellis and hoped he can devise means to put the men back to work as they have families to support. He said that during the preceding week he had been told that there was a delay in the collection of ashes, and horses had been standing idle in city stables because of lack of men. Cronin asserted that because the city employees had their pay cut restored the first year, these men should not be deprived of work. He also suggested that the Mayor have circulars printed and distributed to the Aldermen showing more details of the budgets for the various city departments, including salary increases. He commented that members of the Board of Aldermen cannot act efficiently on the budget with the information they merely got in the printed copies already distributed.

Alderman Guzzi said that it is not a fact that lack of work necessitated the laying off of the 50 employees. He said there is plenty of work visibly needed on our streets. He stated that there are criticisms on the proposed increases of $1500 for the new chairman of the Board of Health who will assume this office next July, of the $500 increase for the Director of Soldiers' Relief, and other salary increases when the Mayor is not taking care of those who need to be taken care of. He said it is not fair to the men laid off, and who were getting $5.04 per day to see the work they were doing being now performed by men from the Welfare lists who receive $2 per day.

Alderman Grebenstein inquired if the 50 city employees who were laid off were permanent employees? Alderman Guzzi replied by saying that these men received slips from the civil service commission specifying that they were permanent employees. Alderman Cronin asked Grebenstein if he believes there is work to be done on the streets and if something should be done to aid the employees. Grebenstein answered that in years past some of the street department employees were always laid off in November or December and this group had not been laid off for 14 months. He said that there is no work to be done but if the Street Department gets appropriations for such jobs as the proposed sewer the men can go back to work. He said he hoped they will not be laid off much longer.

Alderman Cronin said that since he became a member of the Public Works Committee the first of this year he has seen none of its members sit down and discuss matters for the benefit of the city and the workers. He suggested that the committee members get together and suggest certain projects to the Mayor. Alderman Hutchinson, chairman of the Public Works Committee referred Cronin to the meeting of January 12th when a discussion such as the Ward 4 alderman suggested was held. Hutchinson said he will be glad to renew his efforts to devise means for giving employment and invited the other members of the committee to co-operate with him. He remarked that other projects have so far been planned, because in the Mayor's judgment and wisdom they are not feasible at present. Alderman Gordon said any contemplated projects must be brought to the Mayor's attention within the next two weeks before the budget for the ensuing year is determined definitely.

Alderman Guzzi said that the recent survey by E. R. A. workers shows that 20 miles of sidewalks in the city need repairing. He said the laid off city employees can find plenty of work filling holes in the streets and cleaning the streets. Alderman Akins said that coming from Ward 1 which is largely composed of working people, including many of the idle city employees, he has been swamped with appeals for relief. He said now is not the proper time to lay off employees of the city and at the same time increase salaries of other employees.

Newton License Board Sustained By State A. B. C

The State Alcoholic Beverage Commission on Monday voted to refuse the appeal of Charles Weathers of Commonwealth avenue, Newton Centre, from the decision of the Newton License Board which turned down an application of Weathers' to conduct a package store for the sale of alcoholic beverages at 315 Centre st., Newton Corner. There has been long controversy over this matter. Last year there was a package store at this locus under the name of the Newton Corner Wine Shop. The license was in the name of Fred S. Moore of Algonquin road, Chestnut Hill, and associated with him in the business was Sam Berkman of Roxbury. Moore decided to end the partnership, applied for and was given a license at a new location on Washington st., Newton Corner. Berkman subsequently asked for a license at the old locus, was refused by the local commission, appealed to the A. B. C. and was turned down by that body. Weathers then applied for a license at 315 Centre street, was also refused by the Newton commission and took an appeal to the A. B. C. Considerable pressure was brought to bear on the A. B. C. in this controversy and its action in sustaining the Newton License Commission caused gratification to the local board.

The A. B. C. also sustained the Newton License Commission in acting adversely on the appeal of Santo Di Pucchio who was refused a license to dispense beer and wine at 97 Elm street, West Newton.

Arrest Chinese For Defrauding Own Father

Newton police on Sunday night arrested Fong Ging Chung, 26 of 305 Washington street, Newton; Sherman Coleman, 26, of 14 Avon place, Newton; and William Fessenden, 59, of 16 Avon place, Newton on charges of conspiracy and larceny. It is alleged that the trio victimized Charlie Yee of 411 Centre street, Newton of $225. Despite the dissimilarity in names, Yee is the father of Chung. Chinese laundrymen frequently use business names other than their real names. Yee is the dean of Chinese in Newton. He has conducted a laundry on Centre street for 36 years and is highly respected. The laundry at 405 Washington street is a branch and was in charge of Chung. It has been a custom of Chinese laundrymen to pay owners of properties a bonus in return for an agreement not to rent any store to a competing Chinese laundry. Chung, taking advantage of this custom, got a Newton lawyer to draw up a contract which was purported to have been authorized by a trustee of the Newton Lodge of Elks and assured Yee that the Elks would not rent any store to another laundry. Fessenden and Coleman were charged with having been involved with Chung in the deception, and to have received part of the $225 given by Yee in the fake transaction. Chung is alleged to have kept the balance. The three were arraigned in the Newton court last Monday and the case was continued until March 22.

Needham Rally At West Newton

On Wednesday night at the home of Richard M. Ott, Colbert road, West Newton, about fifty persons gathered to meet General Daniel Needham who will be a candidate for Mayor of Newton at the election next December. All residents of Ward 3 who signed the papers endorsing Mr. Needham a couple of months ago were invited to attend the meeting and most of them were present. Similar meetings are being planned for the other Wards in the city.

Spring Concert Of Glee Club Largely Attended

Mme. Sundelius Is Guest Artist of Highland Glee Club

The annual Spring Concert of the Highland Glee Club of Newton was given at the Newton High School Auditorium last Tuesday evening under the inspired leadership of its conductor, D. Ralph Maclean. The assisting artist was Madame Marie Sundelius, formerly leading soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Association.

The growing reputation of the Glee Club, and the distinguished artist presented by the Club, were the reasons for one of the largest and most enthusiastic gatherings ever to attend a concert. It was a glowing tribute to the unique position which the Highland Glee Club holds in the musical life of the community.

The Club has gradually grown from a very modest beginning to one of the most important and largest clubs in New England, recognition of this fact being shown at Hartford, Connecticut, last spring when it was awarded the Grand Prize by three distinguished judges at the annual contest of the New England Federation of Men's Glee Clubs, comprised of over 30 leading clubs from all parts of New England.

The concert was very enjoyable to the large audience, with a program chosen from some of the greater choral works of such composers as Beethoven, Elgar, Schubert; also several beautiful spirituals and the ever popular composers Sullivan, Rogers, etc. In the opening group by the Glee Club, an outstanding success was achieved by Ermond F. Lewis of the club, whose beautiful tenor voice was heard to advantage in Cecil Forsyth's "Sunrise". Madame Sundelius delighted everyone with her two lovely groups of songs, especially with the Swedish folksongs which she explained before singing. Her most graceful manner and fine artistry of her singing immediately won her a warm reception. The club is proud indeed to have had Madame Sundelius return again, for she appeared many years before as the assisting artist, preceding her later sensational successes, culminating with the Metropolitan Opera Association. Miss Roches, who accompanied Madame Sundelius at the piano, gave her sympathetic support.

Mr. F. Nelson Lane of the Club sang the bass solo role in "When I Was a Lad" from "Pinafore". His deep rollicking voice and splendid enunciation, with the accompanying choruses parts, was given a most enthusiastic reception.

One of the most delightful surprises of the evening was the work of young Martha Wight, daughter of the president of the club, in the long and difficult "Spring Night". Her fresh, clear soprano voice in this lovely number was in marked contrast to the deep supporting voices of the men. It was excellent from a vocal standpoint and displayed excellent musicianship.

A word of praise should be given to Mr. Karl Switzer, accompanist for the Club. His work was of the highest order both in the support he gave the men and in his individual solo passages. The club can be congratulated on having D. Ralph Maclean for conductor. With the rapid growth of the club in the last few years and the naturally changing personnel a certain amount of unevenness might have been expected, but as they sang Tuesday night it was evident that the Highland Glee Club is a highly trained organization, blessed with exceptionally good singers. Most noticeable were the remarkable pianissimos and the subtle changes of shading and expression. Newton has reason to be proud of its premier musical organization.

Gentile Not Guilty On Theft Charge

Daniel Gentile, 22, of 20 Emerald st., Newton, was found not guilty in the Middlesex Superior Court on Tuesday on the charge of stealing $700 in cash from a relative. The alleged theft was charged with having occurred sometime ago and Gentile was arrested recently by Newton police when he returned to this city after a long absence.

Mayor Weeks Protests Against Cost of Milk

Reduction in the amount of milk supplied to babies and small children by the Newton Public Welfare Department was forecast today with the announcement that milk dealers supplying that department have boosted their price from 8 cents per quart to 13 cents per quart, beginning next Wednesday, March 27th. It is expected that the supply may have to be cut in half because appropriation is only available for that amount. Mayor Sinclair Weeks has ordered an investigation and will protest to State authorities who are said to be responsible for the increase of more than 50 per cent in the cost to the city.

More than 3000 quarts of milk are delivered weekly to families of Public Welfare recipients since the inauguration of the department's modified commissary plan more than a year ago. Bids for the supply of this milk are solicited from dealers every two months and new bids for the next period were opened by James P. Reynolds, Welfare Director yesterday. All of the milk dealers submitted bids of 13 cents per quart with five per cent discount. At present milk is being delivered to the homes of the poor and the unemployed at a cost to the city of eight cents per quart.

With the bids dealers informed the department that the Massachusetts Milk Code Authority set the minimum price of 13 cents, with five per cent discount, at which they can sell welfare milk. One dealer stated that he wanted to sell the milk to the city at a lower price, but the state authorities would not permit it.

Mayor Weeks believes that milk distributed free to recipients of public welfare, at public expense, is not in the class of milk sold by stores and other competitors and will protest the establishment of a rate that will work harm to poor families in need of the nourishment milk gives them. School authorities declare that malnutrition has been entirely eliminated in Newton schools since the welfare department began furnishing milk and feel that a reduction of one half the amount allowed, caused by more than doubling the price may seriously affect the health and school attendance of the smaller children whose families have been hit hard by the depression.

Mayor Weeks has called upon the Law Department of the city to determine whether or not the Massachusetts Milk Control Board has authority to regulate the price at which Public Welfare Departments may purchase milk.

Alderman Akins Wants Smoking At City Hall

Just before the meeting of the Board of Aldermen adjourned on Monday night, Alderman Akins of Ward 1 suggested that the rule forbidding smoking in the aldermanic chamber be indulged in there after 10 o'clock. He commented that, inasmuch as the members of the Board seem to be divided on many questions on a partisan basis, it might be better if a motion to permit smoking would be made by one of the Republican members. None made the suggested motion, although Alderman Guzzi offered to second such a motion if Akins made it.

In the old city hall smoking was permitted in the aldermanic chamber after public hearings had concluded. While the new city hall was being erected an opportunity was presented for the purchase of a quantity of teakwood at a reduced price and this wood was used for the floor of the aldermanic chamber. Because it was feared that smoking might cause this costly wood to become damaged in spots, the Board of Aldermen, at the request of Mayor Weeks passed a rule forbidding smoking in the aldermanic chamber.

Man Trapped In Burning Car After Crash

Edward W. Pierce of 55 Lothrop street, Newtonville was trapped in his overturned car about 11 o'clock Wednesday night after it had collided with a car driven by Spencer Lynch of East Weymouth. The accident happened at the junction of Commonwealth avenue and Hammond street, Chestnut Hill. Pierce's car caught fire when it overturned but he was rescued by firemen from Engine 9, Chestnut Hill before the flames had time to spread. The fire was extinguished before much damage from this cause resulted. Pierce received slight injuries.

Vincenzo Loses Again On Gas Station Permit

Frank Vincenzo of Adams street, Newton again failed to obtain a permit to start a gasoline filling station at the corner of Washington and Cross streets, West Newton when the Licenses Committee of the Board of Aldermen reported adversely on his petition at the meeting on Monday night. It was the fourth time that Vincenzo had been refused on similar petitions in the past few years.

New Incinerator To Start-- Ashes Must Be Kept Separate From Other Waste Material

Glass, Earthenware, Tin Cans and All Other Types of Rubbish Are Classed as Combustible

The following instructions regarding the placing of ashes and rubbish for collection by Street Department trucks have been issued to the public by Richard Ellis, Director of Public Works of Newton. The new incinerator at Newton Highlands is expected to be in operation before the end of this month and this makes necessary the separation of combustible and non-combustible waste.

The City of Newton, on or about March 25th, will put into operation its newly constructed incinerator. This plant is designed to burn refuse and — when so desired — garbage.

At the present time, the garbage collection is carried out under contract and, at least for the present, the only material that it is proposed to burn at the incinerator is refuse.

It is essential that the citizens, beginning with March 18th, segregate the materials which they desire to have the city collect according to Section 192 Revised Ordinances of 1929 as amended, from which the following is an extract:

All materials shall be prepared and placed for collection in accordance with the following classifications and directions:

(a) The term "ashes" shall include all the earthy or mineral part of combustible substances remaining after combustion. Such material shall be placed in sound metal containers weighing not more than one hundred fifty (150) pounds when filled, on the outer edges of the sidewalk fronting the premises or in such other place as the Street Commissioner may designate.

(b) The terms "combustible matter," "rubbish" and "refuse substances" shall include waste paper, wooden boxes, tin cans, broken glass, broken earthenware, whole bottles, whole earthenware, articles of clothing, rags, boots, shoes, straw, sawdust, rubber, grass cut from lawns, door sweepings from provision stores and markets and small junk. These materials to be firmly packed in barrels or other sound receptacles weighing in no case more than one hundred pounds (100) when filled, shall be placed on the outer edges of the sidewalk or in such other place as the Street Commissioner may designate or permit.

(c) Ashes, combustible matter, rubbish, and refuse substances shall be placed for removal on or before seven o'clock in the mornings of such days as may be designated by the Street Commissioner for the respective classes. Carts having passed through a street will not be sent back to collect any such materials placed for collection after seven o'clock in the morning. All containers and receptacles shall be removed by the owners from the limits of the street or way upon the same day in which they are emptied by the city.

(e) Discarded or broken furniture, stoves, pipes, machinery, ruins of buildings, remnants of wood and metal from building construction or repairs, wooden boxes and large junk, trimmings from trees and vines, and rubbish not included in the above classification of combustible matter may be removed and disposed of by the Street Department upon application by the owner or occupant of the building or premises who shall pay to the city therefor the actual cost of removal and disposal as determined by the Street Commissioner; provided, however, that the Mayor may suspend for one week in the year, to be determined by him, the provision of this paragraph requiring payment for removal. All the materials offered for removal by application shall be of such form, and so prepared and placed as the Street Commissioner may specify or accept; otherwise they shall not be removed by the city.

(f) Employees of the Street Department shall not enter upon private property to remove materials except when and where directed by the Street Commissioner.

College Choir To Sing At Newtonville

A choir of fifty voices from the Northland College at Ashland, Wisconsin, will be heard on Friday evening, March 29, at Central Church, Newtonville, at eight o'clock. The choir, comprised of men and women, is making its first eastern tour of thirty-two cities. Previous engagements have been throughout the Middle West from which highly impressive and favorable reports have come. The program will consist of Lenten music a capella with a number of solos.

The soloists are Mrs. Beatrice Steen Boe and Miss Beatrice Thelma Brownell, daughter of J. D. Brownell, president of the college. The choir is directed by Professor Sigvard Julian Steen. Twelve nationalities are represented in the choir which is representative of a self-supporting student body. The public is invited to attend the concert for which no admission charge will be made. A special silver offering will be taken.

Mistrial Halts Damage Suit Against Newton

The suit of Mrs. Margaret L. McNaughton of 904 Boylston st., Newton Highlands for $5000 damages against the City of Newton was being tried before a jury at the Middlesex Superior Court in Cambridge on Wednesday when a mistrial was declared by Judge Walsh who was presiding. Mrs. McNaughton had completed her testimony and had just returned to her seat when she fainted. Because of this incident, the judge stopped the trial. On January 11, 1931, Mrs. McNaughton fell on a sidewalk on Boylston st. and received injuries. She claimed a defect in the sidewalk was responsible and made a claim for damages. The Board of Aldermen, on recommendation of the City Solicitor decided the city was not responsible and refused to pay damages. The suit was then instituted.

BASEBALL INTEREST
HIGH—200 BOYS OUT

About 800 boys and girls stayed after school last Tuesday at Newton High School to see the baseball motion picture, "Play Ball!" and to hear and talk with George Moriarty, veteran American League umpire, the creator of the film and author of the dialogue. Introduced by L. P. "Jeff" Jones, head coach of baseball at Newton, as the leading American League umpire, Moriarty proved very popular with the gathering. Whereas he is used to addressing school assemblies, the interest he found at Newton was entirely spontaneous, since the picture was shown after regular school hours.

Outdoor Practice Begins Monday

If anything was needed to bring out the baseball players who were not already enrolled with Coach Jones, apparently it was the visit of George Moriarty with his baseball picture, showing World Series scenes, American League stars, and the big league players in action. In the last few days the list has swelled to 200 names of boys who are eager to make the high school team. With the coming of real spring weather, the season is on in earnest, and Jones will stage his first outdoor batting and fielding practice on Monday. For the time being, outdoor work is restricted to the varsity squad, which includes all seniors and all boys who have previously earned letters on the junior teams.

Although Coach Jones has had small opportunity to size up his battery candidates in the cramped quarters of the drill shed, a number of the boys are already showing to good advantage. Besides Philip "Pete" Morrison, who has had two years of varsity experience, the leading catchers are Palmer and Gammons, seniors, Koffman, Paulini and Packard, juniors, and sophomores Marrazzo, Turner and McHugh. The more promising pitchers to date are Coletti, Amendola and Bosworth; seniors: Goodale, Rice, Herrick, Recheil, Torbensen, and Turner, juniors; and DeMichele, Castoldi, Fitzgerald, Parkhurst, Paul, Bishop, sophomores.

Infielders and Outfielders

Last Wednesday marked the beginning of practice for all candidates besides battery men, who have already been out a week and a half. First basemen are James Byrne, Robert L. Perry, Jack Taylor, seniors; Fred Booth, Donald Connors, John E. Connolly, John Costa, Edward McGrath, Jack Reardon, Graham Simpson, Alton Wadman, and Joseph McKenzie, juniors; John Bishop, Anthony Borghetti, Clarence Cormier, Lincoln Morton, John Jacobs, Neil MacKinnon, John J. Rourke, Jr., Ernest Rowe, Henry Smith, Richard Tenney, Robert Williamson, sophomores. Second basemen are Donald Barsch, John McGough, Michael Piantadosi, seniors; Arthur Andres, John F. Byrne, Albert Cottens, Garrett Fuller, Dana Jones, Joseph Hall, Lothrop King, Frank T. Luizzo, Ted Patton, juniors; and Robert W. Bishop, William T. Owens, Donald Prescott, Hugh B. Rogers, Edgar Romilly, and Wallace Shepardson, sophomores.

Twenty-Eight Shortstops Out

The squad includes 28 shortstops, an increase of 15 over the first reckoning taken. Seniors are Lee Goodbar, John Kelly, Ted Laffie, Bill Spilman; the juniors are Dominic Bartolomucci, Francis Doucette, Albert Jacobson and David Quinn and Stephen Whittlesey; sophomores, Chester A. Colley, Paul Forti, Leonard LeSourd, Paul Macustus, Johnson Thomas and Robert C. White.

Outfielders Number 44

Outfielders—seniors: Frederick W. Ruggs, Jr., Harold Bronsdon, Gus Castoldi, William Cookson, Burton Derow, James Fannington, John Ham, William L. Page, Elliot Rogers, Sylvan Simon, Warren Tomlinson; juniors: Donald B. Burns, Gerard Connolly, William Daniels, Ralph Davenport, Gerard DeNapoli, Paul Dolan, Donald W. Harrington, David S. Imrie, Ralph Keating, Howard Milner, Hugh Munro, James Newcomb, Robert Nichols, John O'Connell, Robert W. Prowten, Ernest Savignano, Arthur Smith, Chandler Walker. Sophomores: Paul R. Brown, Emilio Cassiani, James Cipriano, Tony D'Albano, Angelo Iagulli, Edward Jackson, Bill McConnell, John McManus, Carmen Picarielli, Victor Picarielli, Robert Posner, Henry Quirk, Fred Soule, Elliston Whitmore, Willard Heni.

Newton Ctr. Man
Resists Police,
Gets 4 Months

Daniel A. Horan of 161 Summer street, Newton Centre was sentenced by Judge Bacon in the Newton court on Tuesday to serve four months in Middlesex County prison. Two months of the sentence was for assault on a police officer, one month for drunkenness and one month for disturbing the peace. Patrolman John Green testified that on Monday evening he observed Horan using abusive and profane language to a woman who was backing an automobile from a parking space near the Newton Centre Woman's Club. When he placed Horan under arrest the latter resisted and was giving Green quite a struggle until Patrolman Monahan came to Green's assistance. Horan told the judge that Green had struck him while he was being placed in a cell, but Green denied this charge, saying that he had not gone with the prisoner to police headquarters.

Newton Highlights

Ernie MacLeod, the firebrand of the G. B. I. S. Hockey League, has been elected captain of the 1935-6 Newton High team. The second highest scorer in the league, the dynamic right wing combined with Captain Gus Castoldi time after time to tie and win games, offsetting the team's lack of experience and placing Newton near the top in the standing.

The varsity basketball team men had their huddle yesterday to pick a captain and they chose Allen Smith, brilliant forward and high scorer of this year's fine team. Smitty is a "natural" on the basketball court, a smarter forward than any he played against this year. He scored 111 points in nine games, more than one-third of the team total of 297 for thirteen games.

Volleyball, the pastime that subordinates individual effort to team play more than almost any other sport, is blossoming into the interscholastic field. Last Friday the Newton High sophomores tied 4-4 with Brookline at Newtonville, and on Monday the juniors took all seven games from the Brookline juniors in the match played at the Brookline gym.

Just as his two star hockey players, MacLeod and Castoldi, were being accorded all-scholastic honors by various newspapers, Doctor Martin put a real crimp in the all-scholastic idea. When asked for his ballot in the annual election made by league coaches, the Newton coach and head of the hockey league refused to vote, saying that such elections were unfair to the boys.

Spring is here! Officially it arrived yesterday morning at 8:13, but the posts and nets have been set up on the hard courts at the F. A. Day Junior High for almost a week now, and tennis is with us again.

Joe Nolan, popular amateur boxer in the 126 lb. class, a student at Newton High, is still hors d'combat in the strictly literal sense as a result of breaking a knuckle in a bout at the Boston Arena on March 4. No report has been received regarding the rib or jaw against which the Nolan knuckle was broken.

The welcome accorded George Moriarty and his baseball picture at Newton prompted the popular visitor to say he would like to return some time with his seven-reel picture, a film which treats baseball in more detail than the three-reel shown last Tuesday. Incidentally Moriarty is one of the best known characters in professional baseball, having won the title of leading umpire of the American League by vote of the players last year.

Y. M. C. A.

"Y" State Senior Class Basketball
Newton Y. M. C. A.'s team in the "Y" State Senior Class Basketball Championship qualified for the final game by defeating Salem "Y" 67 to 15 in the preliminary round, and Lynn "Y" 41 to 34, in games played Saturday at Worcester Y. M. C. A. The final game will be played also at Worcester, with Lowell "Y".

Newton's team, the Celtics, which won the local league championship is composed of Nick Colantonio captain, John Trumble, Donald Skauen, Clayton and Ivan Hoyt, John Burke, and Walter MacDonald.

Volley Ball

The Business Men's Volley Ball team of the Newton Y. M. C. A. defeated Lynn "Y" 3-0 in a match played Saturday afternoon on the Newton floor.

This Saturday afternoon the team is playing in a Class "B" tournament at the Boston "Y". Twelve teams including Newton have entered this affair. They are Boston, Marblehead, Worcester, Wakefield, Malden, Melrose, Woburn, Pittsfield, Newport, and Northampton Y. M. C. A.'s, and Brockton Y. M. H. A.

Athletic Contest

Fifty-two Senior members competed in the 1000 Point Athletic Contest just finished at the Newton Y. M. C. A.

The contest was a series of ten track and field events, one event being held each week. The events were: 300-yard Dash, 12-lb. Shot Put, 600-yard Run, Running High Jump, 1000-yard Run, 4 Potato Race, Standing Broad Jump, 1000-yard Dash, 8 Potato Race, 3 Standing Broad Jumps.

Thirteen qualified for the Newton "Y" emblem. They are: Art Linthwaite, 774 points; Nick Colantonio, 763 points; Clayton Hoyt, 732 points; John K. Morris, 661 points; Ed Hammond, 661 points; Ivan Hoyt, 621 points; Kenneth Scanlon, 572 points; Elmer Jacobs, 538 points; Walter MacDonald, 537 points; Gus Erbe, 531 points; Tom O'Connor, 524 points; Tony Lochiatti, 514 points; Kenneth Bourne, 508 points. First, second, and third place medals were won by Art Linthwaite, Nick Colantonio, and Clayton Hoyt.

Collegian Basketeers to Play at "Y"

The Newton Y. M. C. A. offers a special attraction in basketball when a group of college and former local high school basketball players band together to exhibit their abilities at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday evening. Another group of talented and versatile ball players will show between the halves of the main attraction when the Newton High School Independents play the Newton Ramblers.

The Collegians, led by Charlie Gallagher, present Providence College and former high scoring star of the Catholic League, will team up at forward with Everett Gallant of Boston College, former high scorer of the Catholic League, and a present member of the strong Paul and Eaton Club of Waltham. Leo Cannon of Holy Cross, well known for his athletic abilities hereabouts, will hold down the center berth; "Junie" Joyce and John Trahey of Providence College will do their share at forward and guard positions; Bill Lansed, known for his baseball abilities, is a first-rate court game expert and is sure to figure in the scoring. Lansed starred at St. Charles High last year and played with the Y. M. C. A. Junior team which won the championships in 1930-31, later playing an important role on the "Y" Senior teams.

Opposing the Collegians, the Senior Y. M. C. A. team also boasts of a group of stars including Nate Dolbier, a "Y" player for 5 years. Dolbier, Gordon Bass, Y. M. C. A. and former Newton High School star, "Wild" Bill McCall, versatile Dartmouth star, and Umberto Marino, Catholic star, are all forwards who will bear watching. "Andy" Kasper, Y. M. C. A. player for eight years and former Watertown High star, Joe McCarthy of the Catholic League, and Arthur Kohler of Y. M. C. A. and Waltham Church League and Independent team fame, will look after the center position. Beverly Wilson, former Springfield High and Connecticut State basketball captain and all-around star, "Ben" Kohler of the Cambridge "Y" Champions, and Ray Clarke, a "Y" player of note, will handle the guard assignments.

The preliminary game is attracting a great deal of interest as the city Independent Junior Championship game, the N. H. S. Independent, boasting such stars as Al Smith and Ted Laffie at forward, "Bullet" Byrne at center, and Ellis Donovan and Philip Morrison at guard have made an enviable record during the past season.

Opposing this fine team is the Ramblers with an impressive list of players. Harney, Doherty, Gallagher, and Fitzgerald will play at the forward posts, O'Neill, and Morris at center and Mullen, Barrett and McLean guards.

Newton Boys Receive Fessenden Hockey Awards

At the closing exercises of the winter term at the Fessenden School several Newton boys received their Fs for hockey. The boys so honored were John Lodge, Harry Noyes, Bruce Sears and John VanArsdale.

Richard VanArsdale took the part of Mademoiselle de la Garandiere, in Anatole's France's comedy, "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife," which was given on March 3rd, at the Fessenden School in West Newton.

Faculty of Day Junior High School Presents Play

This afternoon and evening, the faculty of the Frank A. Day Junior High School of Newtonville will give two performances of "Creaking Floors," a mystery melodrama, by Richard Whorf. The first performance is in the afternoon at three and primarily for the pupils of the school; the evening show is for the general public. The proceeds from the play will be used for the School's General Fund.

The following faculty members comprise the cast: Warren E. Blue, Edward Tanner, Lois Gibson, Ralph Morse, John Dearth, Jerry Angino, Aldeen Reed, Helen Spielman, S. Everett Pollard, Frank Tanner.

The play has for its setting the Old Meeting House in North Truro. Persons familiar with Cape Cod know well this church which, although it is several miles from the main road, is nevertheless a famous landmark at which many a fishing smack has gratefully pointed its prow as it rounded the bend at Provincetown after a hazardous trip in from the Georges Banks. Dating back to Revolutionary days and standing high and alone on the barren Truro hills, the ramshackled unused structure makes an ideal background for a modern mystery. It is a mystery in itself and many a curious prowler has wondered how he might slip in at some unguarded place to visit the high interior.

This play was first produced at the well known Whorf Players Theatre in the summer of 1928. Its author is the brother of the artist, John Whorf, and as a writer is well versed in the old stories and mysteries of the Cape. The cast of the Day School, under the sympathetic directorship of Ernestine Wright, has worked hard to retain the original atmosphere of the piece, and a pleasantly exciting evening is promised.

Attempted Burglary Foiled by Lighting

The value of floodlighting as a home protection was never better illustrated than during an attempted break a few weeks ago at the residence of Leavitt L. Edgar, 1415 Commonwealth avenue, West Newton. Mr. Edgar, who is a vice-president of the Edison Company of Boston, had a simple flood lighting installation made six years ago when he took the residence, which, although not isolated, is set back from the road amid trees and shrubbery.

A nearby residence had five oriental rugs valued at several thousand dollars, stolen the same night of the attempted break at the Edgar home. Members of the Edgar household were awakened by the marauders' attempts to force an entrance by jimmying a rear door.

The floodlighting consisting of four 100-watt units installed to reflect on all four corners of the house and adjacent grounds, was immediately switched on from an upstairs chamber, scaring the intruders away.

The lighting is controlled from three locations—garage, downstairs hall and second floor bedroom. Thus, in addition to its protective value in warding off burglars, it is used to light the grounds and driveways for members of the household and guests approaching or leaving via automobile; also as a decoy attraction for pestiferous insects during the season when terrace sitting is popular.

According to Mr. Edgar, the utility of such lighting invites widespread consideration on the part of home owners because of the low installation and operating costs, factors which he considers negligible in comparison to possible loss from burglary.

Pupils' Recital By All Newton Music School

A pupils' recital was held at the All Newton Music School, on Friday evening, March 15th. The program, consisting of piano, violin, and cello solos as well as interesting trio and ensemble numbers, was presented by pupils from the Intermediate Grades of the Chaffin Branch.

A feature that added greatly to the interest of the program was a demonstration given by pupils from the Solfege and Pre-Instrumental Classes under the inspiring direction of Miss Ruth Crandell, teacher of the groups. As always this demonstration showing various phases of the invaluable training given in theory and closing with numbers by the Rhythm Band, delighted an appreciative audience which gave the children spontaneous and hearty applause.

Pupils of the Senior Department of both branches of the Music School will give a recital at the Central Congregational Church, Newtonville, on Friday evening, April 5th. The public is cordially invited to all concerts and recitals of the school.

To Study Problems of Welfare In Newton

At the March meeting of the Directors of the Newton Welfare Bureau there was set in motion a study over a four months' period of the problems presented by persons asking assistance. The object is to arrive at the most effective form of assistance. One outstanding need recognized is that of increasing recreational facilities for young women comparable to that now provided for young men at the Y. M. C. A.

Executives of the fourteen Welfare organizations, members of the Newton Community Chest, Inc., at a meeting held at the Girl Scouts Headquarters Wednesday, chose Miss Harriet L. Parsons, Chairman, and Miss Helen Sandstrom, Secretary, for 1935.

Miss Parsons is the General Secretary of the Newton Welfare Bureau, and Miss Sandstrom is the Director of the Stearns School Centre. The chairman represents the combined organizations in the affairs of the Community Chest.

Health and Welfare activities in the city were thrown into perspective at a luncheon meeting of the division of the Newton Federation of Social Agencies representing these interests held at Vernon Court last week.

A report on the Health organizations was given by Miss Charlotte Raymond, Nutrition worker of the Newton Red Cross. Miss Harriet Parsons, General Secretary of the Newton Welfare Bureau, reported on the Public and private Welfare set-up, and Mrs. A. H. Shannon, Chairman of the Public Health Committee, Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, described the health and welfare work done by service organizations, Women's Club, churches, and the Junior and Senior Circles of the Florence Crittenton League.

There were thirty-six persons present including Mr. James P. Reynolds, new Director of the Department of Public Welfare; Mr. F. Ewing Wilson, Director of Health, Newton Schools; Mr. Lyscom Bruce, Boy Scouts; Miss Bertha Allen, Newton Hospital; Mrs. J. Earle Parker, Newton Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. F. H. Fowle, West Newton Women's Educational Club; Mr. Arthur McCarthy, American Legion; Miss Hilga Nelson, Newton District Nursing Association; Mrs. Maynard Hutchinson, Newton Hospital Aid.

American War Mothers To Meet on Tuesday

An important business and social meeting of "The American War Mothers" will be held on Tuesday, March 26th, at one o'clock at the home of the National Chairman of Legislation, Mrs. Corabelle G. Francis, 49 Pembroke street, Newton. All mothers of men or women who served in the world war are invited to attend and enroll with this great national organization. Plans are to be made for delegates for the State Convention which is to be held at Fall River in April.

Kiwanis Club

A very interesting talk was given to the members of the Newton Kiwanis Club last Tuesday by Mr. Hubert M. Canning, Director and Chief Traffic Engineer Highway Traffic Research Bureau of Massachusetts. With his talk he used motion pictures showing some of the accidents which happen daily in the Commonwealth from reckless driving and accidents caused by drivers who are selfish enough to think they are the only drivers on the road.

Some very interesting figures were given and statistics figures show that high school and college boys commit all sorts of traffic trouble in order to give some young lady friend a thrill in fast driving. The greatest number of fatalities on the road are caused by men between 20 and 30 years of age. Last year in Massachusetts there were 921 killed, 53,955 injured, 43,575 accidents involving 65,976 cars, with an estimate of over seventeen millions of dollars damage to life injury and property damage. Much of this could be saved by putting a larger force of state police on the highways. As it is now with some two hundred employees in this department only fifty state highway patrolmen are on the roads covering an average of 30 miles per day in some sections.

Newton ranks sixth in the state from the least amount of accidents, Haverhill standing first in this respect.

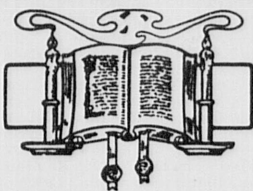

Bundle Day was featured last Tuesday when more than fifty packages of clothing, shoes and stockings were given by the members of the Newton Club.

West Newton Church Club Plans Fashion Show

The "As We Like It" Club of the Second Church of West Newton is sponsoring a Spring Fashion show on the 26th of March at 8 p. m. o'clock at the Parish House. It will be held on the regular club meeting night and will be open to the public as well as club members and their friends. The Second Church Parish House is directly opposite the West Newton Railway Station.

Nash-Lafayette Sales Increase

Shipments of Nash and LaFayette motor cars during January and February of this year showed an increase of 152.5% over the same period in 1934, according to a statement released here today by C. H. Bliss, Vice President and director of sales of the Nash Motor Company.

NORUMBEGA DISTRICT COUNCIL OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Annual District Convention will take place on Tuesday, April 2, at the Newton Methodist Church, Centre st., Newton. Mr. D. Franklin Mack and Miss Ruth Seabury are to speak for this occasion. Supper will be served by the ladies of the church.

Special interest has developed recently among the church school workers of this District who are heads of departments. Mrs. Sidney B. Thomas of West Newton opened her home for a tea last Friday afternoon, at which time fifty-six persons met to talk over the possibility of a club or organization for all the teachers of children in the church schools of the Norumbega District. Miss Alice M. Nelson, who has been teaching at Newtonville and Waltham in the training schools for the District, presided and explained the purpose of the tea. A nominating committee consisting of Miss Doris Lovell, chairman, Mrs. Norman Wade, Mrs. T. M. Dowell, Mrs. Leon M. Gay, Mrs. Henry W. Webster and Miss Margaret Bascom was appointed. Much enthusiasm for the project developed and it is expected that much mutual uplift and exchange of ideas will come from this new effort.

Newton District Nursing Association Meets

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Newton District Nursing Association was held at the headquarters on Monday, March 11 at 10:00 o'clock. Mrs. Louis Arnold, president, presided.

Miss Hilga Nelson, executive director, reported a total of 579 patients during February of this year against 425 of February, 1934. Due to the increased staff (4 E. R. A. nurses) there were made possible 1444 visits as against 1314 in February, 1934.

At the conclusion of the business meeting Mrs. Arnold announced that the education program would be in charge of the Relationship Study Group. The chairman is Mrs. Louis Marshall of Newton Highlands and working with her are Mrs. John F. Brown, Jr. of Auburndale, Mrs. Horatio Rogers of Newton Centre, Mrs. Howard Converse of Auburndale, and Mrs. Benjamin Rae of West Newton.

Mrs. Marshall gave a most detailed and specific report on the functions of the Health and Welfare organizations of Newton.

Mrs. Brown reported on the aspect of the medical profession in relation to the District Nursing Association.

Rotary Club

The Newton Rotary Club and a large number of guests enjoyed a fine buffet luncheon served by Soller at the Bachrach plant, 44 Hunt st., on the fourth floor of the large building, last Monday. A. Norman Needy, general superintendent of Bachrach, Inc., and a member of the Newton club presided and introduced Louis Fabian Bachrach who is a member of the Boston Rotary Club and a resident of West Newton. Mr. Bachrach explained briefly the extent of the largest photographic establishment of its kind in the world and some of the methods used. The company was then divided into groups and under the competent guidance of various heads of departments a tour was made of the whole plant. The Rotarians and their friends found the various processes used of great interest. They found that though many ladies seemingly take great delight in plucking their eye-brows, they are glad to have them restored when their pictures are taken. A considerable number visited the smaller building before leaving where they saw the interesting collection of the photographs of notables with their autographs.

Newton Professors Receive Promotion at Northeastern

Two Newton residents have received promotions on the faculty at Northeastern University. Dr. Wilfred S. Lake, associate professor of Economics, will receive a full professorship and will become dean of instruction in the school of Business Administration on Sept. 1st. Dr. Karl F. Muckenhoupt, assistant professor of electrical engineering, will become professor of Physics in the new school of arts and sciences next Sept. 1st.

Dr. Lake, who lives at 55 Ripley st., Newton Centre, graduated from Hiram College, Ohio, in 1924, receiving his A.B. Harvard College granted him the M.A. degree in 1928, and his Ph.D. in 1932. Dr. Lake joined the Northeastern University faculty as an instructor in 1926, was made an assistant professor in 1929, and associate professor of Economics in 1932.

Dr. Muckenhoupt, who lives at 332 Winchester st., Newton Highlands, graduated cum laude from Williams College in 1922, where he was a Phi Beta Kappa member. M. I. T. awarded him his B.S. in 1924 and his Ph.D. in 1929. Dr. Muckenhoupt joined the Northeastern faculty in 1929. Newton Ladies Interested In Play For Children

Many Newton ladies are interested in the forthcoming presentation of "Under the Lilacs" to be given Saturday morning and afternoon at the Repertory Theatre, Boston, under the auspices of the Boston University Women's Council.

The story of Ben, the runaway circus boy, and his adventures with his trick dog Sancha, is primarily a boys' story, but because girls are just as fond of circus stories and trained dogs as boys, they enjoy it, too.

Subscribers from Newton include: Mrs. Lucius Thayer, Mrs. Fred T. Field, Mrs. Henry I. Harriman, Mrs. Peter Coines, Mrs. William T. Rich, Mrs. Howard M. LeSourd, Mrs. Richard H. Smith, Miss Barbara Emerson, Mrs. Edward Ingraham, Mrs. John L. Deering, Mrs. Ashbury H. Herrick, Mrs. T. F. Dorsey and Mrs. M. W. Dennison; from Newton Centre, E. S. Brightman, Mrs. A. C. Burnham, Mrs. E. M. Bourque and Mrs. Metcalf W. Melcher; from West Newton, Mrs. Ethel P. Coty and Mrs. William A. Gallup; from Newtonville, Mrs. A. M. Tucker, Miss Gertrude Hiscock and Mrs. Ernest P. Rallsback.

Newton girls selling candy at the play are Dorothea, Doris and Roberta Ambrose, assisted by Mildred and Ruth Baird and Martha O'Neil of Auburndale.

Community Playhouse At Wellesley Showing "Sequoia"

Directly upon the closing of its outstandingly successful nine-day engagement of "Man of Aran" and "The Iron Duke," the Community Playhouse, Wellesley Hills theatre, has offered "Sequoia" and Joe E. Brown in "The Circus Clown," a combination of features which promises to be hardly less popular. "Sequoia" has received a generous share of well merited praise. Time Magazine named it "a candidate for one of 1935's ten best." It is a story of wild life filmed in Sequoia National Park and, though it falls in the category of nature films, it definitely has appeal to everyone. The Joe E. Brown picture accompanying it and a Mickey Mouse complete a thoroughly entertaining program.

Next week "David Copperfield" comes to the Playhouse. It has been wholeheartedly applauded by even the most rabid critics and we have yet to find a dissenting vote among any who have been it. The director and producer of "Little Women" are similarly responsible, to a large measure for the success of "David Copperfield." Hugh Walpole, renowned English writer and an avid Dickens' student, shares responsibility for the splendid adaptation and acted during production, in an advisory capacity. Exceedingly fine individual performances, by the important, intelligently selected cast are effectively lost in the magnitude of the production as a whole. "David Copperfield" is the screen's finest example of the translation of a literary classic.

WELFARE COSTS INCREASING

The protest of Mayor Weeks against an increased cost in the price of milk furnished to welfare recipients is one which should have the support of all. It is indicative of increases which will no doubt come in other commodities. Such increases mean one of two things. Either distribution of the product must be reduced or more funds allotted for the purchase of the same amount of goods. A reduction in the amount of milk, or other food products, to those who are in need will be extremely unfortunate. It may mean permanent harm. One of the most disturbing factors attending times of depression is the effect of undernourishment of children. Such effects are not prominent at the moment but appear ten or more years later in a marked increase in various diseases. It is a danger against which every barrier of protection must be raised. On the other hand we must continue to keep the costs of welfare within bounds to prevent the further increase of an already heavy burden upon the taxpayers to the extent where it becomes impossible to meet the situation.

ANOTHER VETERAN EMPLOYEE RESIGNS

Announcement is made of the retirement of City Engineer Morse. The resignation of this veteran employee will take effect shortly or upon the later appointment of his successor. Mr. Morse entered the employ of the engineering department more than fifty years ago. He has seen Newton grow. He has seen and had a part in the laying out of many miles of new streets, new drains, new sewers, new parks, new playgrounds, and other developments. Upon the retirement of the late City Engineer Edwin F. Rogers some eleven years ago Mr. Morse became the head of the department. Starting at the bottom as a rod-man he earned his way to the top. The city has reason to be grateful for the services of Mr. Morse and his retirement will be accepted with much regret.

A LITTLE BIT OF EVERYTHING

It is rather interesting to read the reports of happenings in the various legislatures of other states. In Maine a state lottery seems to be in process of adoption to provide old age pensions. In Georgia the race track question has been tabled after lengthy debate. In California considerable time was spent over the question of the length of a freight train. And in Massachusetts many hours were spent debating as to the giving away of electric light bulbs. Is it any wonder that legislative bodies everywhere have fallen in the estimation of the public?

OUR NEW CITY PHYSICIAN

The recent appointment of Dr. Alvah C. Cummings as city physician has, we believe, met with universal approval throughout the city. The new appointee takes over the duties of former City Physician Fred M. Lowe who for many years filled the office with great respect and admiration of all. Having known Dr. Cummings for twenty-five years or more we are confident that he will bring to his new duties a continuation of the humane qualities which the office requires.

SPRING IS HERE AGAIN

Spring arrived officially yesterday morning. While it was anything but a spring-like day we can at least look forward with considerable assurance that prolonged wintry spells are over. It will not be many days before signs of spring are everywhere and with it will come that feeling of renewed vigor, renewed optimism and renewed faith.

CLARENCE C. COLBY

By F. F. MEYER

Clarence C. Colby was born in Boston, Massachusetts, June 9, 1879, the youngest son of George W. Colby and Florence I. (Partridge) Colby. He is descended from old New England families, his ancestors on both sides having settled in eastern Massachusetts prior to 1650.

His education began at the age of four and continued for twenty-five years. During this period he graduated from the Dwight Grammar School in Boston, in 1894; the Roxbury Latin School in 1898; Harvard Law School in 1902; and the Harvard College and Law School courses he taught for three years at Pomfret, Connecticut, Englewood, New Jersey, and Tarrytown, New York, and in 1902 founded the Pine Island Camp at Belgrade Lakes, Maine, one of the oldest and best known of the boys' summer camps.

He was admitted to the Massachusetts bar and began his law practice in Boston in 1908. Two years later he became a member of the law firm of Foster and Colby, afterwards Foster, Colby, Pfromm & Moulton. In the course of his practice he became Clerk of the Samson Electric Co. of Canton, Massachusetts, one of the old time manufacturers of electrical specialties and upon a reorganization in 1916 became President, which office he held for seventeen years.

The World War broke up the law partnership, two of the partners entering the service, and Mr. Colby retiring to devote his entire time to business. During the war this concern under Mr. Colby's leadership took an active part in co-operation with the United States Chemical Warfare Service, in the development of the electrical precipitator, necessary for use in connection with Gas Masks, for protection against the new gas which was developed by the United States in 1918.

Shortly after the close of the war Radio broadcasting broke suddenly over the country, and Mr. Colby and his company entered this field and became widely known. In the Radio Manufacturers Association, the national organization of this industry, he served four years as Director, two years as Chairman of the Patent Committee, two years as Chairman of the Legislative Committee, and in 1927-8 became the president of the Association, at a time when the annual sales of the industry exceeded 500 millions of dollars.

In 1933, Mr. Colby returned to his Law Practice and became a member of the law firm of Eaton, Blakemore, Russell & Colby, this firm containing the surviving members of two of the old law firms of Boston, Hamilton & Eaton, later Hamilton, Eaton & Blakemore, and Russell, Moore & Russell.

Mr. Colby has been married twice, both times to Newton girls; in 1910 he married Nellie H. Hopewell, daughter of the late John Hopewell. There were two daughters by this marriage, Beatrice, who graduated from Smith College in 1933, and Elizabeth now a sophomore there. His first wife died in 1920. A year and a half later he married Beatrice M. Lowell, daughter of Payson T. Lowell of Newton Highlands. They have three daughters, Constance 12, Janet 7 and Barbara 6.

He has been a member of the Hunnewell Club of Newton since 1910 and active in its affairs for many years. He is a member of the Brae Burn Country Club of West Newton, and was formerly the Secretary of the Newton Republican City Committee. He was elected to the vestry of Grace Episcopal Church of Newton in 1931 which office he now holds.

His summer residence is at Englewood Beach, West Yarmouth, Massachusetts, where he is active in the local improvement association, and is secretary of the local Yacht Club. His Newton home is at 31 Farlow road where he has lived since 1916.

ONE THING... AND ANOTHER

Hard Luck Week

Those of us who are without autos of our own and who have waited and waited in Nonantum Square for a Watertown-bound car to take us to Cambridge—what may we do? Why not try the system of travel that prevails in many parts of the country, particularly the West. We could then advertise a week ahead for a seat in a car belonging to somebody who happens to be driving that day from Newton to Cambridge and offer to pay for half the gasoline or whatever the customary agreement.

From an old friend who has forsaken his native Brookline to live the rest of his life abroad I have received an invitation to spend some weeks at his establishment at Dinard on the coast of Brittany. Read this and pity me because I cannot hop the next (or any) boat. He says: "Due to the Gulf Stream, we have had a marvelous winter. Although snow has fallen in the south of France, in Spain, Corsica, Algiers and Morocco, we have had none. Flowers have been blooming all the while. We have had violets and roses and salad stuffs and the Mimosa tree is radiant. The public parks have pansies, gladioli and other plants in full bloom."

Too Much Expected

"One of the worst features of the election system is that tired people are the ones that count the ballots."

These words, spoken by a learned teacher of civic government, made me think and think hard. Here was something that had occurred to me many times although I had accepted it as something that couldn't be helped. But isn't it true?

Men and women precinct officers are on hand when the polls open early in the morning and there they remain until closing time—8 p. m., let's say. That's when the public sees the last of them. However, their duties haven't been completed. No, indeed! After grating off a ham sandwich, a piece of apple pie and several swallows of coffee from a paper cup, they must turn to the more important part of their task and count ballots. Ballots to right of them and ballots to the left of them. Crosses here and crosses there and sometimes crosses any old place.

How should we expect them to keep it up until the next morning and not make mistakes. It's a matter of physical endurance and the question of compensation, meagre enough, doesn't enter for no matter how much is paid there is a limit to the continuous work a human being may perform.

Fully aware that many are awaiting the results these men and women must count and count accurately. Not only that but they must work speedily. At least that is what is demanded of them. But some cities, I find, have found that postponing the counting until next day has proved not only efficient but beneficial. Fewer, if any mistakes, I have not any first-hand knowledge of the new system but I believe the present one should be changed in some way. I cannot convince myself that people who have been on their feet all day, checking lists and handing-out ballots, should be expected to plunge into the far more difficult job of completing the returns when they ought to go to bed and rest from their labors. And I'm not interested in the manufacture or sale of voting machines.

"Mister Postmaster—"

Seems to me it would be more to the point if our leading politicians in the dominant party concerned themselves about the disintegrating mail service rather than the selection of a new postmaster for the Boston Postal District. Everything in the line appears to have become largely political, which may or may not be a new situation. As to the past, politicians may have been equally active in the "good days" but the service, at least, was not as forlorn.

Only this week I learned of the fortunes of a letter mailed at Newton Corner to an address in the same village, not more than a mile away. The letter was collected at a street box on Sunday night, taken to Boston.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Matter" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 24.

The Golden Text is: "Woe unto him that saith to the wood, Awake! to the dumb stone, Arise! it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it" (Habbakkuk 2:19).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "When he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him. And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed" (Matthew 8:1-3).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The theology of Christian Science includes healing the sick. Our Master's first article of faith propounded to his students was healing, and he proved his faith by his works. The ancient Christians were healers. Why has this element of Christianity been lost? Because our systems of religion are governed more or less by our systems of medicine. The first by the dumb stone, the second by the schools have rendered faith in drugs the fashion, rather than faith in Deity. By trusting matter to destroy its own discord, health and harmony have been sacrificed" (p. 145).

patrolled to lessen reckless driving. And it wasn't consistent for the Governor to permit his State Police chauffeur to follow the Newton police car at such a terrific pace in view of his denunciations of speeding and reckless driving by autoists in Massachusetts and his appeals to autoists to co-operate in saner driving. Neither was it courteous to the Governor to escort him through this city at a mile-a-minute speed. One might draw the conclusion that the people of Newton were to be prevented from having an opportunity to see him.

Remember that in the future householders in Newton must place ashes only in one barrel for collection, and all other forms of refuse and rubbish in another barrel. Even glass, earthenware and tin cans are regarded as combustible and must be placed in receptacles with paper and types of rubbish that really burn. And don't use wooden barrels or boxes for your combustible waste. To do this will invite fires and trouble with the authorities.

There was plenty of dirt excavated in building the East Boston vehicular tunnel. There is plenty of dirt coming to the surface in the revelations concerning the land and property takings in connection with this tunnel. And Eugene Hultman is accused of moral turpitude because he allegedly took some bootleg alcohol. Wouldn't it be nice to have Newton annexed to Boston?

Boston newspapers are making so much ado over an ordinance recently passed by the Cambridge City Council penalizing persons who disturb the peace in that city by unreasonable use of radios during late night hours, that one would suppose the Cambridge City Government has started something. Newton has had an ordinance for several years restricting the use of radios after midnight.

The Newton License Commission is to be commended for continuing the policy adopted by the Newton Board of Aldermen in past years in refusing to grant a common victual license to the Woolworth 5 and 10 Cent Store at Newton or to drug stores. Common victual licenses should be granted only to lunch rooms whose principal business is the serving of food. God knows chain drug stores and such chains as Woolworth's have encroached in enough lines of business without permitting them to add the restaurant business to their activities.

News items in Boston newspapers on Wednesday telling that a Newton police car escorted Governor Curley's official car on Tuesday night from the Newton-Brighton line to the State Armory in West Newton, a distance of three miles, in three minutes did not produce favorable reactions in this city or elsewhere. What a fine example for police to set on a thoroughfare which has been correctly referred to as a race track, where a number of persons have been fatally injured by automobiles, where many autoists have been apprehended for speeding, and which is not properly

Paramount Theatre Showing "Clive of India"

"Clive of India" with Ronald Colman and Loretta Young will be the feature picture at the Paramount Theatre, Newton, beginning Sunday for four days. The story which traces the rise of a 25 year clerk in India to the conqueror of a nation stresses the private life of England's greatest hero and the part his lovely wife played in his triumphs and defeats. C. Aubrey Smith and Wyndham Standing take care of the supporting roles. On the same program will be seen Gloria Stuart and Ross Alexander in "Maybe It's Love." The story is one of unusual romance and the theme so human and modern every young couple will recognize some of their own problems in it.

For the last half of the week starting Thursday "Rumba" will be the feature with George Raft and Carole Lombard. On the same program will be a hilarious comedy "The Winning Ticket" with Leo Carrillo and Louise Fazenda. Ted Healy, famous stage and screen comedian plays a very important part. It is a story of an Italian barber who wins a large sum of money on the Irish Sweepstakes and the complications that get into before getting their money. It is one of the best and cleanest comedies ever turned out in Hollywood.

The Vaudeville last Saturday evening turned out to be a welcome guest to Newton patrons for they turned out to capacity to see the vaudeville and hear Charlie Frank and his orchestra.

This will be a Saturday Evening special feature for some time to come. On Thursday evening the Paramount Theatre conducts a Radio Audition night or what is better explained as an opportunity night for young people who are inclined to entertain such as singing, playing of various instruments, reciting etc. The contest is open to anyone having these qualifications. Enrollments are now being made with the management of the theatre. The winners each week are sent to WAAB in Boston for a broadcast every Monday evening and later are given an opportunity to contest for a week's engagement at the Metropolitan Theatre at an attractive salary.

County Taxes Discussed By Women Voters

W. C. T. U.

The Newton League of Women Voters, a branch of the Boston League, held the third meeting of its study group on Taxation at the house of Mrs. Walter Hartstone, 950 Centre street, Newton Centre, on Monday morning, March 18th. The announcement that Mrs. True Worthy White was to speak was responsible for an attendance which taxed the capacity of the large assembly room.

Mrs. White's subject was County Problems. In her brief historical introduction she pointed out how the county idea developed from that of the English county as an administrative and judicial unit and how its administrative functions decreased in New England as the towns gradually took over these responsibilities. We now look to our counties for administration of care of the poor and other legal papers and for certain minor services. In addition they have taken on various social duties, chiefly aid and advice in agriculture and hospital care for tubercular patients.

The county is governed by three county commissioners who divide between them the duties that in a city fall upon a mayor. No one of them is chief and no one therefore can be held responsible for any action. Moreover the composition of the board changes, as a new commissioner is elected once in every four years. There is no civil service requirements and until recently the commissioners have been able to appoint at their pleasure and fix such salaries as they considered desirable. Such opportunities for extravagance and favoritism could not be overlooked and in 1930 a personnel board was established consisting of three county commissioners from three sections of the state to set up, after consultation with a state official, standards of personnel and to equalize salaries. Improvements are gradually being effected by this means.

In spite of this improvement neither the state nor the municipalities have control over the counties. County officials are elected infrequently and their dealings are rather with town officers than with non-official citizens. For both reasons county government commands little interest and there is reason for the judgment of John Fliske that the county is the dark corner of American politics.

Under these circumstances it is not surprising that there has long been an undecurrent of opposition to the county—a belief not only that it is unwieldy and expensive but that its irresponsible political influence is a sinister element in public life and that it should be abolished. One of our Boston dailies has a special editor whose duty it is to seek out and bring together all items which suggest the need of county abolition.

An argument for retaining county government is that certain questions, as of dams, bridges or highways, may affect two or more towns and that a person familiar with the local situation is likely to have a better judgment than one more remote. On the other hand a local person may be perhaps unconsciously influenced by favoritism especially if he or his friends would benefit more by one decision than by the other.

The cost of the present plan is an argument for some modification. The county warrant for Newton for 1934 was $215,879.55. If the counties cannot at once be abolished cannot some consolidation be effected? The beginning of such a consolidation is already with us. We have fourteen counties in Massachusetts but there are only eight district attorneys. Thus Barnstable, Bristol, Dukes and Nantucket counties form one district for the election of a district attorney; Norfolk and Plymouth form another, and so on. In the same way Dukes and Nantucket together have a single board of county commissioners.

Are there not some activities now carried on by both state and counties which might as well be discharged by the state alone? Agricultural aid, for example, is financed in small part by the Federal government but in 1933 the county bill was a few cents over $38,586.00. The state appropriation for agricultural aid are not now available. It is hoped to secure them before the next meeting of the group.

The next meeting of the study group will take place on Monday, March 25th, at 10:15, at the house of Mrs. Walter Hartstone, 950 Centre street, Newton Centre. The leader will be Dr. Mary A. Wilcox, Professor emerita, Wellesley College. The subject, State Taxes, including the Sales Tax.

Public Forums Being Held

The Public Forums being conducted under the auspices of the Newton School Departments are growing in interest and attendance. At the Davis School, Waltham st., West Newton, the forum will meet Wednesday evenings at seven o'clock. At the next session the subject will be "Communism in America." The following week the topic will be "Is Dictatorship Necessary?"

A similar program will be followed at the Stearns School, Jasset st., Newton, on Monday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30. These public forums are open to all residents of Newton and anyone can attend at any time regardless of whether they have registered for the course. There is no fee or any other charge connected with these meetings. The entire cost is borne by the ERA in conjunction with the Newton School Department. Questions and discussions from the floor form an interesting part of all the sessions. Anyone who is concerned about our present conditions and who hopes that a full discussion will bring out more truth about them is urged to attend these forum meetings and take part in the discussion.

Letters To The Editor

BILLBOARDS IN NEWTON

To the Editor:

Those who have for years tried to secure some regulation of billboards in the City of Newton may be heartened by the action of the Town of Wellesley in their town meeting this week in passing regulations for these structures.

Many persons have asked me personally why the city did not do something about the intrusion of such into our home city. My answer has been that the matter was before the courts and we were held in check until such decision had been rendered.

Wellesley is the first to take action upon the recent decision that towns and cities have the right to maintain local control of outdoor signs regardless of any changes in the state law or state regulations. The right was upheld in the same decision in which Chief Justice Arthur P. Rugg supported the right of the state department of public buildings to regulate bill boards along state highways.

We who have lived in Newton and know its beauty and its home atmosphere, have hoped for a long time that it would be possible to secure such action in Newton as has been taken by Wellesley. I trust those who have lost heart in the past will begin anew and take courage for the preservation of Newton as a city of homes. Concomitant action of the various community centers of Newton should be made so that the officials will know that it is the desire to have this regulation adopted.

HERBERT J. KELLAWAY.

Auburndale Man Not Guilty Of Assault

In the Newton court last Friday Judge Bacon found Ivo Smith of 2133 Commonwealth avenue, Auburndale, not guilty of assault and battery on Thomas H. Ryan of 11 Fern st., Auburndale. Ryan had charged that he had been hit on the head by Smith and as a result fell down a cellar stairs at a chain store at 2110 Commonwealth ave. William H. Dolan, Jr., manager at the store, testified that he heard Ryan fall down the stairs and with Smith's aid had carried Ryan to a taxi which took him to the Newton Hospital where it was found Ryan had a fractured skull. Ryan was unconscious for seven days. Dr. Angerly of the hospital testified that Ryan's injuries didn't coincide with those which would have been caused merely by a fall. Smith denied that he hit Ryan.

Newton Ctr. Man Charged With Reckless Driving

Ralph Bixby, 20, of 774 Commonwealth avenue, Newton Centre was arraigned in the Newton court on Wednesday on the charge of operating an automobile so as to endanger the safety of the public. The case was continued until April 3. On the afternoon of February 28 a car driven by Bixby hit James Ford, 51, of 14 Maple terrace, Newton, as Ford was crossing Centre street near Church street, Newton. Bixby's car then collided with a car driven by Edward Daley of 62 Richardson street, Newton. Ford was cut on the head and received other injuries.

Automobile Accidents

A car driven by William Smith of 237 Cambridge st., Allston, got out of control on Monday while proceeding on Washington st. near Crafts st., Newtonville, and hit a tree. Smith and Daisy Bardsley of Allston, who was riding with him, received slight injuries.

Cars driven by Anthony Rizzo of Forest st., Watertown, and Malcolm Maloney of Cambridge collided on Monday at Elm and Webster sts., West Newton. Joseph Rizzo of Watertown was reported as having been injured.

Ammonia Fumes Fill Newton Store

A leak in the piping of the refrigerating system at the Mohican Market, 250 Washington st., Newton, caused ammonia fumes to fill that store about 7:30 last Friday morning. The clerks in the market had to beat a hasty retreat to the street. Box 15 was pulled at 7:34 a. m., and the crew from Engine 1 donned gas masks, entered the cellar of the market and shut off the flow of the fumes.

KEEP IN TOUCH

"I would feel much easier if I knew I could get in touch with you if ever I needed to," Edith M. told her husband.

"I don't like to feel so far away from you either," he answered.

"When I'm to be late, or if you are not well, it would save us both worry if we had a telephone of our own. Besides, the boss would like to reach me sometimes at night."

The outcome was that Edith called the business office to order their telephone installed.

"Keeping in touch" is today one big reason why families get and keep their telephones. Of course they also benefit from its help-getting, errand-running, time-saving, friendship-holding services.

Wouldn't you also enjoy some one of these benefits? New England Telephone and Telegraph Company.

WOMEN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES

Edited by EMMA D. COOLIDGE

Two Noteworthy Programs

The Activities committee of the Newton Centre Woman's Club will give a spring Luncheon-Bridge and Fashion Show, with Mrs. Ralph Houghton as chairman, at the Club House, on Wednesday, March 27th, at 1 p. m. There will be an atmosphere of spring throughout the Club House with colorful decorations. During the luncheon spring costumes from Theodore, Inc., will be modeled by Club members. At 2 p. m. there will be bridge, with an appropriate prize for each table. Mrs. John R. Perry, assisted by Mrs. George H. Crosbie, Mrs. Walter T. Bryant, Mrs. Henry E. Goodenough, and Miss Martha Wight, will be in charge of an unusual surprise feature.

Miss Martha Wight, Betty Wight, Virginia Lee Davis, Esther Winslow, and Josephine Tyler will be waitresses. The following will be in charge of the various features: Prizes, Mrs. Austin Benton and Mrs. Elmer M. Kling; Tables, Mrs. Alden Spear; Tickets, Mrs. George A. Holmes; Publicity, Mrs. Joseph T. Bishop and Mrs. Archer Davidson; Candy, Mrs. William H. McCabe; Drinks, Mrs. Alexander Kevorkian and committee; and Luncheon, Mrs. J. A. Utting, caterer. Tickets will be 75 cents each, and may be procured from members of the committee.

The Educational and International committee of the Club will present Miss Sara Wambaugh, who will speak on the "Saar Plebiscite," at the Supper given on Monday, March 25th, at 6:45 p. m., at the Club House. Miss Wambaugh is considered to be one of the best-informed persons upon plebiscites, as indicated by the facts that in 1920 she was the technical adviser for the League of Nations in regard to the Saar Valley; in 1925 she was appointed to this position for the Tacna Arica trouble in South America; and she has written two books on this subject, the last one, "Plebiscites Since the War," published in 1933.

The lecture will be at 7:45 o'clock, and is free to Club members, and fifty cents admission to friends. The dinner and lecture tickets are $1.00.

Attractive Pageant
By Juniors

The Newton Junior Community Club met on March 12th, at 3 o'clock, at the home of Miss Eleanor Collins, 77 Park street. Miss Marjorie Clapp, the president, told the members about the Bridge, Fashion Show and Tea given at Filene's, on March 16th, by the Auburndale Junior Woman's Club. There was an informal discussion of the Annual Conference, which was held last year at Swampscott. Many of the girls attended then but no definite date has been set for this year.

The entire meeting was devoted to the Pageant which the Club will present on March 28th, at the Underwood School Hall, for the Senior Club meeting. The parts already assigned include the following: Spirit of History, Rosalind Lewis; Italy, Eleanor Collins; France, Minnie Spiers; United States, Marjorie Clapp; Japan, Mary Ann Brennan; Russia, Frances Daly; Germany, Barbara Vannah; England, Gertrude Spiers; Austria, Mary Ryan; Holland, Eleanor Lord; Ireland, Margaret Wilson; Sweden, Sally Pierce; India, Barbara Dwight; Portugal, Betty Urban; Spain, Sally Smith; Switzerland, Jean Weber; and China, Marjorie Woodworth.

After a brief rehearsal the Club adjourned for refreshments of punch, sandwiches, cookies, nuts, and candies.

Newton Community Club

Prof. William A. Frayer, of Waban, who has been giving a Course in European History at the Boston Public Library, and who recently spoke in the Gardner Auditorium of the State House, will lecture on "The New Nationalism," before the Newton Community Club on March 28th. The meeting will be held, as usual, in Underwood School Hall, at 2:30 p. m.

There will also be a Pageant presented by the committee on International Relations, Mrs. LeRoy P. Guion, chairman. This will be directed by Mrs. Harold Daniels and the parts will be taken by members of the Junior Club.

Mary Elizabeth Doehler, Harpist, and Frances M. Doehler, Violinist, also members of the Junior Club, will furnish the music. These two musicians are the daughters of Mrs. Paul A. Doehler, a Newton Community Club member. Mary Elizabeth is sixteen years of age, a pupil of Benard Zighera of the Boston Symphony, and has played as soloist in church and on the radio and in trio with violin and organ. Frances, fourteen years of age, is a pupil of Elizabeth Stanley Hastings, and has played in recitals in the Newtons. The Music chairman in charge is Mrs. Wallace Wales.

Tea will be served by the Social committee.

This meeting will be devoted to "Thoreau and His Work," and papers will be read by Mrs. Austin H. Decatur, Miss Thompson, and Mr. Titus. Mrs. Wallace C. Boyden and Mrs. Charles A. Richardson the leaders of the Classes, invite Club members and their friends to enjoy these interesting afternoons where no active participation is required, but the opportunity is afforded to hear discussions on famous authors.

The members of the Club are invited, also, by the Garden Club to a lecture, illustrated with slides, at the Club House, on Thursday, March 28th, at 10 a. m. The speaker will be Bradford Williams.

Attention is called to the bag which the Civics chairman, Mrs. Anton A. Wild, has placed in the front vestibule of the Club House for contributions for the Clothes Room at City Hall.

Social Science Club

At the March 27th meeting of the Social Science Club, Mrs. Ray A. Eustice and Mrs. Arthur J. Mansfield will present "Latin America's Contribution to the Musical Arts," a paper, illustrated by singing and instrumental music. Mrs. William F. Garcelon and Mrs. Louis S. Drake will receive.

Newton Community Club

"Hawaiian Gardens," an illustrated lecture by Alice Cooper Bailey, brought to the Newton Community Club, on March 14th, a delightful visit to interesting and beautiful spots in Hawaii.

Before showing the slides, Mrs. Bailey gave a clever recital of amusing incidents, together with many instructive facts concerning the language, dress, and customs of the people. The scenic background of Hawaii is a perfect setting for the gaudy flowers that grow there; and because of rainbows which appear sometimes twice daily, pale flowers do not appear as attractive as those of brighter color.

The slides depicted not only a riot of color in natural and landscaped gardens, but showed views of the pineapple and rice fields, of the volcano, and of some of the people and public buildings.

The Village Maids, a vocal Trio composed of Miss Ethel Watson and Miss Isabel Dewar, Sopranos, and Sylvia Prescott Russell, Contralto, directed by Mrs. Florence Wood Russell, furnished the music. They continued the Garden theme of the afternoon by singing MacDowell's "To a Wild Rose," followed by "In the Time of Roses" and "There are Fairies at the Bottom of Our Garden." Then cold, winter arrived with the singing of the "Ice" and "The Sleigh," and several other lovely selections. The Hawaiian "Aloha Oe" ended a program of delightful solo and trio singing.

Miss Russell is a scholarship winner in the MacDowell Club and in the Sevitsky contests in the North and National Federation of Music Clubs, while Miss Watson and Miss Dewar won last year in the State Federation of Women's Clubs' competition. They have been presenting radio programs for several months from Stations NBC, WBG, and WHDH.

For the social hour following the program the pourers were Mrs. Whitney Hubbard, Mrs. C. Joseph Gooch, and Mrs. Richard Smith.

The last meeting of the Child Study Class was held at the home of the Public Health chairman, Mrs. Harold Higgins, on March 11th. Mrs. Briant Decker, Director of Play at the Winsor School, gave a very interesting and instructive talk on the "Educational Value of Play." She stressed the point that it is just as important for the child to have a room he can call his own, where he can play undisturbed, with toys he can handle himself, as it is for the parent to have a place that he can call home.

She exhibited toys for constructive play that will please and develop the child, in contrast to a toy so complicated that only a child too old to enjoy it could manipulate it.

Mrs. Chester Sloan, of the Newton Children's Library, gave some excellent advice on Books for Children. She brought many books to illustrate her talk, from which she read excerpts in a very pleasing manner. These books were passed around for the mothers to examine, so they could check their lists for future reference.

Newtonville Garden Club

The Newtonville Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Horace W. Orr, 258 Mill street, last Thursday morning, March 14th. Mrs. Joseph S. Leach, State chairman of Publicity, who was the guest speaker, told of the advantages of belonging to the Garden Federation. Mrs. George Maynard gave a paper on "Day Lilies Blooming One Hundred Days."

The Club will sponsor an illustrated lecture by Bradford Williams, Landscape Gardener, on "Preserving Beautiful and Historic Places in Massachusetts," on March 28th, at 10 a. m., at the Woman's Club House on Washington park. Members of the Woman's Club are cordially invited to attend.

State Federation

ART NEWS. The Art Scholarship lecture, second in the series of four, arranged by the State Art chairman, Mrs. Herbert Stephens, will be given at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts, on Wednesday, the 27th, at 10:30 a. m., by Charles C. Cunningham, who will take for his subject "American and English Paintings." Single tickets may be obtained by those who did not purchase the course ticket, at 35 cents. This series is to raise funds for a Permanent Federation Art Scholarship Fund. The lectures are an hour, after which lovers of this branch of interest will probably go on to State Federation Headquarters, 115 Newbury street, Boston, for the Art Craft Class, which Mrs. Stephens is featuring weekly from 12:30 to 3:30 p. m. She offered this Class free of charge to clubwomen who would make up similar classes in their local clubs, to awaken appreciation of these handicrafts.

Also, clubwomen will be interested to know of an Art Conference, for the Tenth District primarily, but which may be attended by others if they find the location convenient, to be held at Billerica, on March 28th, at 10:15 a. m., with the Nineteen Hundred Club as hostess.

Another item of news in this division of State work, the Eleventh District, of which Mrs. William R. Taylor is director, has been awarded the special Art prize offered by the State Art chairman, Mrs. Herbert Stephens, for having been 100% art-minded. The painting, which is from the brush of Mrs. Stephens, is of Biddeford Pool, in Maine.

RADIO. Tomorrow, March 23rd, over WBZ, at 1:30 a. m., Mrs. Edgar B. Richardson, Radio director, will present Mrs. Hazel Albertson, State Federation, Industry chairman; and Mrs. Charles E. P. Thompson, Literature chairman; and Madeleine King, Soprano soloist.

MUSIC CONFERENCE. Mrs. Moses H. Gulesian, of Chestnut Hill, whom Newton is proud to claim, chairman of Music in the State Federation, announces a Music Conference, in a program with outstanding artists and speakers, at the Hotel Westminster, on Thursday, March 28th, opening at 10:30 a. m. and continuing for the day, until 5 p. m.

General Federation

TRIENNIAL CONVENTION. Mrs. Carl L. Schrader, a past president of the Massachusetts State Federation, who is chairman of the 1935 Triennial program at Detroit, Michigan, June 4th to 12th, is arranging an enormous program that will include more than 125 activities. False Alarms Are Numerous Newton, which has had much fewer false fire alarms in the past few years than Waltham and other nearby places, is having more of this type of malicious, dangerous hoodlums. On Thursday night, March 14, six false alarms were pulled in Newton, apparently by the same persons who pulled false alarms in Waltham and Watertown that night. Some months ago a similar series of false alarms were pulled one night in Newton, Waltham and Watertown. The alarms pulled in Newton on Thursday night were: Box 281, at 6:42 p. m.; Box 212, 6:45 p. m.; Box 181, 8:06 p. m.; Box 641, 8:18 p. m.; Box 68, 8:23 p. m.; Box 42, 8:32 p. m. These boxes are located in widely separated parts of the city.

Sunday morning at 12:23 a. m., a false alarm was pulled from Box 174 at West st., Nonantum, Monday morning at 1:39 another alarm was pulled from this same box. Someone had set fire to upholstery in a junked automobile at Stiberg's junkyard nearby.

Burglars at Newton Centre

Burglars entered the home of William Mosman, 360 Commonwealth ave., Newton Centre, last Saturday night about 10 o'clock and were frightened away when Mosman was awakened. He heard someone moving about on the first floor of the house and called out, asking, "who's there?" Receiving no answer and thinking it might be one of the servants, he went back to bed. Immediately after, an automobile drove away from the house. When Mosman went downstairs Sunday morning he found that a window at the rear of the house had been forced open and was left wide open by the burglars when they fled.

Newton Ctr. Man Fined $50 for Reckless Driving

Stephen H. Bishop of Ledges road, Newton Centre was fined $50 in the Cambridge District Court on Wednesday for driving a car so as to endanger the safety of the public. On March 5th a car driven by Bishop crashed into a parked car on Charles River road, Cambridge. Patrolman Joseph Snyder of the Metropolitan Police had stopped the other car and was taking the license number of its driver. He was pinned between the two cars and his left leg was so badly crushed that it had to be amputated at the knee at the Massachusetts General Hospital.

Negro Bandits Get Long Jail Terms

Two negroes, captured by Newton police on February 13 after they had held up and robbed a taxi driver on Hobart road, Newton Centre, were given heavy penalties by Judge Brown in the Middlesex Superior court on Friday. James Senna, 19, of South Boston was sentenced to serve from 3 to 5 years in State prison. John Gomez, 26, of the South End, Boston, was sentenced to serve an indeterminate term at Concord reformatory. Herbert White, 23, of Roxbury, arrested as the companion of the other two in the robbery, was found not guilty. Max Pratt of Dorchester, the victim of the robbery, could not positively identify White.

Newton Hlds. Man Indicted By Grand Jury

Louis E. Rudnick of Hyde st., Newton Highlands, was indicted on Monday by the Federal Grand Jury on a charge of making a false payroll on a PWA project at the Norfolk prison colony. The alleged offence was in connection with the building of a storage barn and silo.

Aldermen Meet

The Board of Aldermen held a regular meeting on Monday night. The members absent were Bowen, Floyd and McCabe. The meeting started at 8:09 and at 8:16 President Gordon declared a "short recess" which lasted until 9:54, much of this time being used by the aldermen to hold a meeting behind closed doors as a committee of the whole. The open meeting lasted about an hour after being resumed in the aldermanic chamber. It adjourned at 11 o'clock. About twenty-five of the employees of the Street Department who were laid off a couple of weeks ago were present expecting to see an appropriation of $37,895 passed which would have put many of them at work again. This appropriation was recommended by the Mayor for construction of a sewer along Albemarle rd., Newtonville, and it was one of the matters discussed in the secret session. No action was taken on it, so the large group of idle employees who came to the meeting went home disappointed.

The first matters on the docket were hearings on petitions for grading and accepting the following streets: Bruce lane from Cotton st.; Evelyn rd. from Beacon st. to Paulson rd.; Nathan rd. from Centre st. to present accepted portion. None appeared to favor or object to these petitions.

Alderman Hill, reporting for the Licenses Committee, recommended to withdraw on the petition of Frank Vincenzo for a permit to establish a gasoline filling station at Washington and Cross sts. Mayor Weeks' appointments of Ralph C. Henry as a member of the Playground Commission and Dr. C. A. Bontelle as Inspector of Animals were confirmed. The recess was then taken.

When the Board resumed the open meeting a discussion started on the adverse report of the Licenses Committee against the petition of Florence Wood Russell asking permission for two little girls (neither over 10) to sing at an amateur night at the Paramount Theatre on Thursday, March 21. Five members of the committee favored the recommendation which refused permission. Aldermen Atkins and Guzzi dissented. Atkins asked that a letter from Mrs. Russell be read. The letter explained that the two children are proteges of hers, and that their participation in the amateur performance might produce future opportunities for them. Alderman Atkins argued that the little girls are not being exploited and said no harm will be done by allowing them to take part in the performance. Alderman Colby said that the policy adopted by the Newton aldermen several years ago of refusing to permit school children to take part in evening performances except on nights preceding days on which no school is held, should be followed. He said that the children both are too young to reason whether participation in a night performance would be good or bad for them, and they are being exploited. Alderman Guzzi said that many children in Newton have taken part in evening performances without having obtained legal permission from the aldermen, and as Mrs. Russell recognized the law, her request should be granted. The Board voted against granting permission; Atkins and Guzzi voting against the recommendation of the committee.

Petitions received and referred to the Public Works Committee included —Winifred C. Lewis and others for drain and sewer on Bellevue st. between Howard and Summit sts.; Clarence Estey for sewer in Weldon rd. off Summit st.; Alexander Benoit for improving and accepting Adams st. from Silver Lake ave. to California street.

Up to the present, it seems they have been obtaining the service free for on Monday the Wellesley police department was notified by the Newton police department that in the future a charge of $300 annually will be levied for the broadcasting. The same amount will have to be paid by Waltham, Watertown and Needham if they desire the service to be continued.

School Committee Recommends New Building Program

Crowding of Schools Causes School Committee to Act

The Newton School Committee held a meeting on Monday night and voted to request Mayor Weeks that a program of new school construction be started which will cost approximately $1,000,000. The request to the Mayor specifies that this activity be started as soon as possible. At a meeting of the School Committee on January 28 it was voted to recommend to Mayor Weeks that this school construction program be started on the supposition that PWA funds may be available for the projects. On last Monday night Professor Kirtley Mather said the city should start on the program even if PWA funds cannot be obtained.

The projects in the order they should be undertaken in the judgment of the School Committee are as follows: a grade school building at West Newton to replace the Franklin School; an addition to the Angier School at Waban; a building at Newton to replace the Eliot and Lincoln schools; a new Trade School building; an administration building for the School Department; a new school at Oak Hill. Of the seven members of the School Committee, five voted for the motion made by Mr. Mather favoring the construction program. Harry E. Bryant declined to vote. George H. Fernald, Jr. voted against the motion. Mr. Bryant believed that, inasmuch as the School Committee had on January 28 voted to recommend a similar program to the Mayor, the second recommendation is unnecessary. Mr. Fernald contended that a new building for the Trade School is not necessary at the present time and the Oak Hill situation is still undeveloped as even a definite site there for a school has not been determined on.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davenport and Mrs. Otis Means of Oak Hill were present at the meeting to renew the plea of residents of that section that a new school there be the first project. Transportation to Newton Centre schools is now being given Oak Hill children but the Oak Hillites want their own school.

The Franklin School at West Newton is an old, wooden structure which has been overcrowded for years. Additional rooms are badly needed at the Angier School because of the rapid growth of the Waban district. The two schools at Newtonville are proposed to replace are among the most antiquated in the city. The Lincoln School is 81 years old and the Eliot School was built over 50 years ago. Many small children who reside in the district which would be served by the new school at Newton, now have to cross Washington street, the worst hazard for pedestrians in Newton, and Centre street, where there is also a very heavy automobile traffic. There has been a demand for some years for a separate administration building for the School Department. Its offices are now located in the high school building at Newtonville.

A communication was received from the Newton school teachers' asking that the new school at Nevada street be named the Ulysses G. Wheeler School in honor of the former superintendent of West Newton parents received from West Newton parents asking that the afternoon session of the kindergarten be discontinued. Mrs. Charles Graves of Temple street, who circulated this petition stated that the afternoon session is injurious to the health of the children as they are too tired to attend school in the afternoon.

Supt. of Schools Warren told the committee that when the new school at Nevada street will be opened next September 15 the 16 rooms there will be filled to capacity and the expected relief from congestion at the Stearns School will not be provided. School Committeeman Butts stated that the proposed new school in the Pearl street section would relieve the overcrowding at the Stearns School.

Discussion Of Taxes Continued

The Newton League of Women Voters, a branch of the Boston League, held the fourth meeting of its study group on Taxation at the home of Mrs. Walter Hartstone, 950 Centre st., Newton Centre, on Monday morning, March 25th. The subject was State Taxes.

As usual the first business was the reply to a question raised at the preceding meeting but which the leader was unable at that time to answer: What are the duties of a sealer of weights and measures? An article published in the Newton GRAPHIC by the late J. C. Brimblecom some 20 years ago and courteously brought up to date by the present sealer was drawn upon for the answer. Consultation of the pamphlet, "How Newton is Governed," is recommended. It is in the Newton Library.

The sealer's work ranges from measurement of the number of yards in a spool of cotton thread to the number of pounds sold in a ton of coal. Supervisors also articles sold in packages, cans and cartons. Seals every weight and scale at least once a year, including scales used on teams of vegetable peddlers. Tests the weight of goods made ready for delivery to customers. Tests on the one hand the delicate scales used by druggists for prescription work and on the other the ice cream cartons of such soft material that great depressions have been made in them by pressure of the fingers.

The regular work of the morning was introduced by brief extracts from the Budget Speech of Albert F. Bigelow, Chairman of the House Committee on Ways and Means. Proposed appropriations show an increase over those of 1934 of $2,400,000 and an excess over revenue of $20,700,000. It is proposed that this year, as last, a transfer of $10,000,000 be made from the Highway Fund. If this is done the state tax will in the coming year add $1.55 to the local tax as against $1.35 in 1934. It will probably be absolutely necessary to make an additional appropriation of about $400,000 to meet the cost of rising commodity prices.

There have been at least four special Tax Commissions appointed by the General Court to investigate the entire subject of city, county and state taxation. That of 1927 is particularly important because of its clear and vigorous statements of conditions, principles and policies of taxation. Follows an abstract:

There should be three kinds of tax: (1) On persons resident within the Commonwealth; (2) On property located within the Commonwealth; (3) Miscellaneous taxes not inconsistent with either of the other kinds and which do not violate the principle of fairness of distribution of the tax burden.

Taxes should be laid in part on persons because of the benefits which accrue to them from government irrespective of their ownership of property, and in part . . . on the owners of property because of the benefits which accrue to property or to the owners or users thereof by reason of such ownership or use. But a person should not pay an aggregate amount of tax that would represent more than his fair share of the total tax burden. In determining his fair share account should be taken of two types of benefit, one personal and one resulting from ownership of property. Personal benefits are not susceptible of exact measurement in terms of money. For this reason as well as because it would not be fair to base taxation on the comparative value of these benefits the Commission held that taxes on persons must be based frankly on the ability to pay.

These general considerations were followed by a discussion of a few state taxes—the classified income tax, the poll tax, the gasoline tax and Henry George's Single Tax. Other taxes were reserved for consideration at the next meeting. This will be held on Monday, April 1st, at the same time and place. The subjects will be: General questions on taxation problems and possible economies in state administration.

Mayor Weeks Gets Bid of 10c on Milk for Welfare

Mayor Weeks on Wednesday accepted a bid from the Noble Milk Company to deliver milk at the rate of 10 cents per quart to families receiving welfare aid in Newton. The cost to the city under the contract which expired Wednesday was 8 cents per quart. Recently the Massachusetts Milk Control Board issued an order specifying that 13 cents per quart must be the minimum price for milk supplied to welfare recipients. Mayor Weeks is endeavoring to obtain permission from the Milk Control Board which will allow the Noble Milk Company to sell the milk for 10 cents instead of 13 cents.

Waban Man Heir To Fortune

Judge Joseph McCoolle of the Norfolk Probate Court on March 21st allowed the will of Catherine VerPlanck of Brookline who died on Feb. 8th, leaving an estate estimated at $150,000. After making bequests totalling about $30,000, the residue of the estate was bequeathed to her nephew, Philip VerPlanck of Waban.

To Classify Clerks After Lengthy Study

City Hall Clerks Graded at Specified Salaries

After a study extending over nearly a year, Mayor Sinclair Weeks has announced a classification of clerical employees, establishing the grades of Junior Clerk, Senior Clerk, Chief Clerk and Administrative Clerk in all departments. Under the new system, already approved by the Finance Committee of the Board of Aldermen, clerks doing similar work will be paid at the same rate and to each job will be attached minimum and maximum rates. The plan is based on the system now in vogue in the state service.

Junior clerks hereafter shall receive a minimum of $780 per year and a maximum of $1040 per year. Compensation per week will be $15 for the first year, $16 per week for the second year and so on until the maximum of $20 per week is reached in the sixth year.

Duties in this class are defined as follows: "Under immediate supervision to perform routine office work of ordinary difficulty and responsibility calling for care and accuracy in detail and for individual judgment in the application of a standardized routine and compliance with definite instructions or regulations; or to operate a typewriter in connection with such duties; and to perform related work as required."

Senior clerks with a minimum of $1040 and maximum of $1300 start in at $20 per week, and in the sixth year will be paid $25 per week. For extra years of service, however, a super-maximum has been established in this class of service which will be reached in 14 years by an additional increment of $50 per annum, payable in four installments at two-year intervals, the first installment to accrue two years after the clerk has reached the maximum of $1300.

Chief Clerks will have a minimum of $1300, a maximum of $1560 and a super-maximum reached in 14 years of $1760. Administrative clerks and Executive Secretaries will have a minimum of $1560, a maximum of $1820 and a super-maximum of $2000.

In all, 69 clerks in City Hall, the School Department, Police and Fire Headquarters will be affected. Eleven clerks now receiving as much as more than the maximum for the class of work they are doing will not suffer salary reductions. They will continue to receive their present pay, without any further raises, as long as they work for the city. When their particular jobs are vacated however, the new clerk hired to fill them will be paid at the rates established for the various classes.

Thirty of the clerks will be benefited immediately by the re-classification. Every employee of the Auditing Department, for instance, will receive a raise—the smallest an increase of $10 per year—several at $52 per year, and one at $200 per year. In other departments there are no changes at all.

Heads of departments in conference with Mayor Weeks designated the classes of clerks in their respective departments. The arrangement has proved unusually popular with all concerned. Public officials believe it will eliminate annual "pulling and hauling" on the part of City Hall clerks, and their friends seeking raises. Under the present plan a "price tag" has been placed on every job—every employee in the same class starts in at the same salary. That employee knows he will receive an increase of One Dollar per week each year for five years until the maximum is reached. No amount of influence or favoritism will get him any more. It is expected that the new classification at a cost of $5,000 per year will go into effect May first.

Another Fire in Chestnut Hill Apt. Building

The Chestnut Hill Apartments at 219 Commonwealth ave. was the scene of another fire shortly after 1 a. m. Monday. It was the second fire to occur in the building within a month, and like the fire on Feb. 28th started in the apartment of Mrs. Vera Woods. It started from a short circuit on an extension cord attached to a lamp and spread sufficiently through the Woods' apartment to cause damage estimated at $1000. The fire on Feb. 28th was caused by defective wiring. The building was remodelled about a year ago having been converted from large apartments into many small apartments.

$37,895 for Sewer At Newtonville

The Newton Board of Aldermen at a special meeting on Monday night voted to appropriate $37,895 for the construction of a sewer along the east side of Albemarle road, Newtonville from Watertown street to the Charles River where it will connect with the Metropolitan trunk line sewer. The construction of this sewer will cause most of the 50 city employees who were laid off several weeks ago to be put back to work.

Alderman Cronin called attention to the fact that $7000 of the cost of building the sewer must be borne by Albert Schofield of Malden, who has protested against this large expense as it will not benefit his property. Alderman Temperley suggested that the city bear the cost of the sewer instead of imposing it on Mr. Schofield and a few others. He cited as a precedent the action of the Mayor and Aldermen several years ago in authorizing the construction of the Cold Spring drain at the expense of the city at a cost of around $200,000. Mr. Temperley was one of two Aldermen on the Board at that time who voted against the city being saddled with this expense.

Alderman Guzzi asked if the labor on the new sewer will be performed by city employees or by some contractor's employees? He was told that all the work will be done by city employees. Alderman Cronin asked how much of the $37,895 will be spent for labor and how much for materials? The Director of Public Works had departed and none present could answer Mr. Cronin.

On recommendation of Mayor Weeks the Board voted to authorize the City Treasurer to borrow $150,000 from the State on tax titles. Alderman Bowen for the Finance Committee explained that by making this loan the tax rate for the ensuing year will be somewhat reduced.

Chest. Hill Folks Prominent In Flower Show

A number of members of the Chestnut Hill Garden Club and residents of that section have been taking an active part in the Spring Flower Show at Mechanics Building, Boston. Edwin S. Webster of Hammond st. is president of the Massachusetts Horticultural Society, which is conducting the show and was the donor of the president's cup awarded for one of the outstanding exhibits, the Japanese garden of Mrs. John Ames of North Easton. A beautiful collection of orchids exhibited by Mr. Webster won a first prize.

Mrs. R. M. Saltonstall won a first prize for a group of annuals and Mrs. Edwin S. Webster a first prize for a group of orchids. Mrs. Saltonstall also won prizes for exhibits of heliotropes, primula malacoides, freesias and hyacinths. The Chestnut Hill Garden Club won a third prize for a small garden. Mrs. John Cunningham and William Ellery of the Chestnut Hill Garden Club served on committees in connection with the show.

Three Serious Fires in Newton Wednesday A.M.

Apartment Building, Church And Dwelling Damaged

Wednesday morning and noon witnessed the most hectic four hours Newton firemen have had in many years. During that period three serious fires overlapped, Newton fire trucks were kept busy speeding to different sections of the city and fire apparatus and crews from Waltham and Watertown came to the aid of the Newton department.

At 8:34 Box 14 was pulled for a fire in the Marion Apartments at the corner of Washington and Jewett sts., Newton. This building is a four story brick and frame structure containing 16 apartments. The fire apparently started behind a gas stove in a rear apartment on the second floor occupied by Miss Beatrice Purnell, a teacher, who had left her apartment before the fire started. The blaze burned through the ceiling to the apartment of Miss Mary Fay on the third floor and also mushroomed across the third and fourth floors. Occupants of apartments in the building, including Mrs. James Green, Mrs. James Daniels and Mrs. Alfred Perault, were forced to flee. The damage is estimated at between $12,000 and $15,000.

At 8:51 Chief Randlett ordered a second alarm. The firemen were working at the building until 11:01. At 10:52 an alarm came from Box 24 for a fire in the small dwelling at 13 Cottage court, off Adams street, Nantum. This fire gaining much headway from a defective chimney beyond Newton, Waltham and Watertown apparatus arrived, largely destroyed the house and caused damage of several thousands of dollars.

Twenty minutes before the Nantum fire was extinguished, at 12:01 Box 72 was pulled for a fire in the First Baptist Church at Newton Centre. This fire started from a blow torch used by roofers who were repairing the gutters on the church building. It worked through the roof into the pastor's study and into the choir loft. Woodwork and furnishings in the church were damaged by water. The damage is estimated at about $6000. While fighting this fire Frank Fitzgerald of Engine 7 was hit by a falling iron bar and knocked off a ladder. He received a severe scalp wound. Richard Cody of Engine 1 fell from this truck when returning from the fire at "The Marion" and received an injury to his right knee.

Newton Police Shoot At Thief

Patrolmen Charles Jenkins and Goddard captured Frank Zwancus, 19, of Waltham after they had pursued him for a short distance in a police car and Jenkins had fired two shots from his revolver after Zwancus had jumped from the automobile he had stolen and tried to escape on foot. The Newton policemen had received a radio message giving the registration number of a car stolen near the Embassy Theatre in Waltham. They observed the car going by the corner of Commonwealth ave. and Lexington st., Auburndale, and gave chase. The pursued car went around the corner of Lexington and Wolcott sts. and Zwancus drove it into the yard at 471 Wolcott st., breaking down a small tree. As Zwancus was running away from the officers, Jenkins fired at him. Zwancus was caught hiding behind some old radiators at the rear of the house. He was turned over to the Waltham police.

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

By JACK MORRIS

BASKETBALL TEAM HAD
TOTAL OF 394 POINTS

A survey of the basketball score-book at Newton High reveals the fact that the 1935 varsity, coached by Frank M. Simmons, rolled up the grand total of 394 points in their thirteen games, making an average of 30.3 points per game, and held their opponents to 238 points, an average score of 19 points per game. The varsity won eleven games and lost two, tying with Cambridge Latin and Rindge Tech for the suburban league championship.

Leaders in the individual scoring were the brilliant forward combination of Captain-elect Allen Smith and Ted Laffie, a lightweight, fast-thinking pair with no equal in suburban league competition this year. Smith made 111 points, Laffie an even 100, followed by James "Bullet" Byrne, 78; Captain Ellis Donovan, 36; William Spilman, 24; Philip Morrison, 15; Richard Hoy, 14; and Ernie Savignano, 14 points.

LeSourd Leads Seconds
The Newton second varsity team had a good year, winning nine games and losing four. Their thirteen-game total of 255 points to 220 for the opposition made an average of 19.6 points per game against 16.9 for the other teams. Leonard LeSourd, black-haired, vest-pocket sized forward, led the list in scoring with 36 points, followed by Richard Hoy, 32; Charles "Red" Callanan, 31; Charles Fisher, 27; Stan Gruber, 22; Guy Coletti, 16; Donald Colony, 14; Ed Jackson, 13; Pete Donovan, 12; Ernie Savignano, 9; Robert Lyons, 4; and Al Coletti, 4.

F. A. DAY WINS TWICE

More than 100 track athletes from four Newton junior high schools congregated Wednesday afternoon at the Newton High drill shed track to decide their annual grade championships. Day junior high of Newtonville had won the seventh and ninth grade competitions and taken second in the eighth to Levi Warren Junior High. In total points scored, Bigelow and Weeks trailed F. A. Day in that order, although in the official ranking, no school is declared winner of the entire meet.

The point scoring for the three grades ran as follows: Grade seven, F. A. Day 27, Bigelow 15, Weeks 1. Grade eight, Levi Warren 14, F. A. Day 12, Weeks 11, and Bigelow 6. Grade nine, F. A. Day 15, Weeks 14, Bigelow 11 and Warren 3.

SPRITED BATTLE FOR BASEBALL TEAM BERTHS

Having put his ponderous Newton High baseball squad through several six-inning practice games this week, Coach L. P. Jones admits that he is highly pleased with the spirited competition for places on the varsity. The temporary varsity, numbering 53, will be reduced to about 30 today in the first cut of the season, and six or eight more will be weeded out in another cut a week from today. With an exhibition game against the Harvard freshmen scheduled for April 13th, Newton's starting lineup will be determined less than a week before that date.

Veterans Pressed by New Men
"Even the four veterans on the squad are being pressed hard to keep their positions," said Coach Jones yesterday. "Catcher Pete Morrison is getting competition from Robert McHugh, first baseman Jim Byrne from Bert Marrazzo, and shortstop Bill Spilman from Ted Laffie. And Carl Bosworth will have to look to his laurels as a heavy hitter if John O'Connell and Guido Castoldi are in the lineup."

During the practice games that have been played this week, Ernie Savignano and Bill Spilman have been hitting well, as have three recruits from the hockey team, Gus Castoldi, John Herrick and Ernie MacLeod. The best of the newcomers appear to be a trio of sophomores up from the Warren Junior High, Guido Castoldi, Bert Marrazzo and Robert McHugh. Another boy who shows ability is John Rechel, a pitcher with last year's junior varsity.

The workouts to date have consisted of six-inning practice games, with pitchers on the mound for two innings at a time. Next Monday the varsity men will be equipped with uniforms, and late next week tentative intermediate and junior varsity teams will be drawn up. The intermediate team will include the outstanding seniors, juniors and sophomores of sub-varsity calibre, the junior varsity "A" will include juniors and sophomores, and the junior varsity "B" only sophomores.

Time 13 2-5 seconds. Relay race won by Day; second, Bigelow. Time 57 seconds.

Scoring by grades:

Seventh: F. A. Day 27, Bigelow 15, Weeks 1

Eighth: Levi Warren 14, F. A. Day 12, Weeks 11, Bigelow 6

Ninth: F. A. Day 15, Weeks 14, Bigelow 11, Warren 3

Chess Match

On last Thursday evening a return Chess Match was played at the Melrose Y. M. C. A. The following men represented Newton: Messrs. Leonard A. Monzert, C. S. Crummett, Archie Kennel, William C. Michaels, Robert Frye, Francis A. Paquin, Gordon Messinger, H. W. Bascom, and Dr. Cameron A. Rae. Newton won the match, 6-3.

Basketball

The Newton Y. M. C. A. Senior basketball team came from behind to defeat the Newton Collegians, 39-33, at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday night in a well played exhibition game. The Collegians showed remarkable teamwork despite the fact they have not played together as a team before.

Charles Gallagher of Providence College featured by his smooth, accurate passing and his handling of the team while scoring 11 points. Everett Gallant of Boston College showed his usual sharp shooting qualities, finding the hoop for 8 points. Bill Lansed, former Y. M. C. A. and St. Charles star, got loose for 10 points, with Cannon of Holy Cross, John Joyce of Providence College, and Jim Moran, former Our Lady's star, accounting for the remainder of points for the Collegians.

The "Y" team started slowly and trailed all though until the last period when Bill McCall, former Dartmouth athlete, showing versatility and speed, accounted for 13 points in less than five minutes to win for the Y. M. C. A. The scoring was divided with every member of the "Y" team contributing points. Nathan Dolber, Andrew Kasper, Beverley Wilson, Ray Clarke, and Gordon Bass scored 6, 6, 2, 4, and 8 points, respectively.

The preliminary game brought two youthful and enthusiastic quintets together as the Newton Independents defeated the Newton Ramblers, 39-21, after a nip and tuck first half which pleased the large number of spectators greatly.

FORD V-8

In A Class By Itself

THERE is no way to compare the Ford V-8 with any other car because there is no other car like it.

The Ford enables you to step up into the fine-car class in performance, beauty, comfort and safety. But there is no stepping up in price. That is kept down by Ford low-profit policies and unique manufacturing methods. These are as different as the car itself.

It takes eight cylinders to give the modern performance you need these days. The Ford is powered by a V-8—the finest type of eight-cylinder engine. You have to pay more than $2000 for that in any other car.

Rotary Club

General Daniel Needham spoke to the Rotarians last Monday on the proposed military camp on Cape Cod. "Devens," he said, "is really only a mobilization area and much too small and too near towns for a training field for troops. The artillery brigade can't get together at Devens. The proposed region on the Cape, in the towns of Sandwich and Bourne mainly, with only a corner in Falmouth, is the only suitable land available in Massachusetts now procurable at a small figure. The land is practically worthless for most purposes and there is hardly a house on it. The artillery range could be so placed that no shooting would disturb any inhabitants. The only objections that Cape dwellers might have to the camp would be the added traffic on the roads for a few weeks during the summer while training is going on."

The General explained further that the money to develop the project is practically assured by Uncle Sam if the state raises the necessary $100,000 for the purchase of the land. The opposition comes mostly from summer dwellers on Cape Cod and very little from those who live there the year around. The General feels that these opponents are laboring under a serious misapprehension as to the nature of such a training field. He prefaced his talk with a plea for preparedness in general, based on the conditions of 1917 and 1918 when it took the country a year and a half to get ready. His point of view was presented in a most admirable way and received the closest attention of the members and their guests. Many remained for a question period.

There were eight guests present, mostly from other Rotary clubs. The "On to Mexico Committee" reported on preliminary plans for the convention of International Rotary in Mexico City, June 17 to 21. Dr. Fred Lowe added good cheer to the meeting by his reading of some verses entitled "God's Own Little Patch of Blue." President Lyseom Bruce presided in his usual jovial manner.

Publicity Conference on Welfare Bureau Work

At a recent meeting held at the Newton Welfare Bureau, Mrs. Natalie Lindholm, who is chairman of the Publicity Division of the Boston Council of Social Agencies, gave very helpful and suggestive advice, on the subject of general and year-around publicity.

Mrs. Lindholm stressed the fact that only individual agencies themselves, can interpret the work of the individual agency.

And that "one of the strengths of a Community Chest, or of any central money raising organization, which will keep it alive, is the constant-plea for interest, in special forms of work. And that no one can do this as well as people within an organization, dealing with problems, day by day."

An active question and discussion period followed, while tea was served by the staff of the Bureau. The group present included members of the Executive Committee, Mr. Elliot B. Church chairman; of the Care, Government and Publicity committees, Mrs. B. E. Taylor, chairman; and a few interested board members.

Young People's Council
Plans Dinner For Tuesday

On March 22, the cabinet of the Young People's District Council held a meeting at the Newtonville Methodist Church to plan a Dinner to be held at the Newton Methodist Church on April 2. The Rev. Franklin Mack who has been traveling through South America doing young people's work will be the speaker. All young people are cordially invited.

RED CROSS NUTRITION WORK

The American Red Cross Nutritionist, Miss Charlotte Raymond, at the request of the Stearns School Center is giving weekly cooking classes to women in the Nonantum section of Newton. The purpose of the work is to teach a variety of uses for simple nourishing and inexpensive foods which are included in low cost dietaries. The attendance is limited to fifteen. Because of the size of the kitchen at the Stearns School where the meetings are held each Wednesday afternoon.

Norumbega District Council Of Religious Education

The program of the Annual Sunday School Convention, to be held next Tuesday evening at the Newton Methodist Church is as follows:

6:30 p. m.—Supper served by ladies of the church, followed by a brief "after-dinner" program and awarding of credits obtained in the District Training Schools.

8:00 p. m.—Evening session in the Auditorium with two addresses: "Christianity in Latin America," by Rev. S. Franklin Mack, and "Teaching World Friendship Through the Church School," by Miss Margaret Winchester.

It will be seen that these addresses supplement each other, their purpose being to emphasize the fact that the study of world needs and world missions must become a vital, integral part of the church school program.

Mr. Mack is director of Young People's Work for the Presbyterian Board of Missions and has spent four months gathering material on the conditions in South and Central America, in view of the fact that the mission study topic for all churches in our country in 1935-36 is to be Latin America.

Miss Winchester comes to us from Manchester, N. H., recommended as a director who has carried on exceptionally fine missionary education work through the church school.

W. C. T. U.

Professor F. Allen Burt of Boston University, who is widely known in publicity and business circles and who was formerly vice president of the Welles Advertising Agency, Inc., of Boston traced the development of advertising from early Egypt, Greece and Rome up to the present day when he spoke, in Boston, last week to a large gathering of Women's Christian Temperance Union members, representing branches of the organization all over the State. A representative delegation from the two Unions in Newton was present.

The Newton Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet Thursday, April 4th, 2:30 p. m. in the Baptist Parish House, 845 Beacon st., Newton Centre. Dr. Marietta Putnam Reid will speak on "Medical Temperance." All who are interested in learning the scientific facts regarding alcohol are cordially invited.

Illustrated

On April 2nd, at 2:30 o'clock, "Gardens of New England and Old Spain" a lecture, illustrated with slides, by Harriette Patey Long, will complete the excellent series of programs which Mrs. George Lowry Davis and her committee planned for the season of the Newtonville Woman's Club. Since her return she has lectured extensively throughout New England on garden and travel subjects, and she also has been actively engaged in her profession. Mrs. Long is an organizing member of the recently-formed "Herb Society of America."

The music for the afternoon will be contributed by Mary Hoyt Cox, Soprano, a Club member. Waban Woman's Club

Mrs. Lewis Jerome Johnson, of Cambridge, will speak on "The World Court" at a meeting of the Study Group of International Affairs of the Waban Woman's Club on Thursday, April 4th, at 9:45 a. m. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter Bauer, 268 Woodward street. Club members are invited to attend.

Auburndale Review Club

The next regular meeting of the Auburndale Review Club will be held on Tuesday, April 2nd, at 10 o'clock. For the program there will be readings, by Nancy Byrd Turner. The hostess will be Mrs. C. E. Valentine, 362 Wolcott street.

West Newton Community Service Club

There was an unusually large attendance at the meeting of the Community Service Club of West Newton in the Parish House of the Second Church on Wednesday, March 20th. The president, Mrs. Austin H. Decatur, presided.

An amendment to the Constitution was adopted unanimously, whereby the annual dues were raised from two dollars to three dollars, and ten cents was added to the dues to cover the per capita assessment of members for the Newton Federation.

The chairman of the Music committee, Mrs. Frank S. Tower, introduced the artist of the afternoon, Jesus Sanroma, official pianist of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Rarely has the Club had the opportunity of hearing a musician of his rank, and his playing aroused the greatest enthusiasm. The program was very well arranged and of varied interest, the composers selected being Mozart, Beethoven, Debussy, Albeniz, and Salla.

Mrs. Franklin S. Hoyt was in charge of the very successful Food Sale. The hostesses for the Tea were Mrs. George F. Larcom and Mrs. C. H. Lippincott.

West Newton Women's Educational Club

Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, president of the West Newton Women's Educational Club, will entertain the members of the Executive Board of the Club at luncheon at her home, 18 Warwick road, West Newton, on Monday, April 1st, at 12 noon.

The West Newton Women's Educational Club convened at 2 p. m. on Friday, March 22nd, instead of at the usual time 2:30 p. m., in order to decide upon the meeting place of the Club for next year, and in order to discuss possible changes in the Federation program and in the continuance or resumption of standing committees. It was voted to meet at the Second Church, West Newton, next year. The other matters will be voted on at the Annual Meeting in April.

After a short recess, Mr. Julius Lucht, librarian of the Newton Library, was introduced by the chairman of the department of Education, Mrs. Thomas Hayden. Mr. Lucht told some interesting facts about the library, described the new Children's Library, and pointed out that the library was now able to have a much larger Art and Music section than ever before.

Dr. Carl E. Smith, the next speaker of the afternoon, was then introduced by Mrs. Roy A. Stinson, a member of the Program committee. Dr. Smith, Associate Professor of Psychology at Harvard, chose for the subject of his talk, "The Psychology of Abnormal Behavior." It is a very difficult task to condense and to simplify such a highly technical subject into an hour's talk and to do it in such a way that the layman can grasp the meaning, but all of this Dr. Smith accomplished in a masterly manner. He pointed out in the first place that the actions, thoughts, and behavior of the mentally-sick are simply an exaggerated form of the same sort of thing which occurs in the case of the normal person. He described briefly the various types of the mentally-sick, such as the mentally depressed, the apathetic, those subject to fugues, multiple personalities, hallucinations, delusions, compulsions, obsessions, phobias, and so forth. There is always some explanation for these forms of behavior, he stated, and in this lies the realm of the psychologist and the psychoanalyst. He emphasized the fact that there has been an enormous increase in the number of cases of the mentally-sick, due, he believes, to the nervous strain and stress under which the majority of people live at the present time, and although those who have the training along these lines have been doing all in their power to improve conditions, the progress in psychotherapy has been exceedingly slow.

After a question period, the Club members and their guests adjourned to the Tea-room where a social hour was enjoyed.

Newton Federation

The March meeting of the Executive Board of the Newton Federation was held on Monday, March 25th, at 10 a. m., in the Newton Library, with Mrs. Charles C. Willson, president, presiding. Among reports of activities from the several chairmen of committees and representatives of affiliated clubs, Mrs. Edwin H. Dyer, chairman of Conservation, asked the club presidents to make contacts with their respective Garden Clubs in regard to a Garden Visiting Day to be about the middle of June.

Mrs. Alexander I. Peckham, chairman of the Legislative committee, and delegate from the Federation to attend the hearings at City Hall on the changing of the zoning laws, reported that a hearing will be held on April 3rd, and that as the law now stands a distillery or manufacturing plant for liquor may be located anywhere in the manufacturing zone in Newton, but that petitions are being circulated to prevent the distilling or manufacturing of liquor anywhere in Newton.

The chairman of the Public Health committee, Mrs. A. H. Shannon, reported her attendance at the Public Health Meeting on March 15th, in Boston, at which Dr. Louise Kingsley presented a detailed history of the Massachusetts Women's Hospital and of the valuable financial assistance given it by the Charity Club of Boston.

Mrs. Benjamin D. Miller, chairman of the Social committee, asked for an expression of opinion regarding the Luncheon at the Annual meeting, for May 6th, at the Brae Burn Club.

Mrs. J. Porter Russell, chairman of International Relations, spoke of a Regional Conference being held this week in Worcester on The Cause and Cure of War.

Mrs. David Black read a report from Mrs. Ernest Cobb, Motion Picture chairman, telling of a four-hour Round Table Conference at her home, and as a result of a letter being written to Mrs. Poole, president of the National Federation, regarding this organization taking up work on the matter of block booking and blind buying, which is not at present within the province of the National Federation.

Mrs. Cobb advised that the clubwomen of Massachusetts were pioneers in starting out to have better moving pictures.

Mrs. Arnold, of the District Nursing Association, spoke briefly of their two fields of work, that is, taking care of the sick and preventive work.

Miss Harriet Parsons, of the Welfare Bureau, urged the importance of more recreational interests for girls; also the necessity for some changes next year in the method of giving out clothing and of checking in the clothing room.

Representatives from the W. C. T. U., the Woman's Auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A., Girl Scouts, and the Hospital Aid Benefit Shop replied briefly to Mrs. Willson's greeting.

Proposed changes in the by-laws also were discussed.

CLUB INSTITUTES. Mrs. George A. Mellen, chairman of Club Institutes of the State Federation for the past three years, announces her final Institute of the year for Thursday, April 4th, at 10:30 a. m., at the Young Women's Christian Association. It will include opening and closing remarks by Mrs. Mellen; an address on "The New England Conference," by Mrs. Frederick Glazier Smith, chairman of the New England Conference of Women's Clubs; address on "The Triennial at Detroit," by Mrs. Carl L. Schrader, Program chairman of the Convention; a Lesson in Parliamentary Law, "The Annual Meeting," by Mrs. Joseph E. Davison, vice-chairman of the department; and addresses: "Duties of a Federation Secretary," by Mrs. Kate M. Dobbie, of Webster; "Our Antique Shop," by Mrs. Jesse S. Wilson, of Winchester; "Drama, a Club Asset," by Mrs. N. E. Chaplin, of South Weymouth; "Our Plans for the Drama Contest for Next Year," by Mrs. Clarence H. Swan, of Methuen; and "Preparing the Way for My Successor," by Mrs. James T. Forgie, of West Roxbury; and by Mrs. Thomas J. Walker, president of the State Federation.

LITERATURE AND DRAMA CONFERENCE. The Conference of the Literature and Drama committee of the State Federation, Mrs. Charles E. P. Thompson, chairman, will be held on April 2nd, at the Hotel Westminster, Boston, at 10:30 a. m. One of the speakers on the afternoon program will be Mrs. Samuel Scott, who will illustrate her lecture "Current Drama" with pictures of scenes from the current Broadway plays. Margaret Wentworth, a publisher of a well-known magazine, will speak on "Palitser Prize Plays"; James B. Pond on "Adventures With Authors"; Nancy Byrd Turner on "Poetry"; and Dr. William Wallace Rose, minister of the First Universalist Church of Lynn, will discuss "Censorship."

There will be music at both sessions and there is no registration fee.

Reservations for luncheon may be made by writing Mrs. Thompson, 65 Centre street, Fairhaven, before April 2nd, or may be made with members of her committee.

State Federation

RADIO. Mrs. Edgar B. Richardson, Radio director of the State Federation, will present tomorrow, Saturday, March 30th, for the broadcast over Station WBZ, at 11:30 a. m., Mrs. William Piper, State chairman of Child Welfare; Mrs. George Davis, Third District director; and Ruth Collingsbourne, violinist.

TRIENNIAL CONVENTION. The election of all new officers in the General Federation of Women's Clubs, which will take place June 10th, will be the event of paramount interest in the Convention. Eleven States are offering candidates for these five major positions. Mrs. Poole, Massachusetts' daughter, goes out of office as president, and there are two candidates for her place. Ohio presents Dr. Josephine L. Peirce, of Lima, for president. Dr. Peirce is now second vice-president of the General Federation; a member of the Executive committee; chairman of the committee on Standards, which has charge of one of the most outstanding projects ever undertaken by the Federation, that of co-operating with the United States Bureau of Standards in working out specifications for staple articles purchased by women; and a former vice-chairman of the department of American Home, and chairman of the division of Family Finance, closely paralleling her club record in her State Federation which culminated with the State presidency. Dr. Peirce is the only woman member of the Ohio State Relief Commission, to which position she was appointed by Governor White.

Oklahoma's candidate for president is Mrs. Roberta Campbell Lawson, of Tulsa, now first vice-president; also extension secretary for International Clubs, which clubs in foreign and Territorial lands now number 81 in 27 countries; a former National Music chairman, and she has served two terms as second vice-president. In her own State, she has been president and later General Federation director. Mrs. Lawson has long been a member of the Board of Regents of the Oklahoma College for Women, and for the past two years has served on the National Committee for the Mobilization of Human Needs.

Oregon presents Mrs. Saldie Orr Dunbar, of Portland, for first vice-president. Mrs. Dunbar, who is un-

GOOD BUSINESS

When Mrs. S., who keeps roomers, went to insert a newspaper ad to fill two vacant rooms, a helpful clerk suggested—

"List your telephone number. Some people like to ask questions before they go looking. Besides, most men want to be sure of a telephone address."

That's why Mrs. S. ordered her telephone at once.

"Even if it only helps hold the roomers I have now, it sounds like good business. It doesn't cost much more and I can use it myself to do errands and to talk to my friends once in a while."

How about you?

Even in a one-room apartment, the telephone can serve you well and faithfully. See your local telephone business office for details. New England Telephone and Telegraph Company.

CLASSIFYING CITY EMPLOYEES

The new classification of clerical employees of the city, we believe, should be advantageous to the employees as well as to the city. Some years ago the state adopted a similar classification so that all clerical employees doing similar work for the various departments would receive the same salary. Length of service was also recognized in providing a step-rate of salary increase upon recommendation of the department head. The adoption of such a system at this time results in an increased pay for some of the clerical employees. It should be kept in mind that such an increase does not mean that these employees are more worthy of an increase than some of their fellow workers. It does mean, however, that in most instances they were being paid less than some other employees doing similar work. We understand that no employee has been obliged to accept a reduction under the arrangement. In the future the wisdom of adopting such a classification method, we have no doubt, will demonstrate itself clearly.

NO PINK SLIPS

Yesterday the United States Senate repealed the provisions of the income tax law requiring that publicity be given to the filing of income taxes. It is well that the upper branch of our National Congress has seen the light. Such publicity as was authorized by the 1934 law might well have resulted in the creation of many new rackets. It would have opened the doors to permit kidnapers, swindlers, and other wrong-doers to prey upon the public after they had been able to obtain information regarding their victims' financial standing. There will be no regrets when the pink slips are assigned to the Federal wastebasket.

J. EARLE PARKER
By F. F. MEYER

Another of Vermont's native sons who have achieved success in the nearby metropolis, Boston, is J. Earle Parker, treasurer and director of the Arcadia Mills, which are located in Lawrence, Massachusetts, and served in that capacity from 1922 to 1930. In the year 1930 he was elected President, Treasurer and Director. The Arcadia Mills have their main office in Lawrence but maintain a branch office at No. 78 Chauncey street, Boston, where Mr. Parker is located.

J. Earle Parker was born in West Rutland, Vt., May 10, 1880, son of C. Joseph Parker, who was engaged in the marble business as a superintendent of works at West Rutland, and of Isabelle (Dennison) Parker, both natives of Washington County, New York, and both deceased. After attending the public schools of West Rutland, Mr. Parker received his commercial training in a college preparatory and business school at Rutland, and then entered Middlebury College, from which he was graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Science in 1901. In 1901 he was admitted to the National University of Law at Washington, D. C., and in 1903 received from that institution the degree of Bachelor of Laws. Continuing his studies there for another year, he received the degree of Master of Laws in 1904, and in 1905 he was admitted to the bar of the District of Columbia.

From 1901 to 1905, the period during which he was preparing himself for the bar, he was serving as private secretary to Senator Redfield Proctor of Vermont. In 1903 he was also secretary to Judge Frank Plumley, Empire State Claims Commissioner in New York. After his admission to the bar he accepted a position as secretary to William Whitman, a leading textile commission merchant and manufacturer of Boston, and that association he maintained from 1905 to 1918, when he became associated with the William Whitman Company of Boston.

Mr. Parker was also made a director of the Tallapoosa Mills at Tallapoosa, Georgia, in 1920, and Treasurer in 1923; a director in the Newton Centre Savings Bank, at Newton Centre, Mass., and a director in the Newton South Cooperative Bank at Newton Highlands, Mass.

Mr. Parker has been active in political affairs in the city of Newton, Massachusetts, where he served as a member of the Board of Aldermen from 1923 to 1925, inclusive, being vice-president of the board 1924-25, and president in 1925. He is a member of the Lawrence Chamber of Commerce, also of the Waban Neighborhood Club. Fraternally, he is identified with Hiram Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, of West Rutland, Vermont; Newton Chapter, Royal Arch Masons; Newton Council, Royal and Select Masters; Gethsemane Commandery, Knights Templar, at Newton; and Aleppo Temple, Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, at Boston. He is also a member of Delta Upsilon and Sigma Nu Phi college fraternities. His religious affiliations and those of his family are with the Union Church, which he serves as a member of the board of trustees.

J. Earle Parker married December 28, 1904, Caroline Burditt, daughter of Dan D. and Minnie (Mason) Burditt, of Pittsford, Vermont, native of Vermont, who are engaged in farming. Mr. and Mrs. Parker are the parents of two children: 1. Elizabeth Burditt, who is a senior in Middlebury College. 2. John Earle, Jr., a student in the Newton schools. The family home is located at No. 27 Metacomb road, Waban, Massachusetts.

Worth Waiting For
Now that I've seen the Flower Show,
With blooms rare and familiar,
I hope my garden may possess
Some dicentra eximia.

I long for better weather soon,
And cry, "O will it ever come,"
That I may view sargentiae, Schizanthus and speciosum.

When I behold prometheus, Hansoni, umbellatum,
Tigridias and elegans,
I'll know that Summer's really come.

Why Spring Is Welcome

Almost any day, if the weather is one-third or even one-quarter decent, you will find youngsters playing baseball somewhere in your neighborhood. If you are too keen to watch them I suggest that you do not visit a public playground. That's the last place to look. They seem to prefer private estates where their presence is forbidden or unwelcome and where the ground is thoroughly wet and soggy. By running around for an hour or so they almost completely ruin what might otherwise have proved a beautiful stretch of lawn if given a chance.

It's all because the boys and girls are thoughtless, I suppose. Possibly they do not wish to appear upon a public playground until in perfect form. Instead they obtain plenty of practice on somebody's pet lawn or in a backyard where they trample upon growing things and crush the edges of the path-border. All this, no doubt, is good for the young ball player's skill if not for the nerves of property owners.

Would Be Hard on Quints!

Reference in this column to an example of thrift—if you remember it, O. K., otherwise it's too long to reprint—brought a telephone call from a reader. Said he, "There's a man in my neighborhood who should get a write-up. He makes his two children divide a five-cent ice cream cone."

Mr. and Mrs. Dionne take notice!

What Should One Do

Is it the duty of an auto owner, who happens also to be his own driver, to render aid to another when the latter is stranded and appeals for assistance on the road? Should he stop and say, "I'm glad to be of assistance. What is there I can do?"

This is a matter, I think, that ought to be settled at once now that thousands of cars are registered daily and in view of the fact that soon (after April 1) there'll be more of them on the road than ever before. It's a problem I'd be glad to help solve if anybody desires my advice. My position would be somewhat vulnerable, I'll admit. My hesitation is due to the probability of a challenge from either side whatever decision I might render. The offended one could and doubtless would say, "You keep out of this, you don't own a car."

Nevertheless, I believe the modern Samaritan will, in the long run, derive more satisfaction than he who is selfish. I wish I could prove that point by a true instance of reward bestowed upon some friendly stranger by the beneficiary. Unfortunately I recall only the case of a man who gave assistance to another and lent him the necessary tools to change a blown-out tire. The helpful one was asked for his name and gave it, with pardonable pride. The other replied promptly: "I thought it was you, I'm a constable and I've been looking for you to serve a warrant for not paying your dog tax."

Information Wanted

Not that it troubles me, although often I have wondered why the installation of the dial telephone service has never taken place in Newton. Residents of our beloved burg, who do business in Boston, must miss it when they get home. Nevertheless, I have never heard of any demand for dials in Newton—that is, no concerted clamor.

I have tried to determine which is the better service. Of course, as a matter of privacy, nobody knows what number you may dial, provided they are listening. But they're bound to find out something from the conversation so it doesn't make much difference.

"The Place for My Savings"

By Edward H. Powers

Newton residents, who live near, or even not so near dumps, need not be surprised if during coming months rats will invade their homes. Rats must eat and the rats which have been subsisting on food from refuse in Newton dumps are going to be out of luck now that the incinerator at Newton Highlands is in operation. Paper, pasteboard and metal receptacles which contained food scraps that rats ate, will no longer be carried to dumps. So, rat poison, rat traps and efficient cats will perhaps be needed in some Newton homes this Spring.

One good result of the incinerator will be the elimination of waste paper blowing over territory in the vicinity of dumps. If the school teachers in this city can prevail on some of their pupils to cease the practice of rummaging in waste barrels when going home from school, it will aid in lessening the quantity of waste paper and paper boxes which now litter our streets.

Frank Goodwin is making more enemies among the judges, district attorneys and other supposed law enforcement officials who are not doing their part in discouraging the terrific automobile carnage in this State by properly punishing drunken and reckless autoists. Keep at it, Frank. The people are with you.

The meeting held last week at the home of Richard M. Ott in the interest of the candidacy of General Daniel Needham for Mayor of Newton should dispel a false rumor which has been current in parts of the city for some weeks. This rumor was that Mr. Needham intends to move from the city and would not be a candidate. With the Needham campaign underway, supporters of Edwin O. Childs are talking of getting busy in behalf of their candidate.

Recently in this column we wrote of the prevalence of broken glass on streets and stated that broken milk bottles compose the largest part of this menace to automobile tires. Much of the glass is caused by drunken hoodlums in cars throwing empty whiskey or alcohol bottles onto the streets. A regular patrol should be established to keep the streets free from broken glass.

Now that the streets are free from snow and ice, the Street Department should without further delay paint the cross walk lines and parking space lines at the various business corners in the city. It would be easier for the police to enforce parking regulations if these lines were painted and the safety of pedestrians would not be so endangered as it is now when they have to walk around cars parked on cross walks.

It's one thing to be awakened by a robin caroling at early morn. It's quite another thing to be rudely aroused at 6 or 6:30 a. m. by a galloping garbage gatherer emptying a

Turning Back 10 Years

TURNING back to 1925, we find there has been a decided trend toward mutual savings banks in the past decade.

In 1925, 10,616,215 thrifty people had $7,139,510,000 in mutual savings banks. In 1934, 13,836,975 people had $9,757,690,937.

Though only 1 in every 28 banks is a mutual savings bank, nearly 50% of all savings deposits are in mutual savings banks like the Newton Centre Savings Bank.

opposed for this office, is recording secretary of the General Federation; has been on the Executive committee for the past seven years; has been chairman of Public Welfare and, concurrently, dean of department chairmen; and has also headed the Division of Tuberculosis. Mrs. Dunbar represented the Federation in the White House Conference on Child Health and Protection. For the past twenty years, she has been executive secretary of the Oregon Tuberculosis Association.

Illinois, New York, and North Dakota are presenting candidates for the second vice-presidency; Tennessee, Virginia, and West Virginia, candidates for recording secretary; and New Hampshire and Vermont for treasurer. Information concerning these will be given later in this Column.

The General Federation has adopted a five-year plan—not reform or overthrow of the government—but to increase efficiency in promoting all movements looking toward the betterment of life," by completing its One Million Dollar Foundation Fund by 1940. The decision to put on an intensive drive during the next five years was made at a recent meeting of the Board of Directors and the plan is being presented to the several States, which are being asked to come to the Detroit Triennial convention in June prepared to make pledges.

It was in 1929 that the Federation launched its gigantic project of raising a $2,000,000 fund, half of which was to be retained by the States, and the other half used as a sinking fund, only the interest from which is used in promoting the work of the Federation. More than $100,000 was soon raised, then came the depression, during which time many clubs found it difficult to pay their dues; however, during the past several years additional thousands have trickled in until today the fund stands at $134,975-72. The hope of Federation officials is that through intensive work the full amount will be realized during the next five years. The sum needed represents a per capita payment of $2.50 over the period of five years, or fifty cents a year. Each State is left to its own devices in raising the fund, such as securing outside gifts, organizing group activity toward the desired end, giving from its treasury, or inspiring individual members to contribute their portion.
